THE POWER RANGERS

With all the great “Zords, Zedds and Zordons” in the wild world of the Power Rangers, this dictionary should have a special supplement just for the Z’s!

A: ALPHA FIVE is the robot that runs the Command Center.

B: BILLY is the handsome Blue Ranger, played by David Yost.

C: COUNTER PROGRAMMING is how Power Rangers came into being—Fox wanted something different from its competitors!

D: DINOZORDS are the Fighting Robots shaped like dinosaurs.

E: ENERGETIC is the pre-qualification for any Power Ranger—there’s a lot of flippin’ and flyin’ required every show.

F: FINSTER is evil Rita’s only henchman; he is the creator of the Putty Patrol.

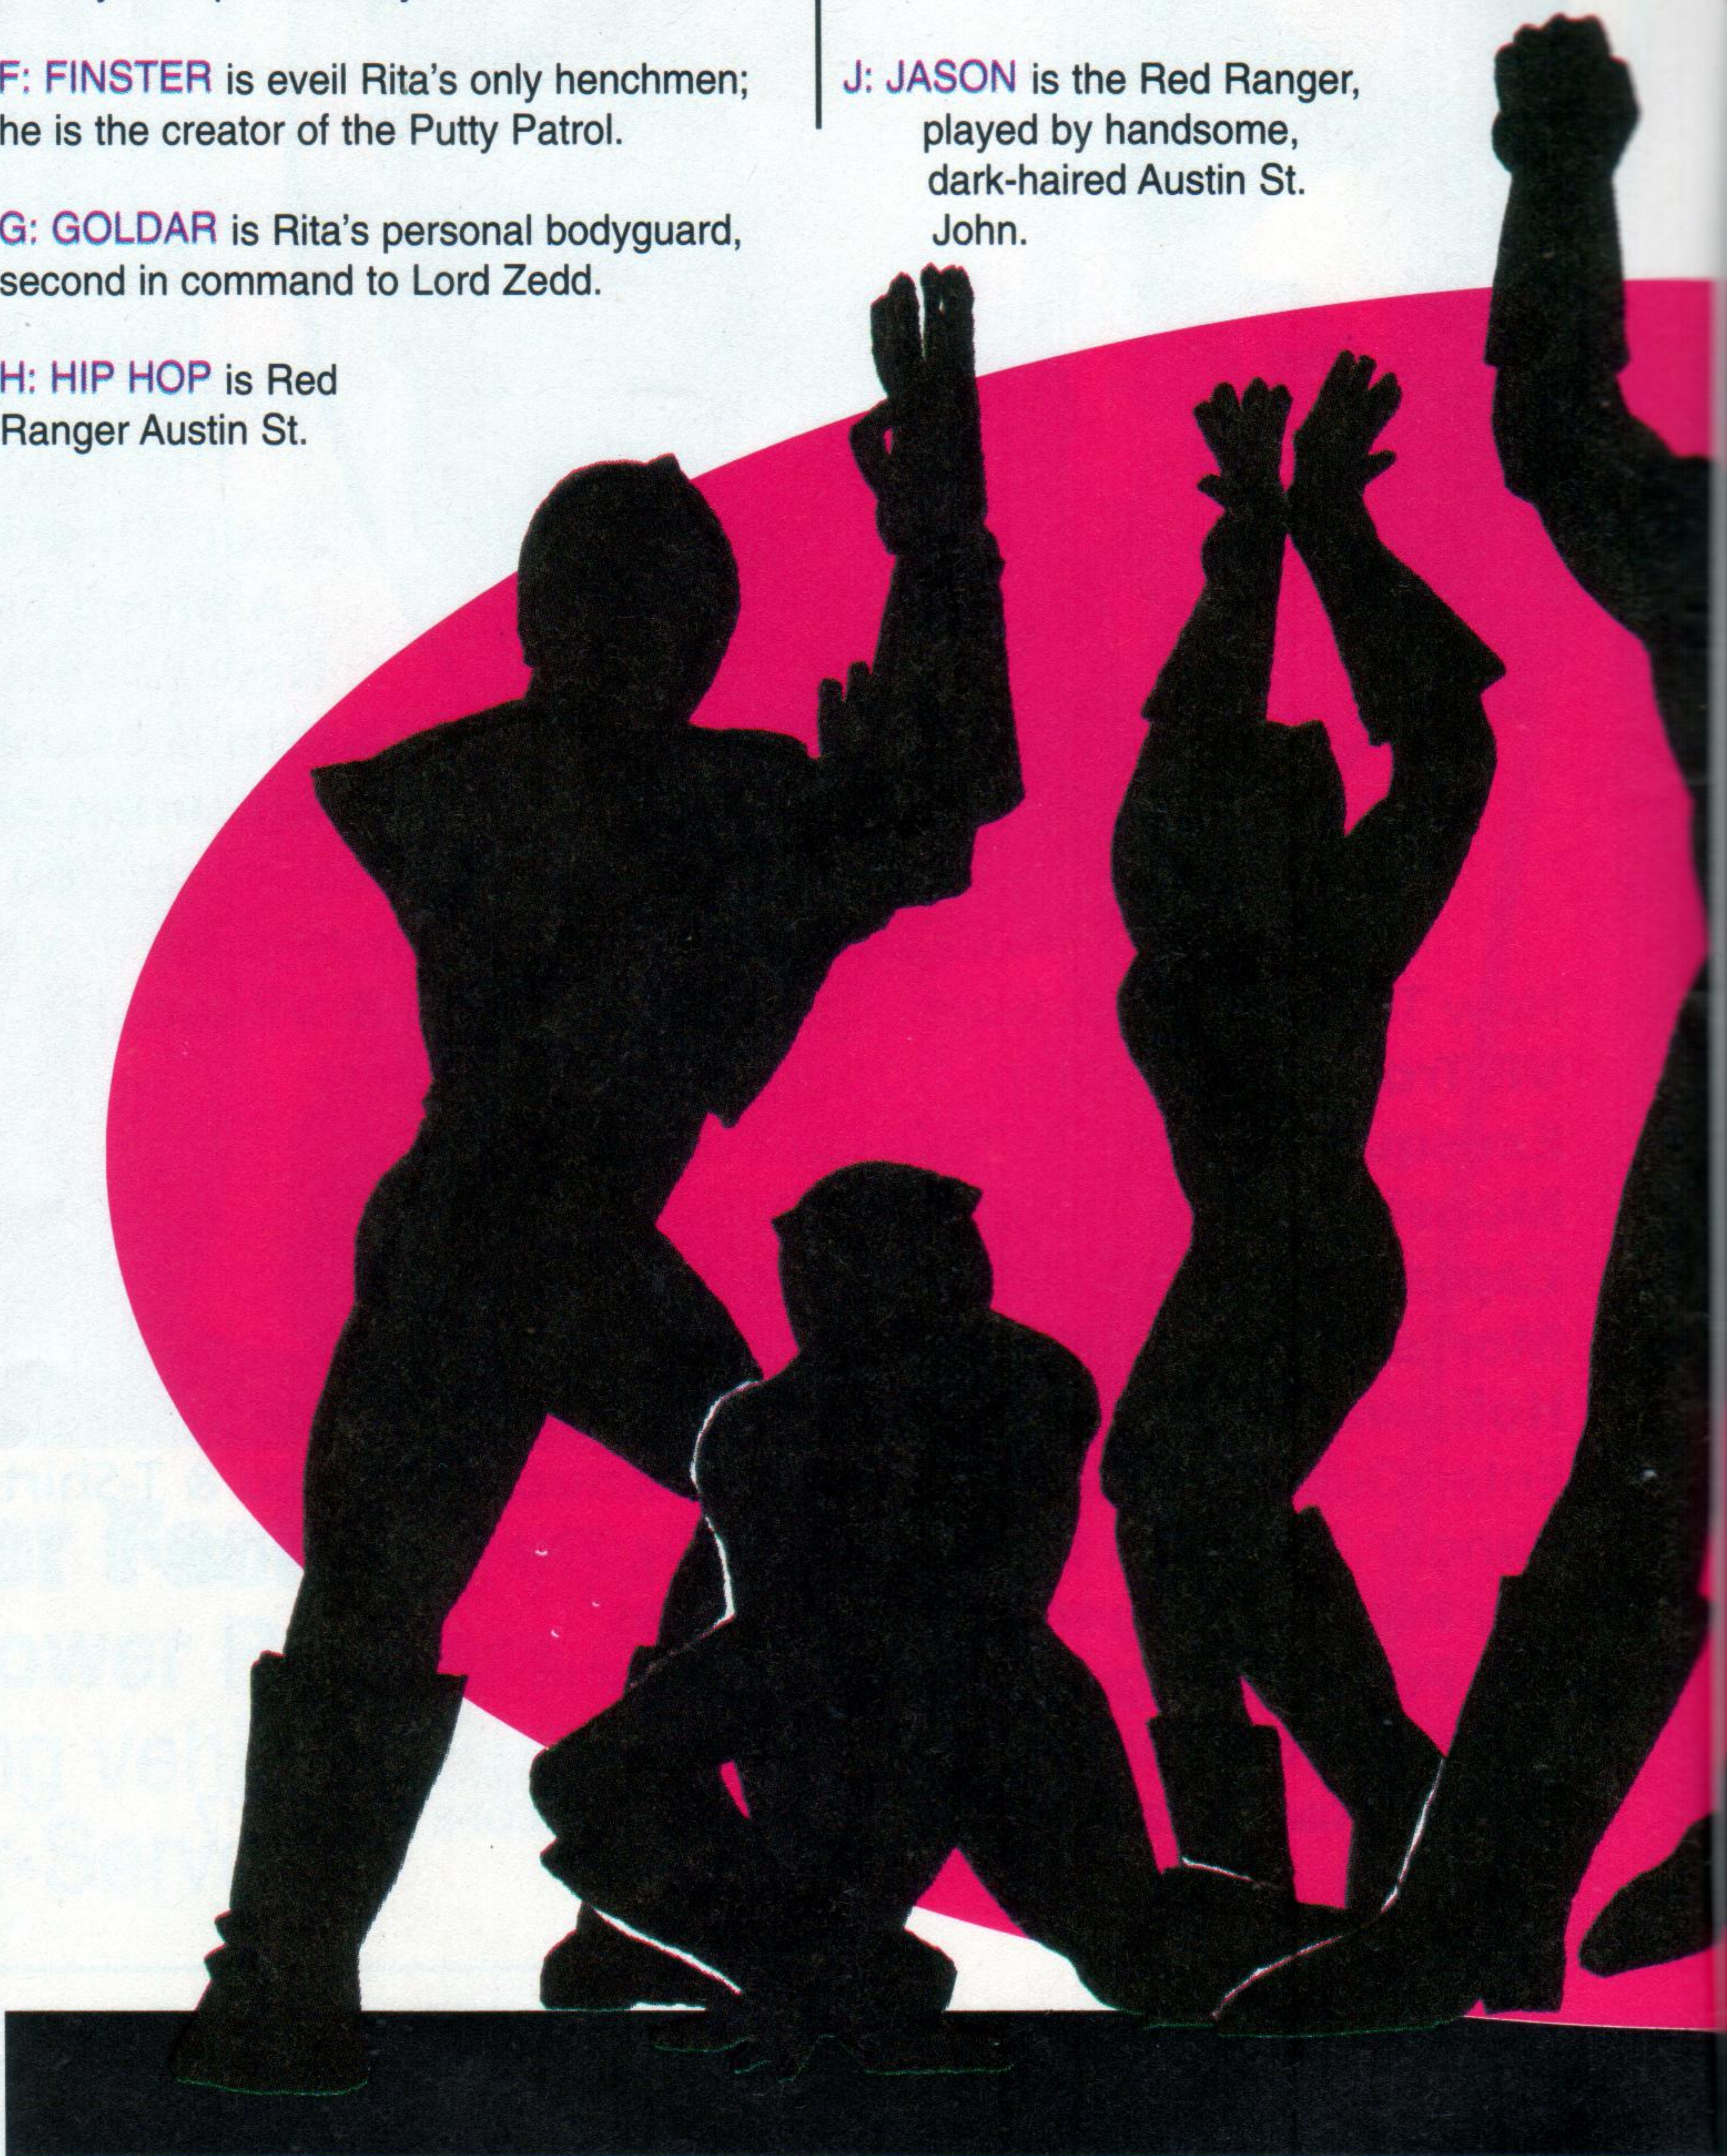

G: GOLDAR is Rita’s personal bodyguard, second in command to Lord Zedd.

H: HIP HOP is Red Ranger Austin St.

John’s favorite type of music.

I: INTERDIMENSIONAL BEINGS are what all of the Power Rangers and their troublesome counterparts are.

J: JASON is the Red Ranger, played by handsome, dark-haired Austin St. John.

A TO Z ON THE

ERS DICTIONARY:

K: KIMBERLY is the Pink Ranger, played by Amy Jo Johnson, who became a gymnast at the age of seven.

L: LORD ZEDD is Rita's boss, who is less than pleased that she didn't finish off the Rangers a season back!

M: MORPHIN is what the Power Rangers are all about! It's like Michael Jackson in his videos—only better!

N: NEUTRALIZING the PR pack is Lord Zedd's stated purpose, and he's got a host of intergalactic buddies helping him!

O: OCTOPHANTOM is a new nemesis for the Rangers this year: it's created out of graffiti drawings.

P: PIRANTISHEAD was the first monster created by Lord Zedd, created from a piranha, the flesh eating fish! Holy sushi!

R: RITA REPULSA is the Empress Of Evil who has been keeping the Power Rangers busy for two TV seasons.

S: SQUATT is formerly one of Rita's goons, but now he's sucking up to Lord Zedd full-time!

T: TOMMY is the White Ranger, played by Jason Frank, who holds a fourth degree black belt.

U: UNIVERSAL STUDIOS, California, is where the Power Rangers' personal appearance broke the 30-year attendance record at the park.

V: V.R. TROOPERS was described by Saban Entertainment officials in a recent TV Guide article as "kind of Power Rangers: The Next Generation."

W: WALTER JONES is the actor who portrays Zack, the Black Ranger, who knows his biggest fan is his mom!

X: X-MEN are wimps compared to the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers—just ask any PR fan!

Y: YELLOW RANGER Trini is played by Thuy Trang, who only owned two pieces of yellow clothing before the show; she has since given both of them away!

Z: ZORDON fought Rita Repulsa for control of the universe and won. But she always knew she and her master, Lord Zedd, would be back to cause more trouble—and make for more terrific tales of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

MORPH-MASTERS!

PRESENTING THE POWER
RANGERS—
SIX NOT-SO-TYPICAL TEENS!

Jason—The Red Ranger: It's Fun Being A Leader!

As the leader of the Power Rangers, Jason pilots the indestructible Red Dragon Thunderzord. When he's not battling Lord Zedd's band of ghastly goons, Jason perfects his impressive martial arts skills.

Jason's weapon is the Power Sword and he looks for every opportunity to use it on an approaching enemy that won't take no for an answer.

M eet the typical teen heroes of Angel Grove High School: Jason, Billy, Zack, Trini, Kimberly and Tommy (also known as their alter-egos, The Power Rangers)! Together with their towering super Thunderzords, Zordon has given them the power to save the world from the evil Lord Zedd and his ghastly Goons. The Rangers are the six new wonders of the world!

Jason, THE RED RANGER

Power Fact: Austin St. John, who plays Jason, The Red Ranger, says that “kids follow me around wherever I go. I feel like Rocky.”

Trini—The Yellow Ranger:
Don't Get Her
Mad!

When Zordon began his search for teenagers with an attitude, Trini fit the bill perfectly. This lovely Ranger is the one with the "lightening hands and a peaceful soul." Zordon couldn't have been more pleased with his selection.

Quiet and reserved, Trini is slow to anger, but will, if provoked, take out any opponent with just a mere kick or two. Don't get her mad!

At school, Trini is the serious student you'll find in the quad pouring over eastern philosophy. She is quite active in school events, and will often assume a leadership position if the cause is a valid one.

When Trini morphs into the Yellow Ranger, her power is derived from the ancient Griffin. She also pilots the gargantuan Griffin Thunderzord! Her weapon is the Power Dagger.

Power Fact: Did you know that Thuy Trang, who plays Trini, the Yellow Ranger, loves collecting Yellow and Pink Ranger merchandise? (She says it “represents the female force”!)

Power Fact: Since Thuy Trang has become Trini, the Yellow Ranger, she has given away all the yellow clothes she owns!

Zack—The Black Ranger: Smooth-Talking 'N' Suave!

RENDITION OF BLACK RANGER BY P.J.

Smooth-talking
Zack is the one Power Ranger who is truly in love with life. He tries hard to be everybody's good friend and confident.

At Angel Grove High, you can find this cool-headed teen in the music room practicing the latest hip-hop dance steps.

With Zack's street-wise attitude, he is known to settle any argument as peacefully as possible. As the Black Ranger, Zack draws on the spirit of the fearless lion and pilots the mighty Lion Thunderzord.

Zack, THE BLACK RANGER

Power Fact:

Did you know that Walter Jones, who plays Zack, hopes to someday return to his original career ambition: to be a rap superstar?!

Kimberly, the Pink Ranger, is a city champion gymnast. There's no doubt, this pretty power girl possesses a real love for adventure. There are times when she is known for her "Valley" expressions, but make no mistake, Kimberly is not a typical Valley Girl.

Kimberly draws on the magnificence and speed of the powerful Firebird, and she is the pilot of the fearless flying Firebird Thunderzord. Her weapon is the Power Bow, an incredible machine that fires energy bolts.

Kimberly—

Valley Girl!

Kimberly, THE PINK RANGER

Power Fact: Did you know that Amy Jo Johnson, who plays Kimberly, the Pink Ranger, just loves rainbows and collects all sorts of rainbow merchandise—from key-chains to paintings?

Billy—The Blue Ranger:
A Little Shy
With The Girls!

Billy, the super-intelligent teen, has a problem communicating with lesser evolved humans. It isn't hard for most people to think of our hero as a nerd—but that is until you really get to know him.

So Billy's a little shy around girls, but he's the good-hearted genius seems to be only understood by fellow Ranger, Trini.

Because Billy possesses a scientific mind, he can find solutions to some very difficult problems. Billy says that the only time he truly feels at home and can be himself is when he is with the other Power Rangers.

Billy, THE BLUE RANGER

Power Facts: Do you know that David Yost, who plays Billy, the Blue Ranger, can barely watch himself on TV because he picks apart his performances? Seems like he's a perfectionist both on and off-screen!

Tommy—The White Ranger: Last But Not Least!

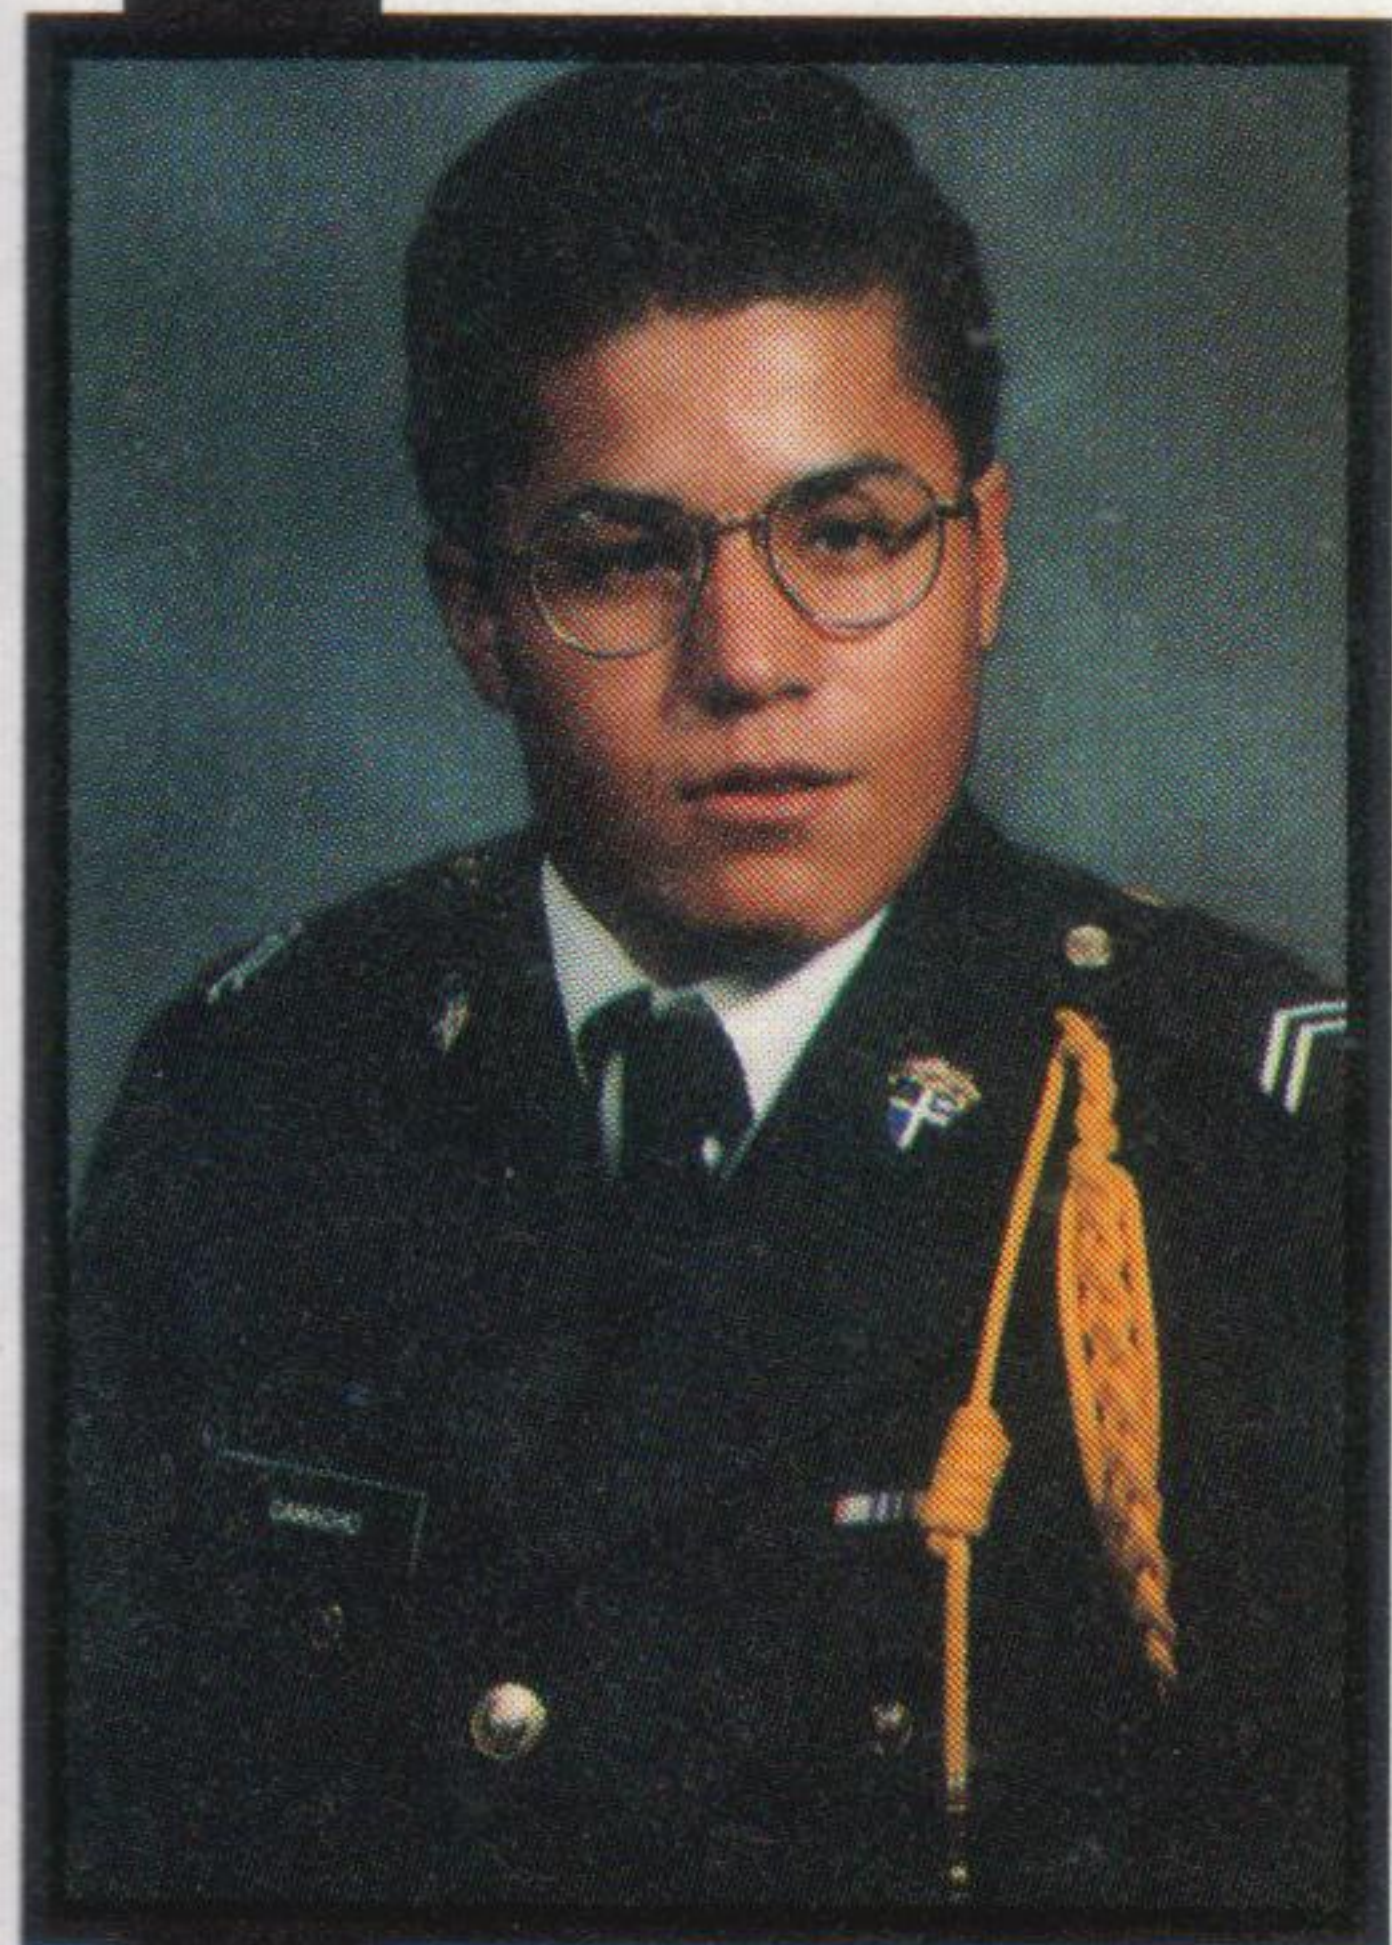

RENDITION OF WHITE RANGER BY P.J.

The last of the Rangers chosen by Zordon. Tommy, who used to be the Green Ranger was under Rita Repulsa's evil spell. With his Sword of Darkness and Power Zord, the fearless Dragon Zord, Tommy tried to destroy the Power Rangers.

But he didn't succeed. Once the Power Rangers learned that Rita could control Tommy through the Sword of Darkness, Jason blasted the evil weapon breaking the spell forever.

Zordon chose Tommy to be the White Ranger by transforming him with new powers—so he could fight on an equal level with his fellow Rangers. Tommy's new fighting machine is the White Tigerzord.

YOU DRAW TOMMY THE GREEN RANGER

Jorge from Troy, New York drew his favorite Power Ranger, Tommy The Green Ranger. Jorge is 16 years old and wants to study art in college. He says he's been drawing since he was five years old. His advice for young artists is to keep trying: "I think that if you fail once at drawing, you should try again and never give up, because you could discover that you're better than you thought!"

If you have a drawing or story about any of your favorite power hero, send it to POWER HEROES AND VILLAINS, c/o Starline Publications, 210 Route 4 East, suite 401, Paramus, New Jersey, 07652. We might use your drawing just like we used Jorge's!

Want to be one of 10 winners of a surprise gift (approximate value: $15)? Well, then—when you're done, rip out the page and send it to: Power Rangers Word Search, c/o Starline Publications, 210 Route 4 East, Paramus, NJ 07652. Void where prohibited by law. Ten correct entries will be selected by Starline's editors and prizes will be sent in the mail without prior notification. No purchase necessary. Contest closes January 31st, 1994. Good luck!

RENDITION OF BABOO BY P.J.

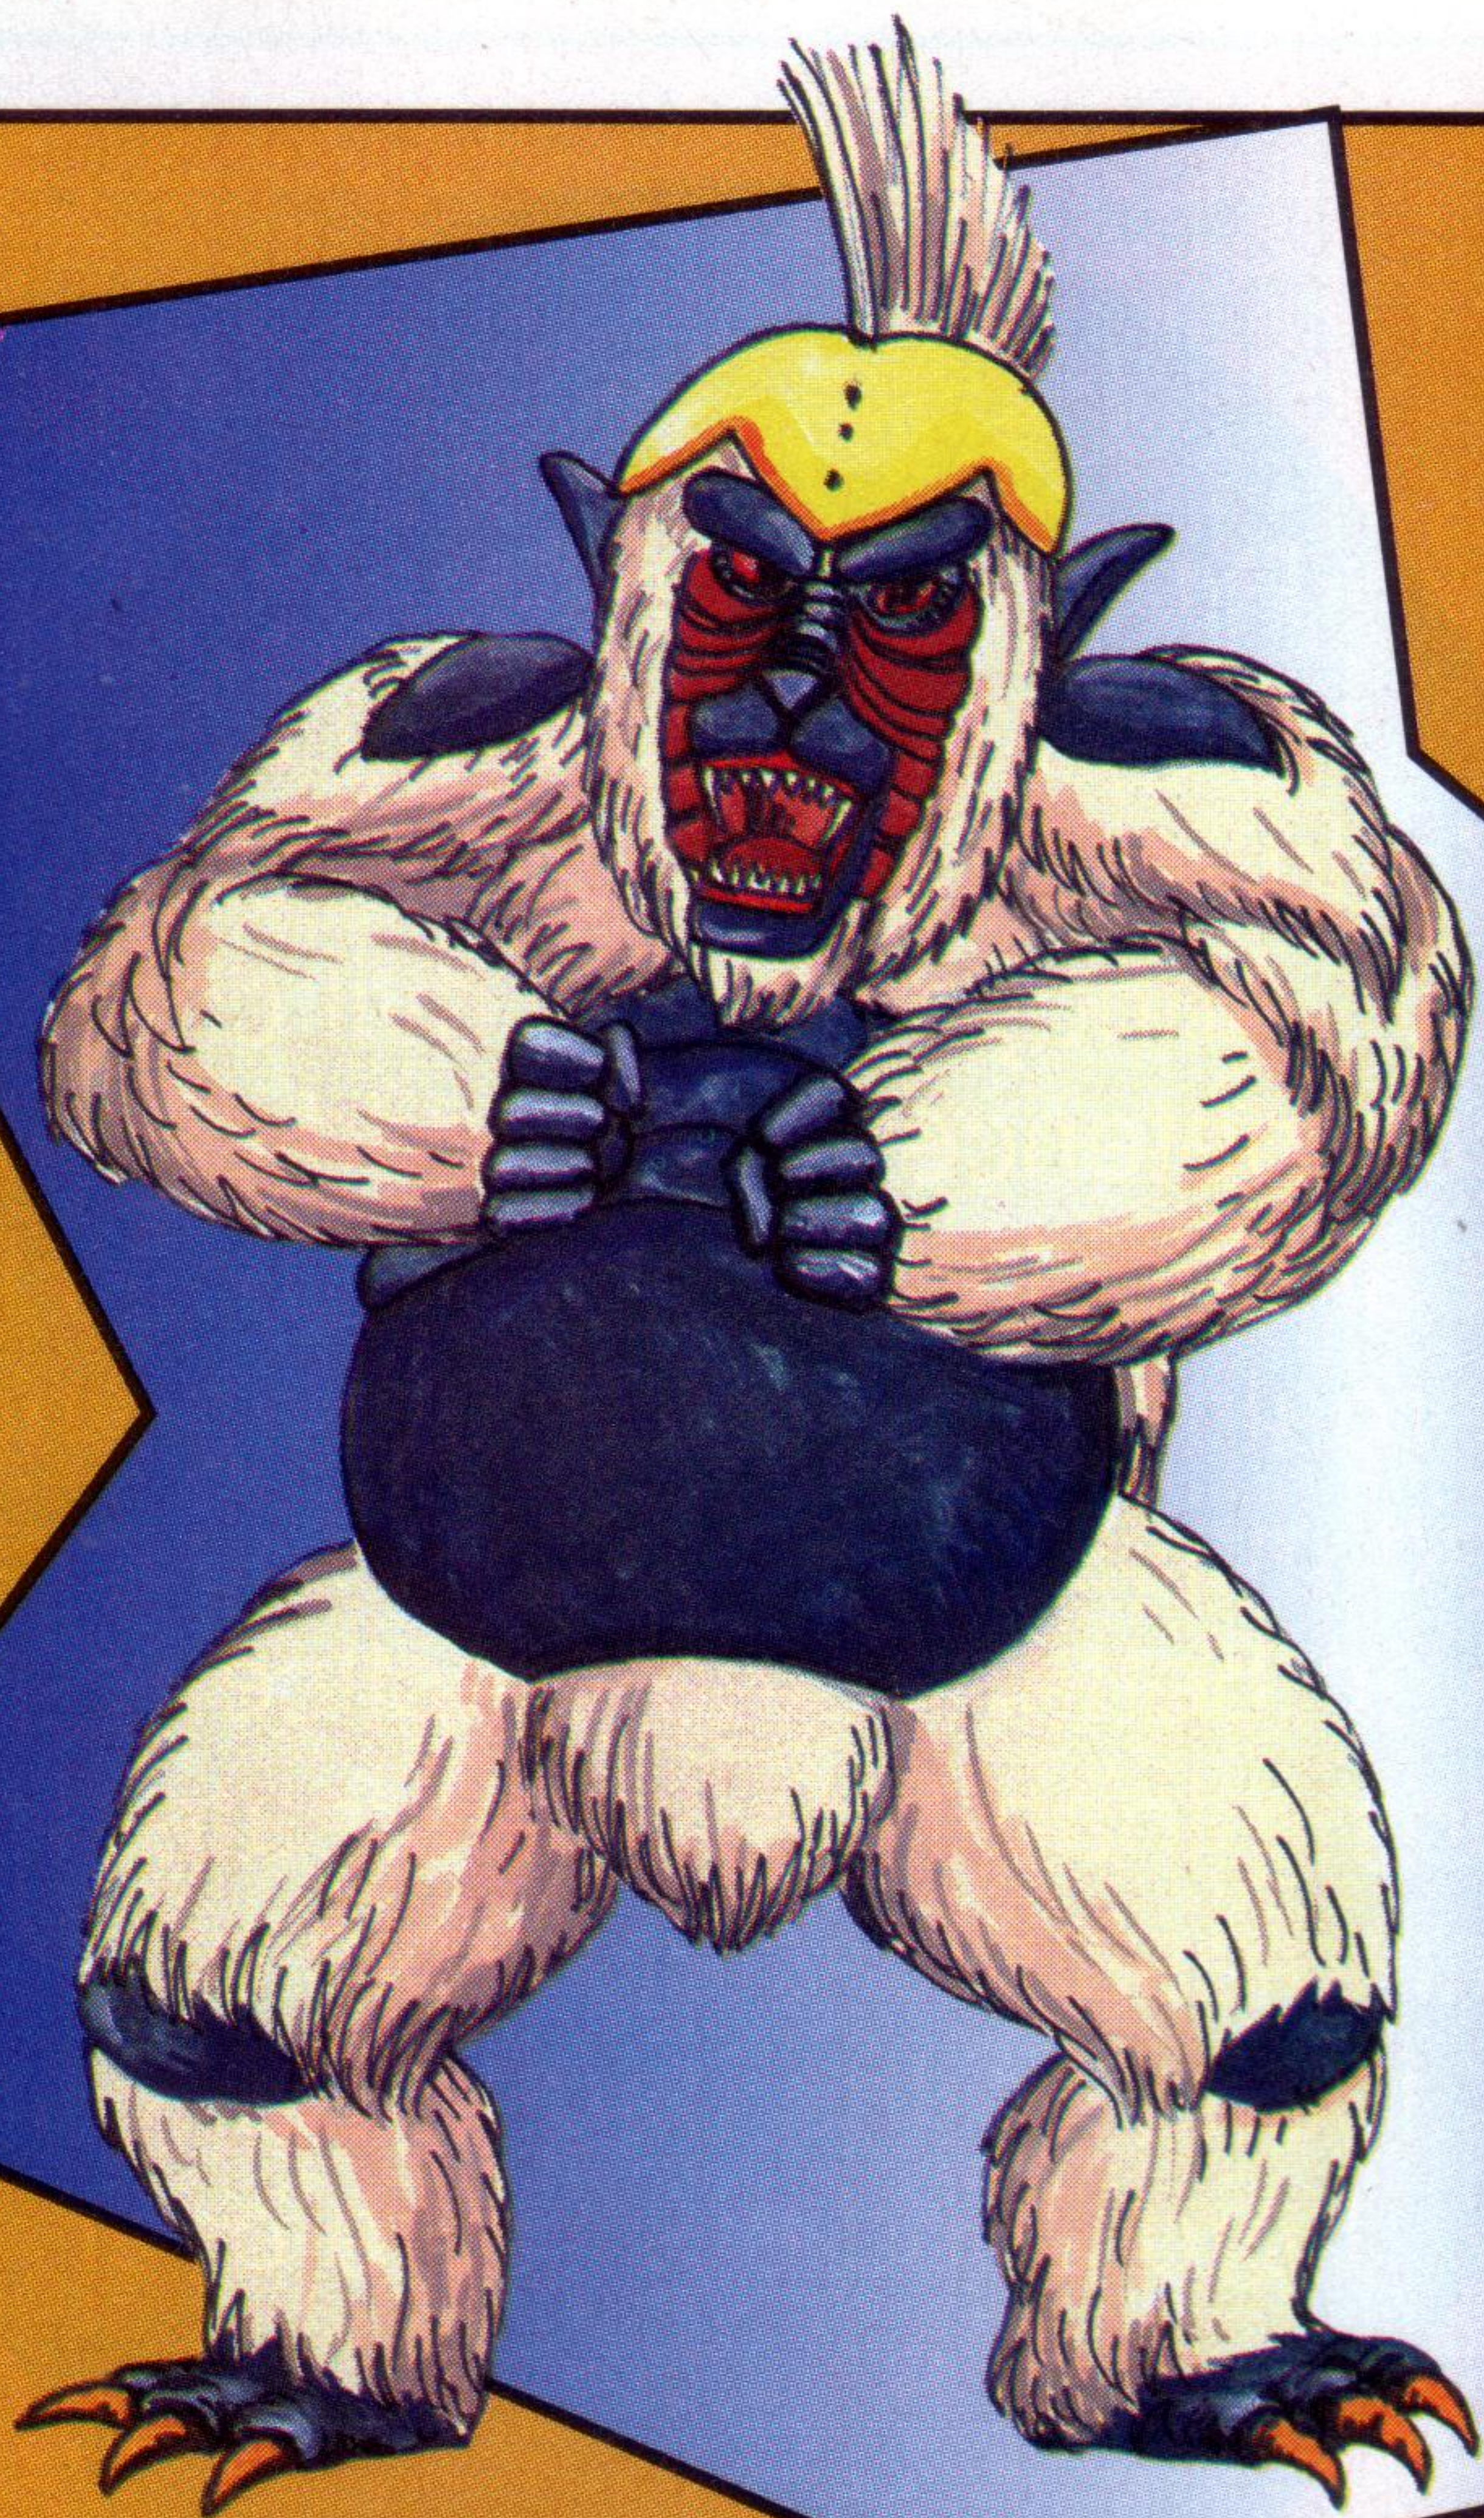

The Power Rangers Mega-Monster Mania!

Rita Repulsa knew she was in trouble when Lord Zedd returned to claim his territory. Annoyed at his evil charge's incompetence, Lord Zedd captured Rita and locked her once again in an intergalactic dumpster. This superbad mass of metal and muscle is even better at the practice of evil doing than Rita. He creates his mindless monsters from objects found on the earth. But will Lord Zedd ever take over the world?

Meet The New Evil Enemies!

Primator

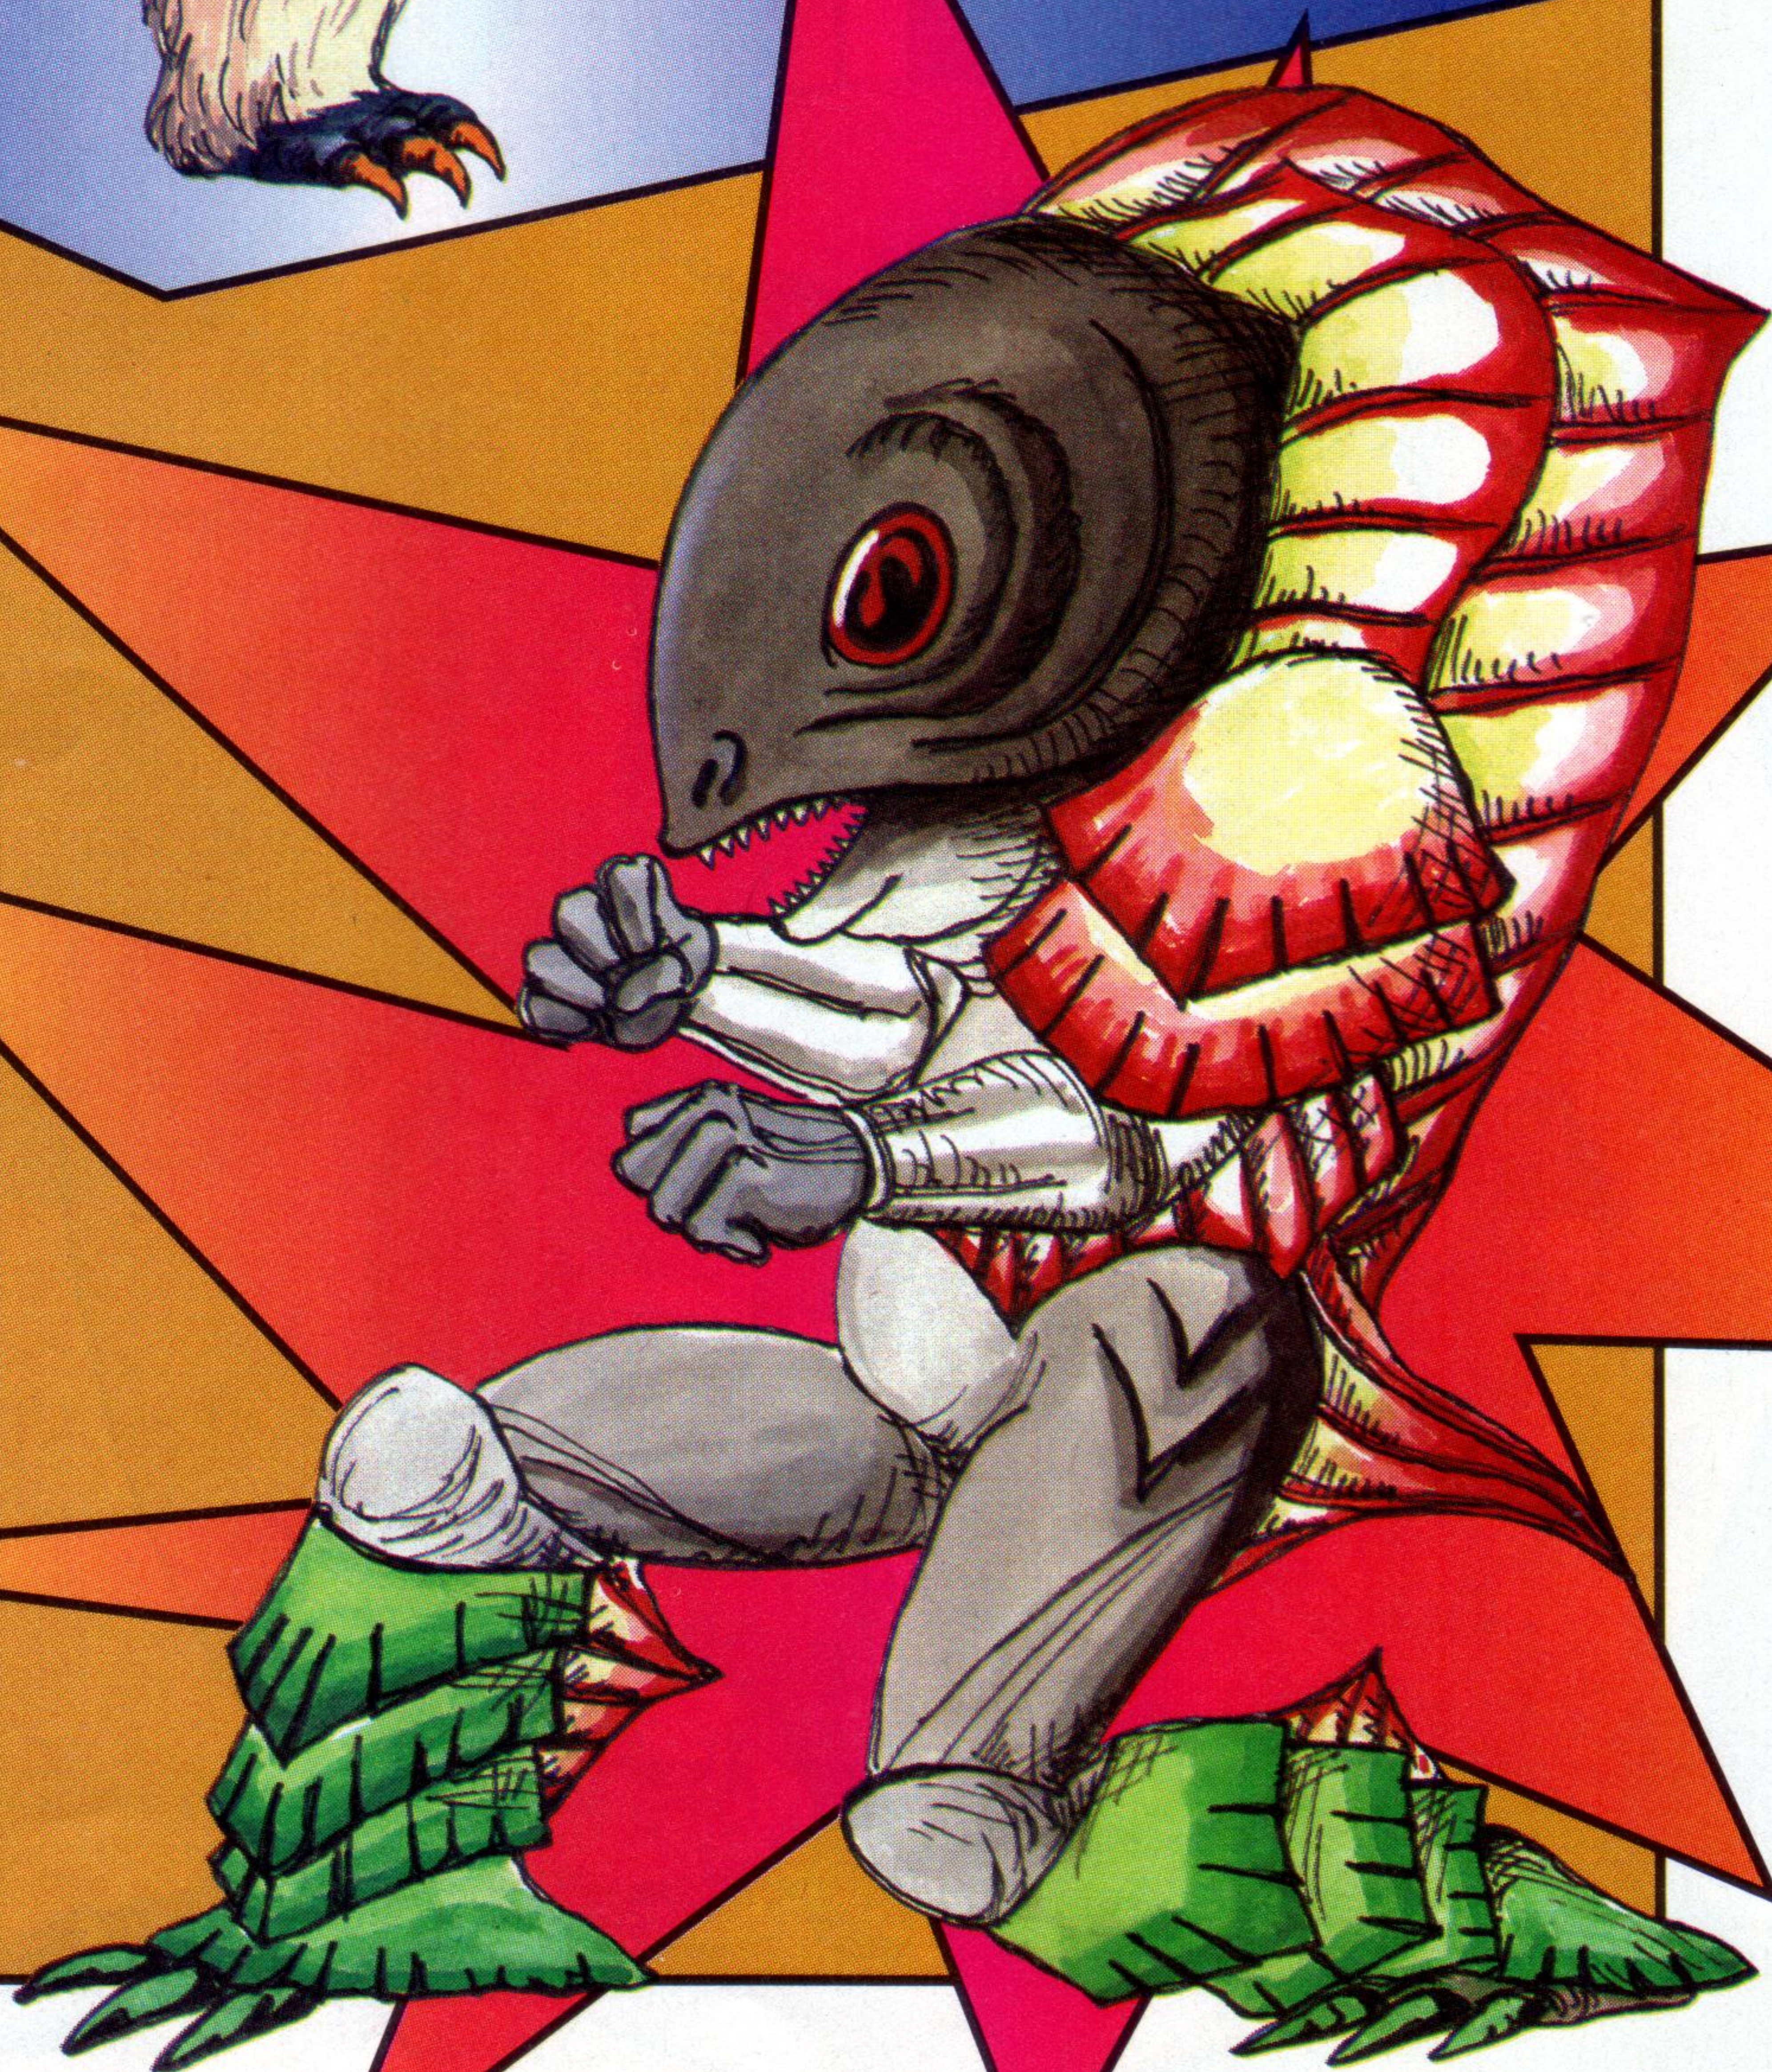

Lord Zedd created this annoying ape monster from Zack's gorilla costume. Zack will probably never wear that bag of fluff and fur again.

Primator has the keen ability to transform himself into any one of the Power Rangers which confuses them. Primator's one downfall is his pathetic vanity. But with Zordon's help, the Rangers learn how to defeat this vain ape at his own game by using mirrors to expose his true identity.

Pirhantishead

Lord Zedd makes Pirhantishead his first monster. He is a piranha that is summoned from the sea. This big ugly sea monster's main weapon is a fish horn which he uses to freeze the Zords.

Of all Lord Zedd's equally diabolical monsters, he is the most powerful. To successfully destroy this fins and teeth mutation, the Power Rangers must muster up their collective strengths and fight harder than ever before.

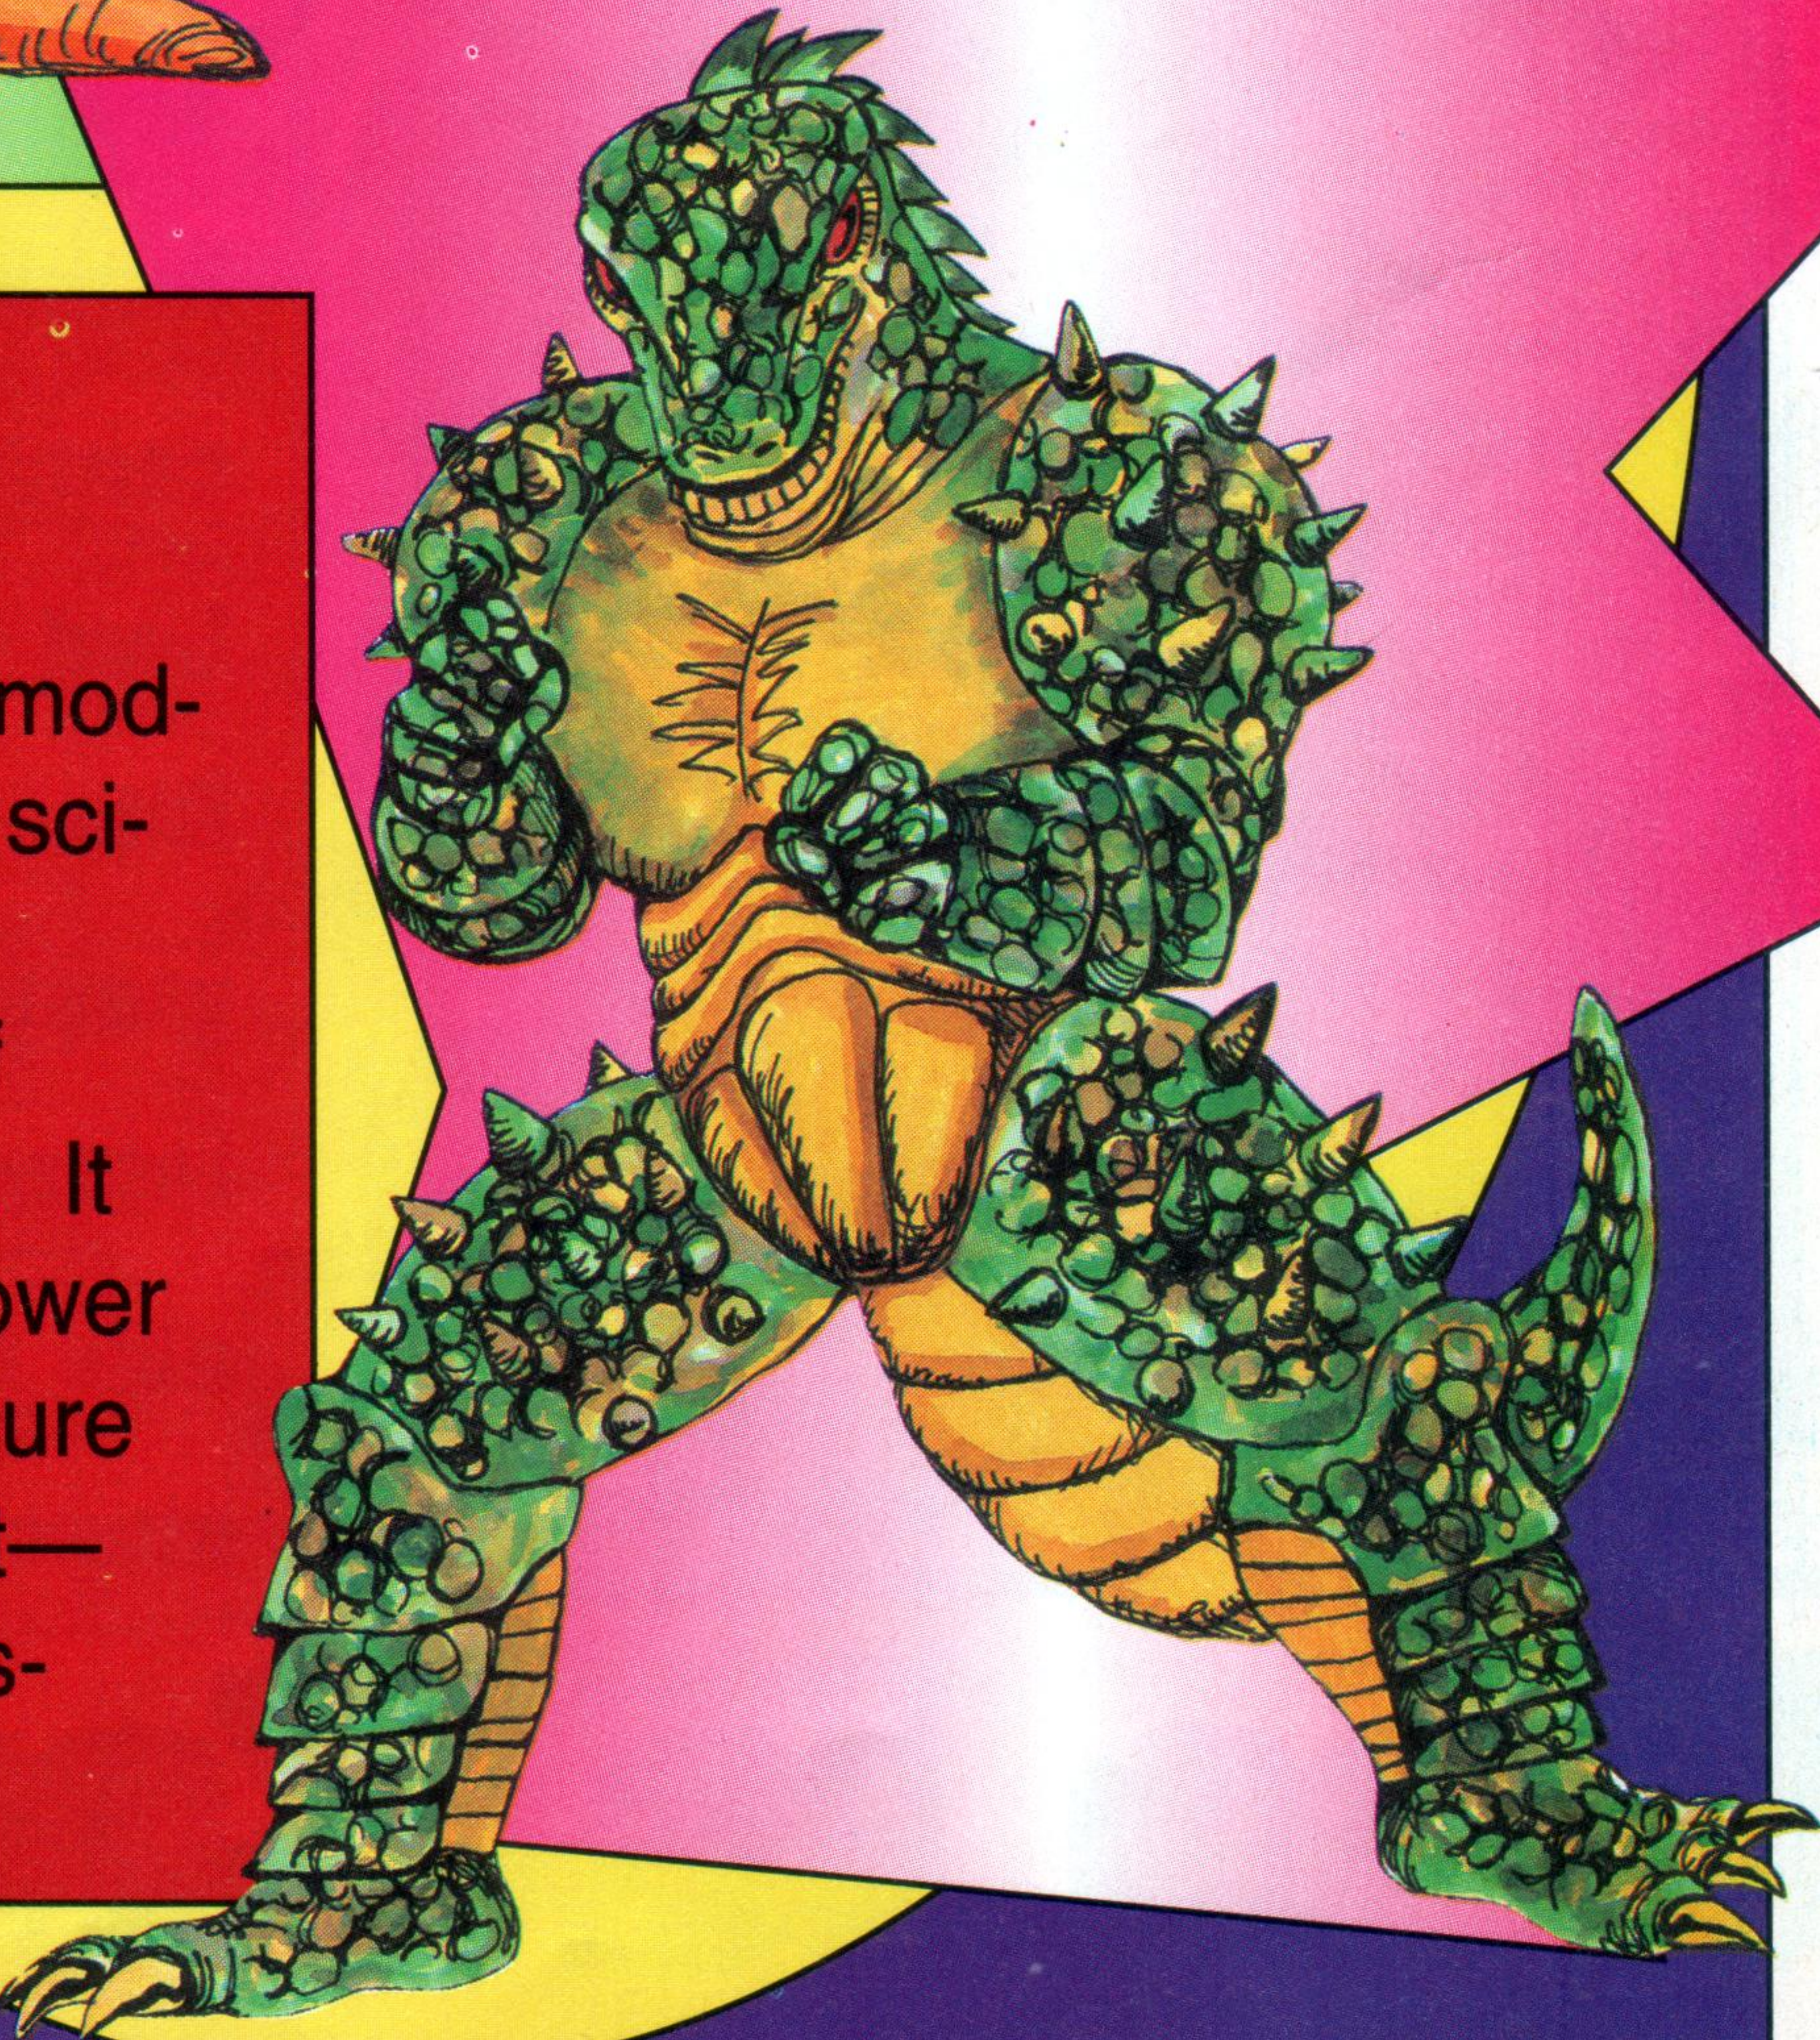

Octophantom

Who says Lord Zedd doesn't appreciate good art? This revolting beast is made out of graffiti drawings. It's one deplorable debility is ego-tism. The Power Rangers never fail to take advantage of Octophantom's weakness to defeat it.

RENDITIONS OF MONSTERS BY P.J.

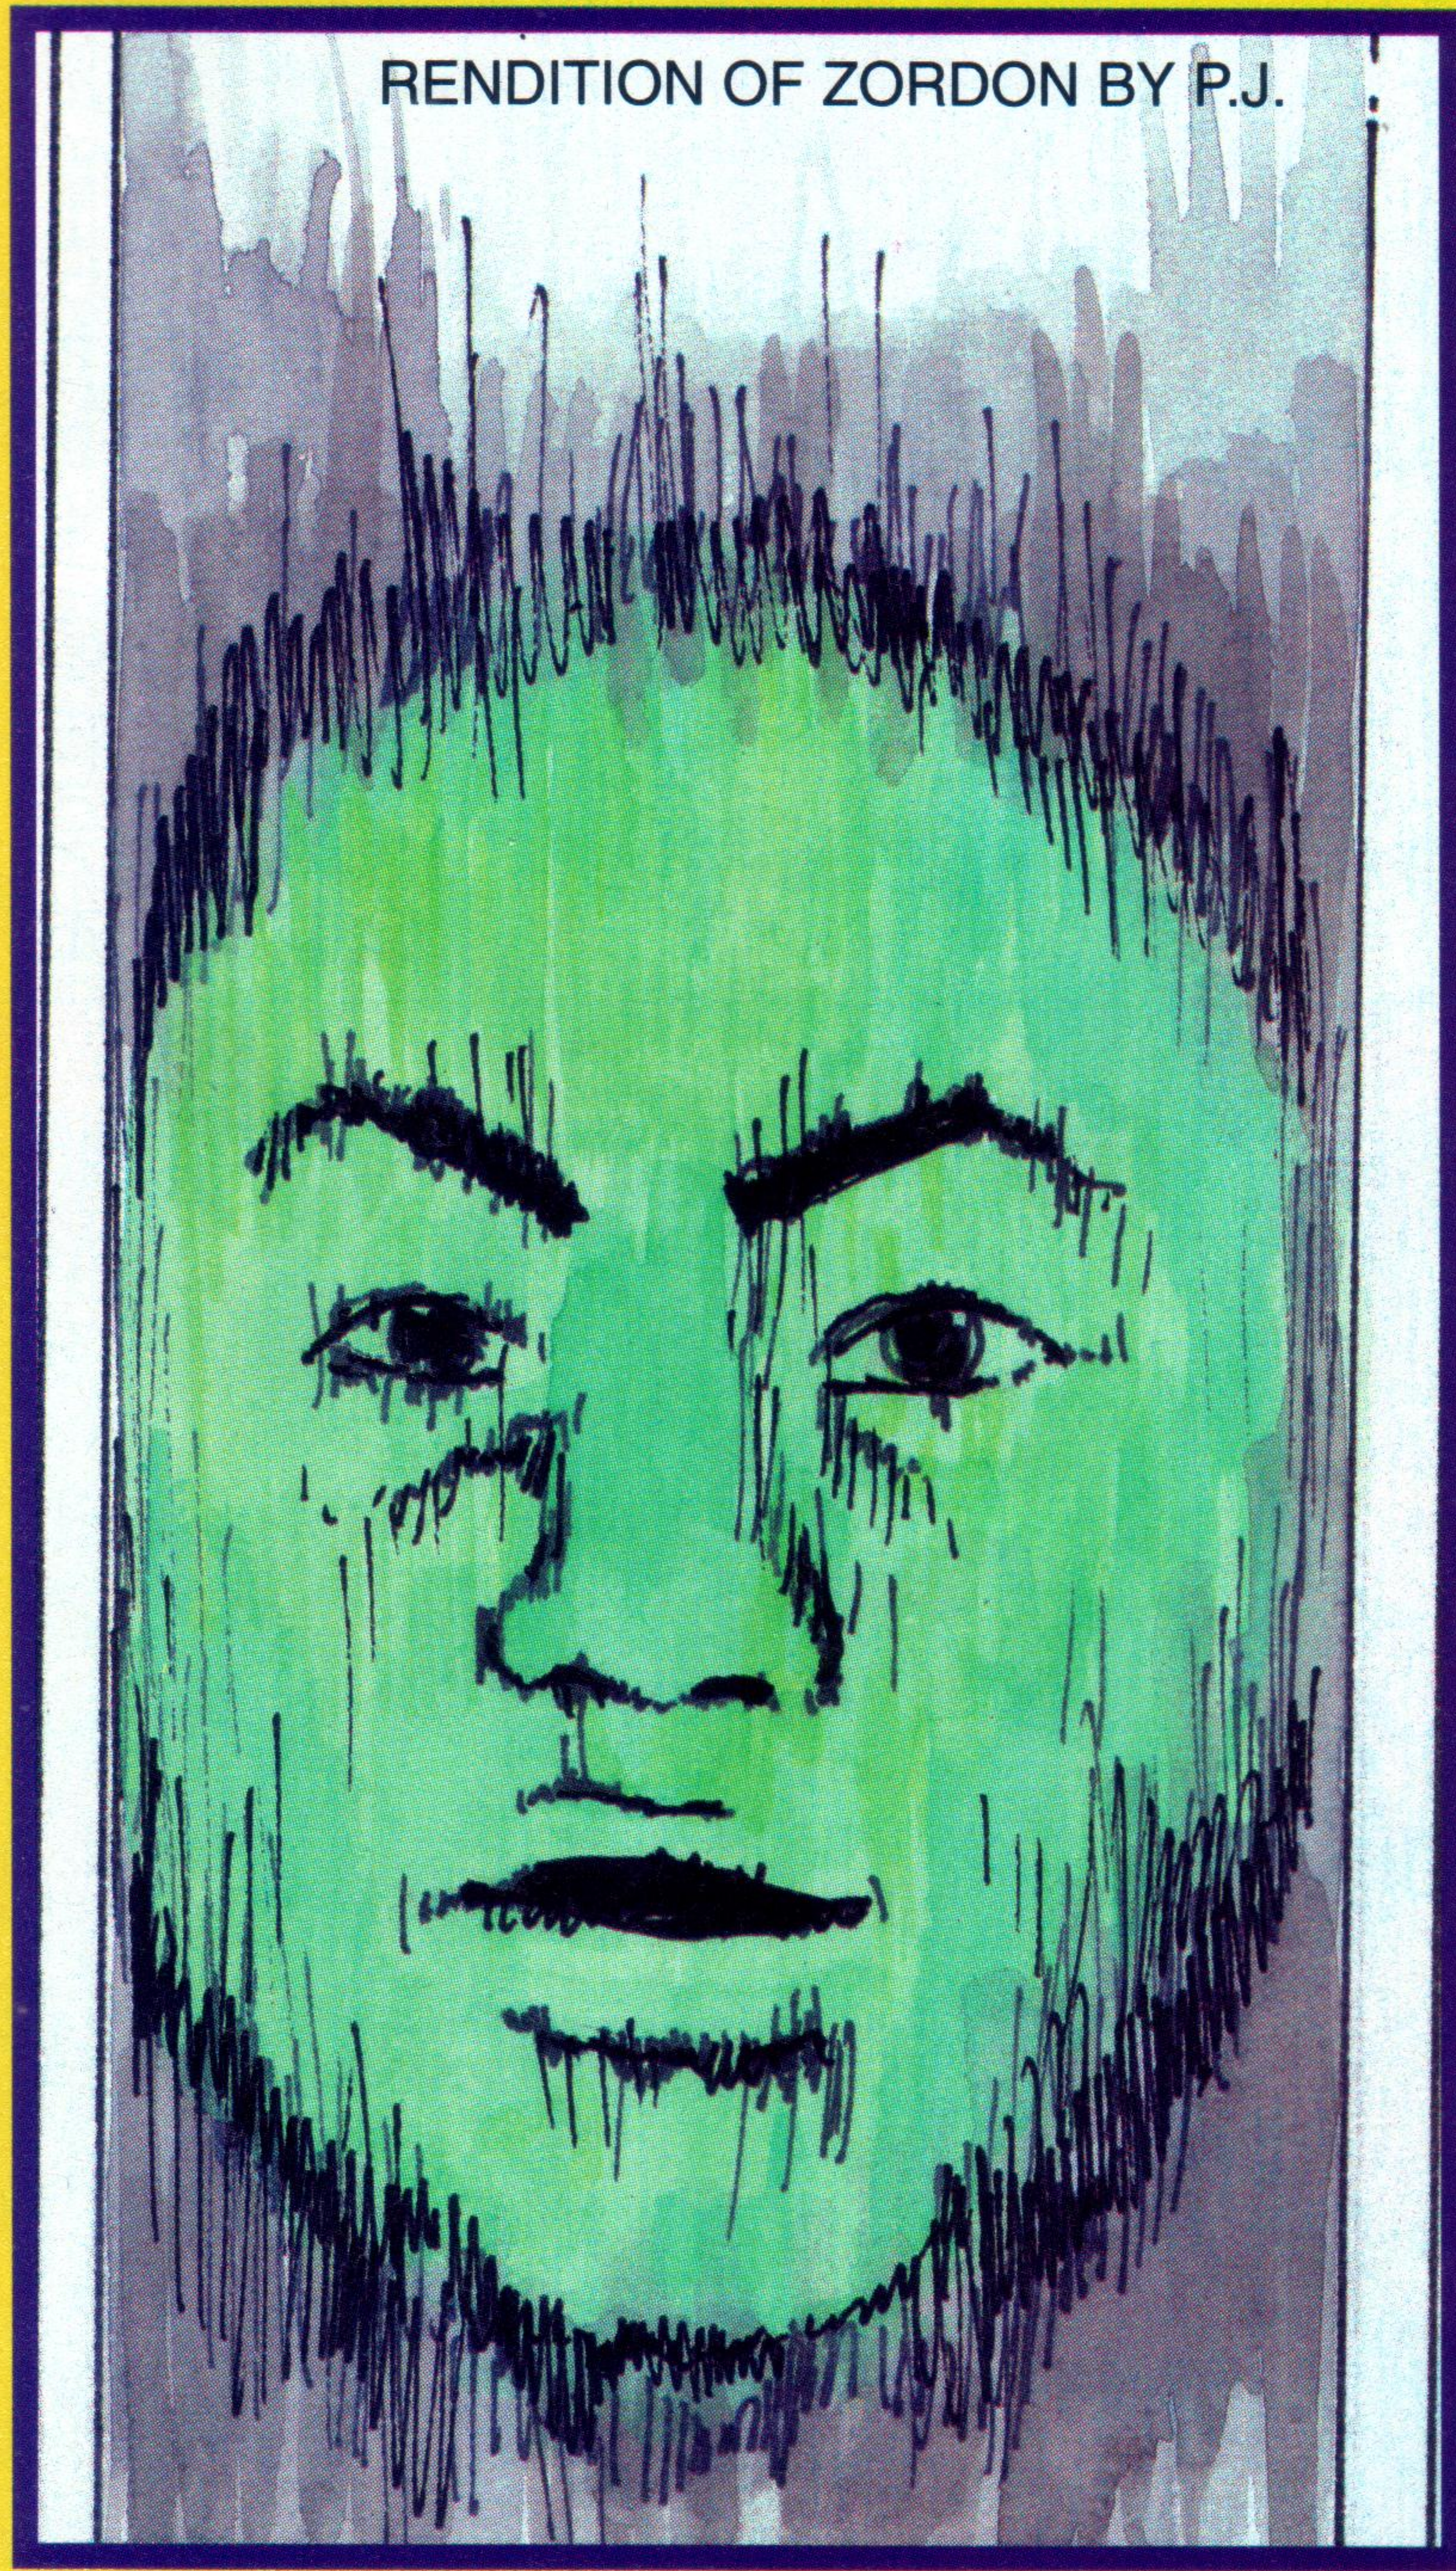

Saliguana

Saliguana is a fire-breathing monster modeled from a school science project. Lord Zedd didn't think of everything, though. It doesn't take the Power Rangers long to figure out how to defeat it—especially its devastating bad breath!

At The Command Center

RENDITION OF ZORDON BY P.J.

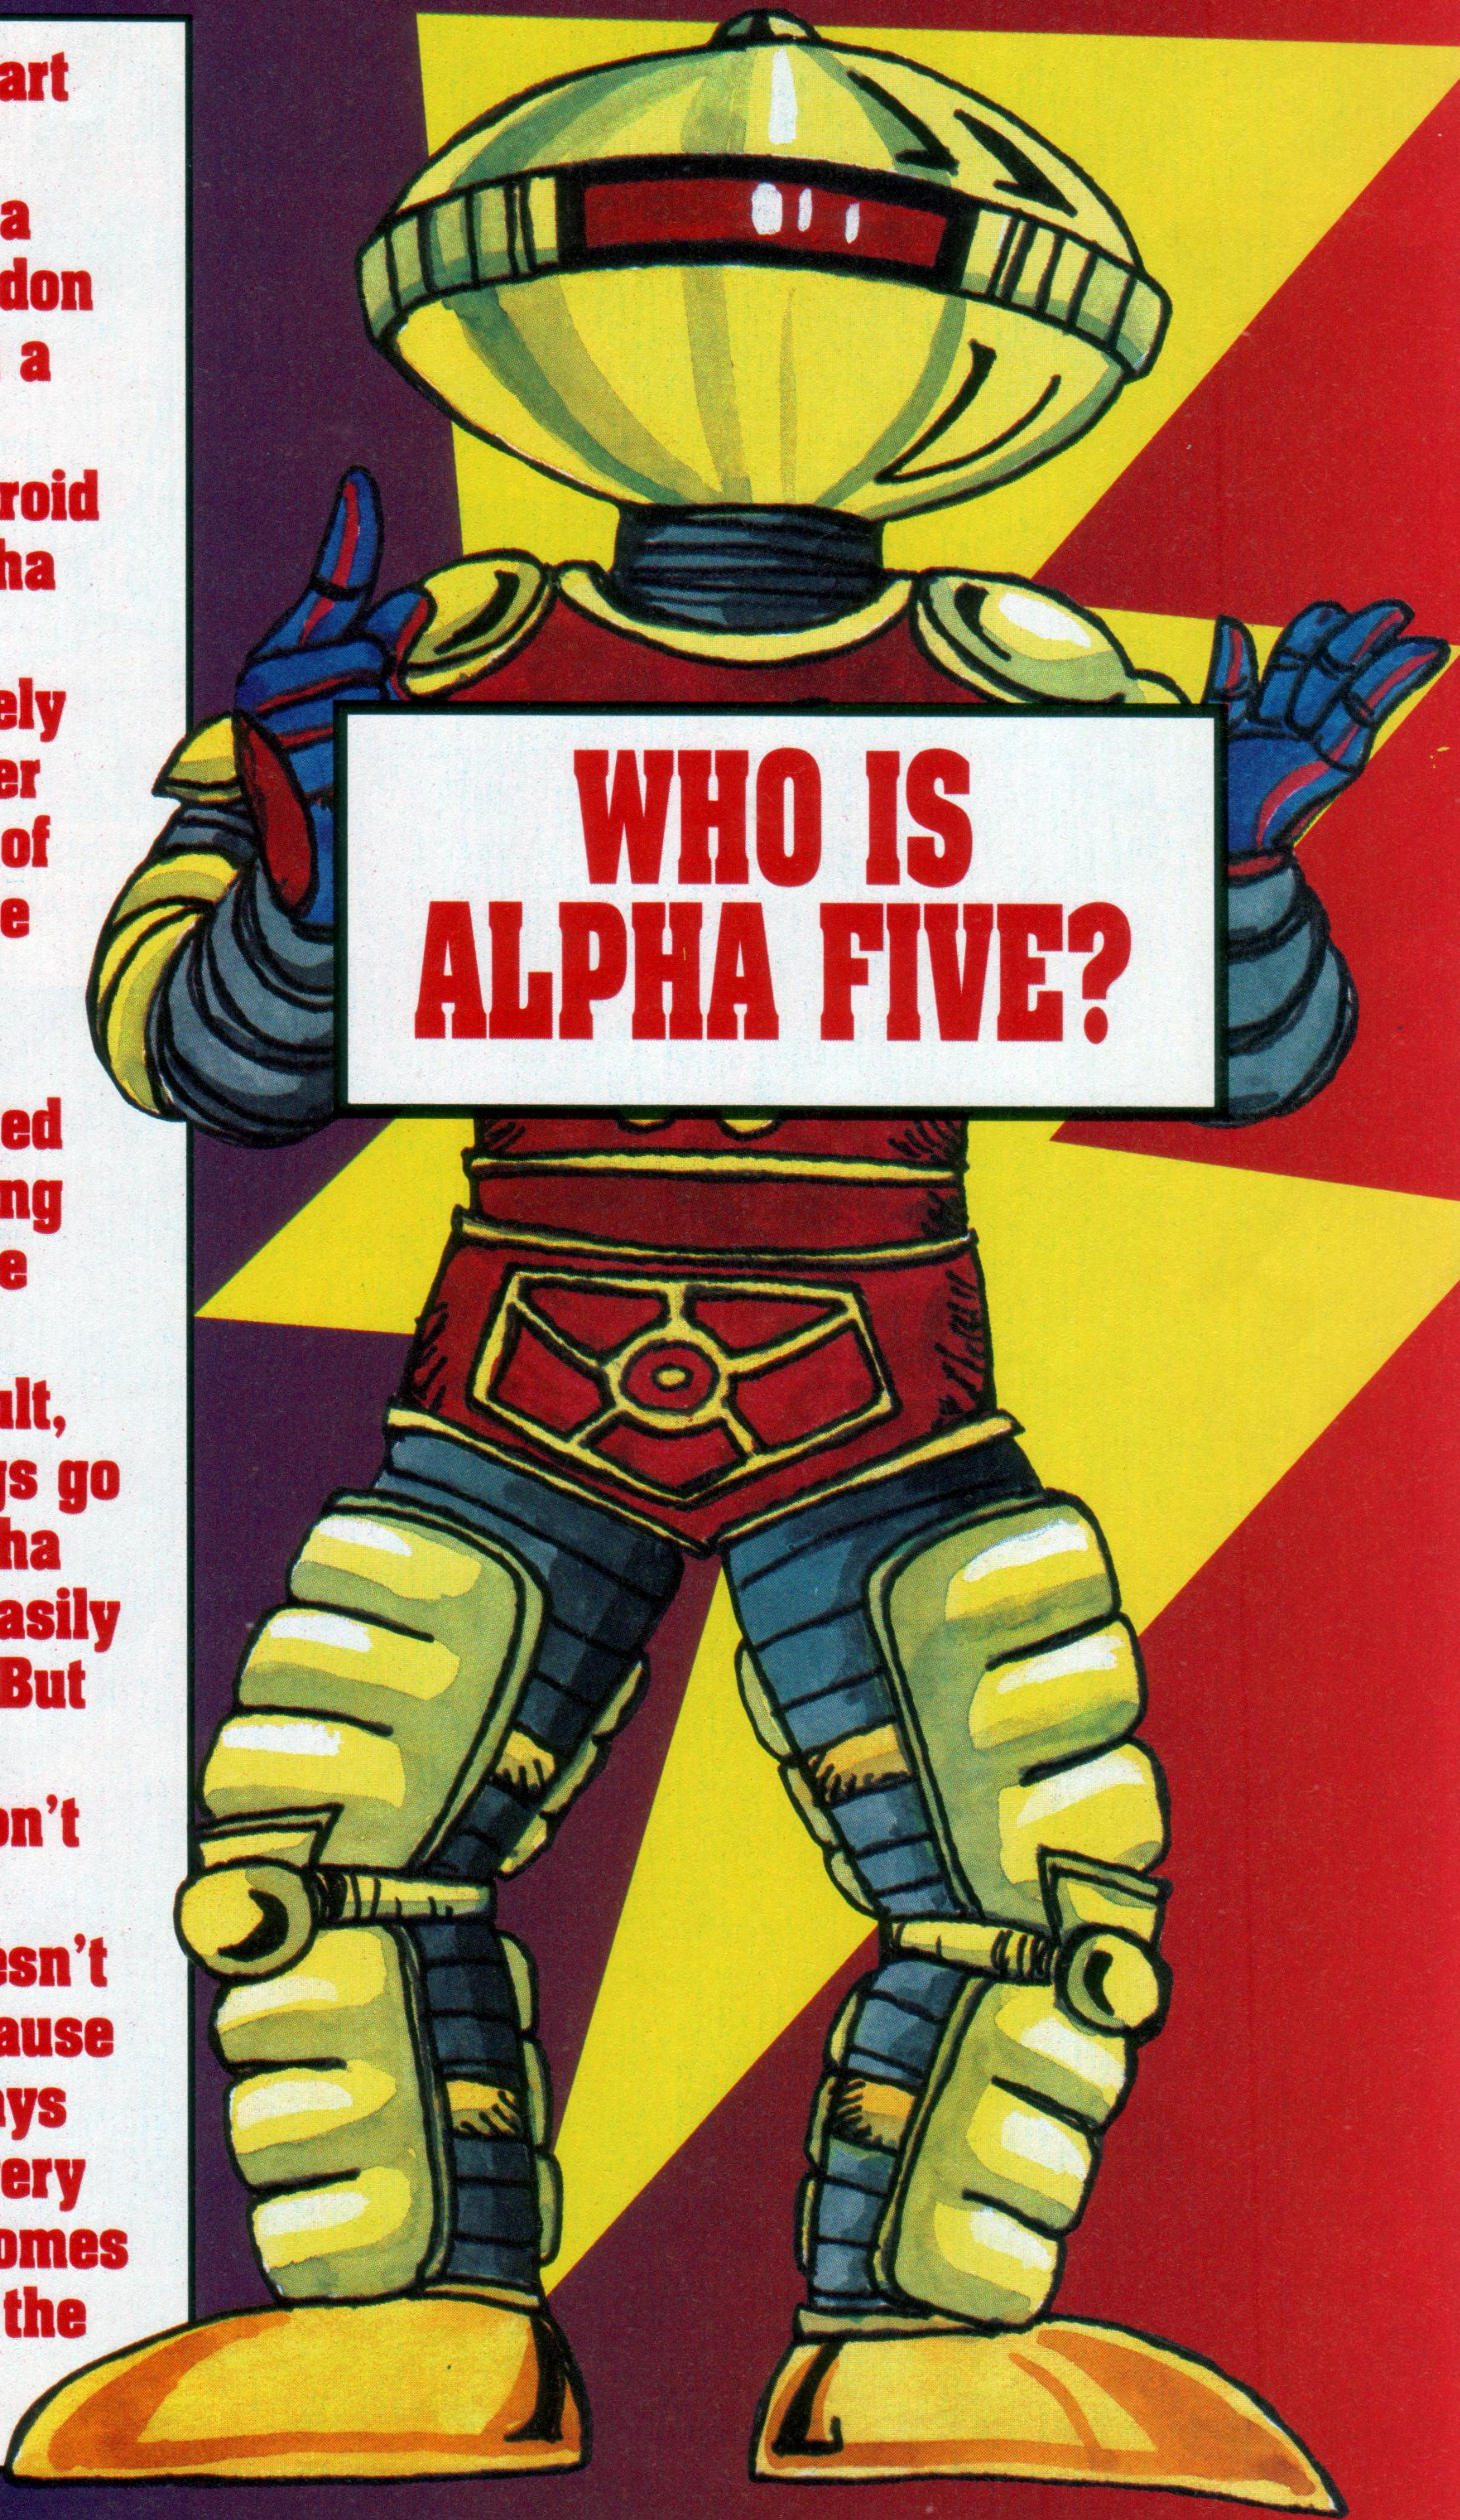

In a solar system many eons ago, an interdimensional being named Zordon once defeated the evil Rita Repulsa. But when she returned, she vowed to destroy earth. Both possess incredible power, but after centuries of fighting, it was Lord Zedd that disposed of Rita. Zordon now faces his greatest challenge—the return of Zedd. Will he be able to defeat this metal and muscle monster?

Who Is Zordon?

In the heart of the California desert, Zordon has hidden a small and cutesy android named Alpha Five.

Unfortunately though, over thousands of years, some of little Alpha's sophisticated programming has become scrambled.

As a result, when things go wrong, Alpha becomes easily flustered. But the Power Rangers don't mind and Zordon doesn't either, because Alpha always gives his very best and comes through in the end.

STARLINE PICKS THE TWO HOTTEST NEW ANIMATED SERIES FOR '95!

Scott Weinger of Full House will again lend his voice to the title character in Disney's Aladdin. Linda Larkin will speak for the Princess Jasmine.

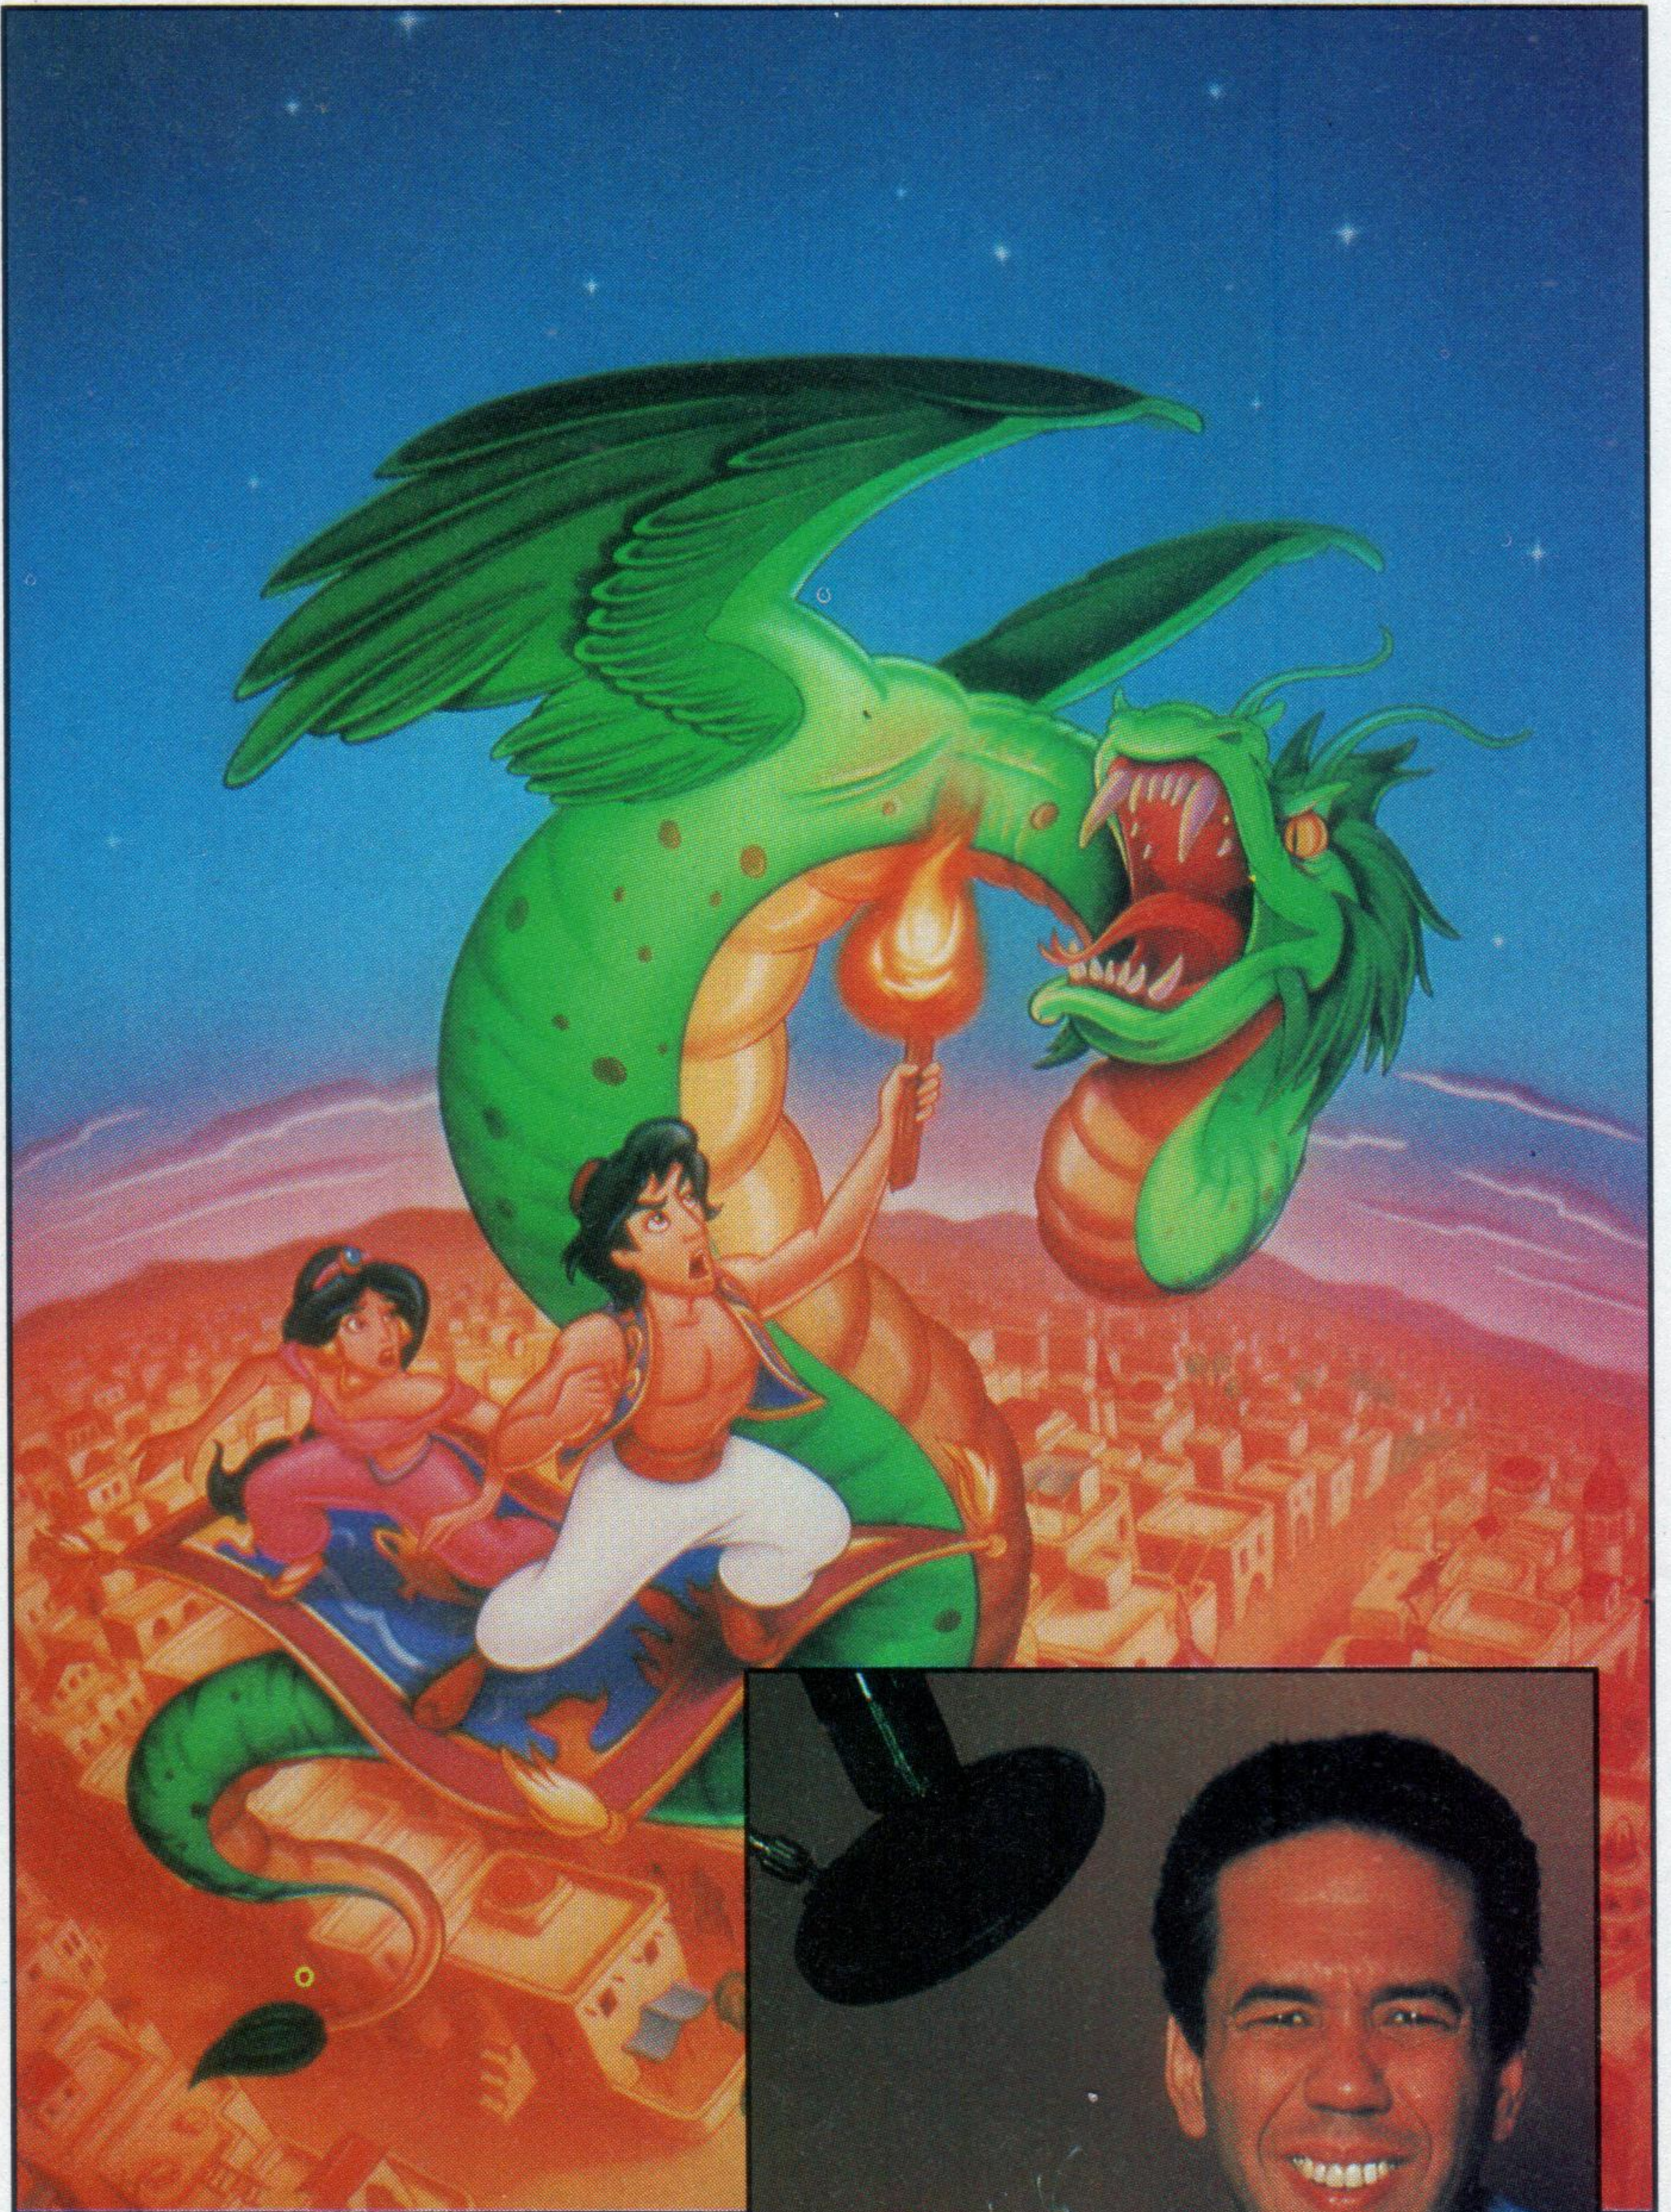

Are you ready for a Monday-through-Friday magic carpet ride? That's what you're in store for with Disney's Aladdin!

Inspired by the 1992 critically acclaimed Disney box office hit, Disney's Aladdin is the newest addition to The Disney Afternoon. Sixty-five half-hour episodes have been prepared, as well as an additional thirteen first-run episodes airing Saturday mornings on the CBS network.

This beautifully drawn animated series will capture all the adventure and magic of the theatrical release, bringing the beloved characters back for a whole slew of hilarious new adventures and escapades.

ALADDIN JOINS THE DISNEY AFTERNOON

For this television series, the music and romance of the feature film will shift slightly in favor of adventure and action.

Yep, Gilbert Gottfried is back as the voice of the obnoxious parrot Iago, who has turned from his once-wicked ways to become an ally of Aladdin.

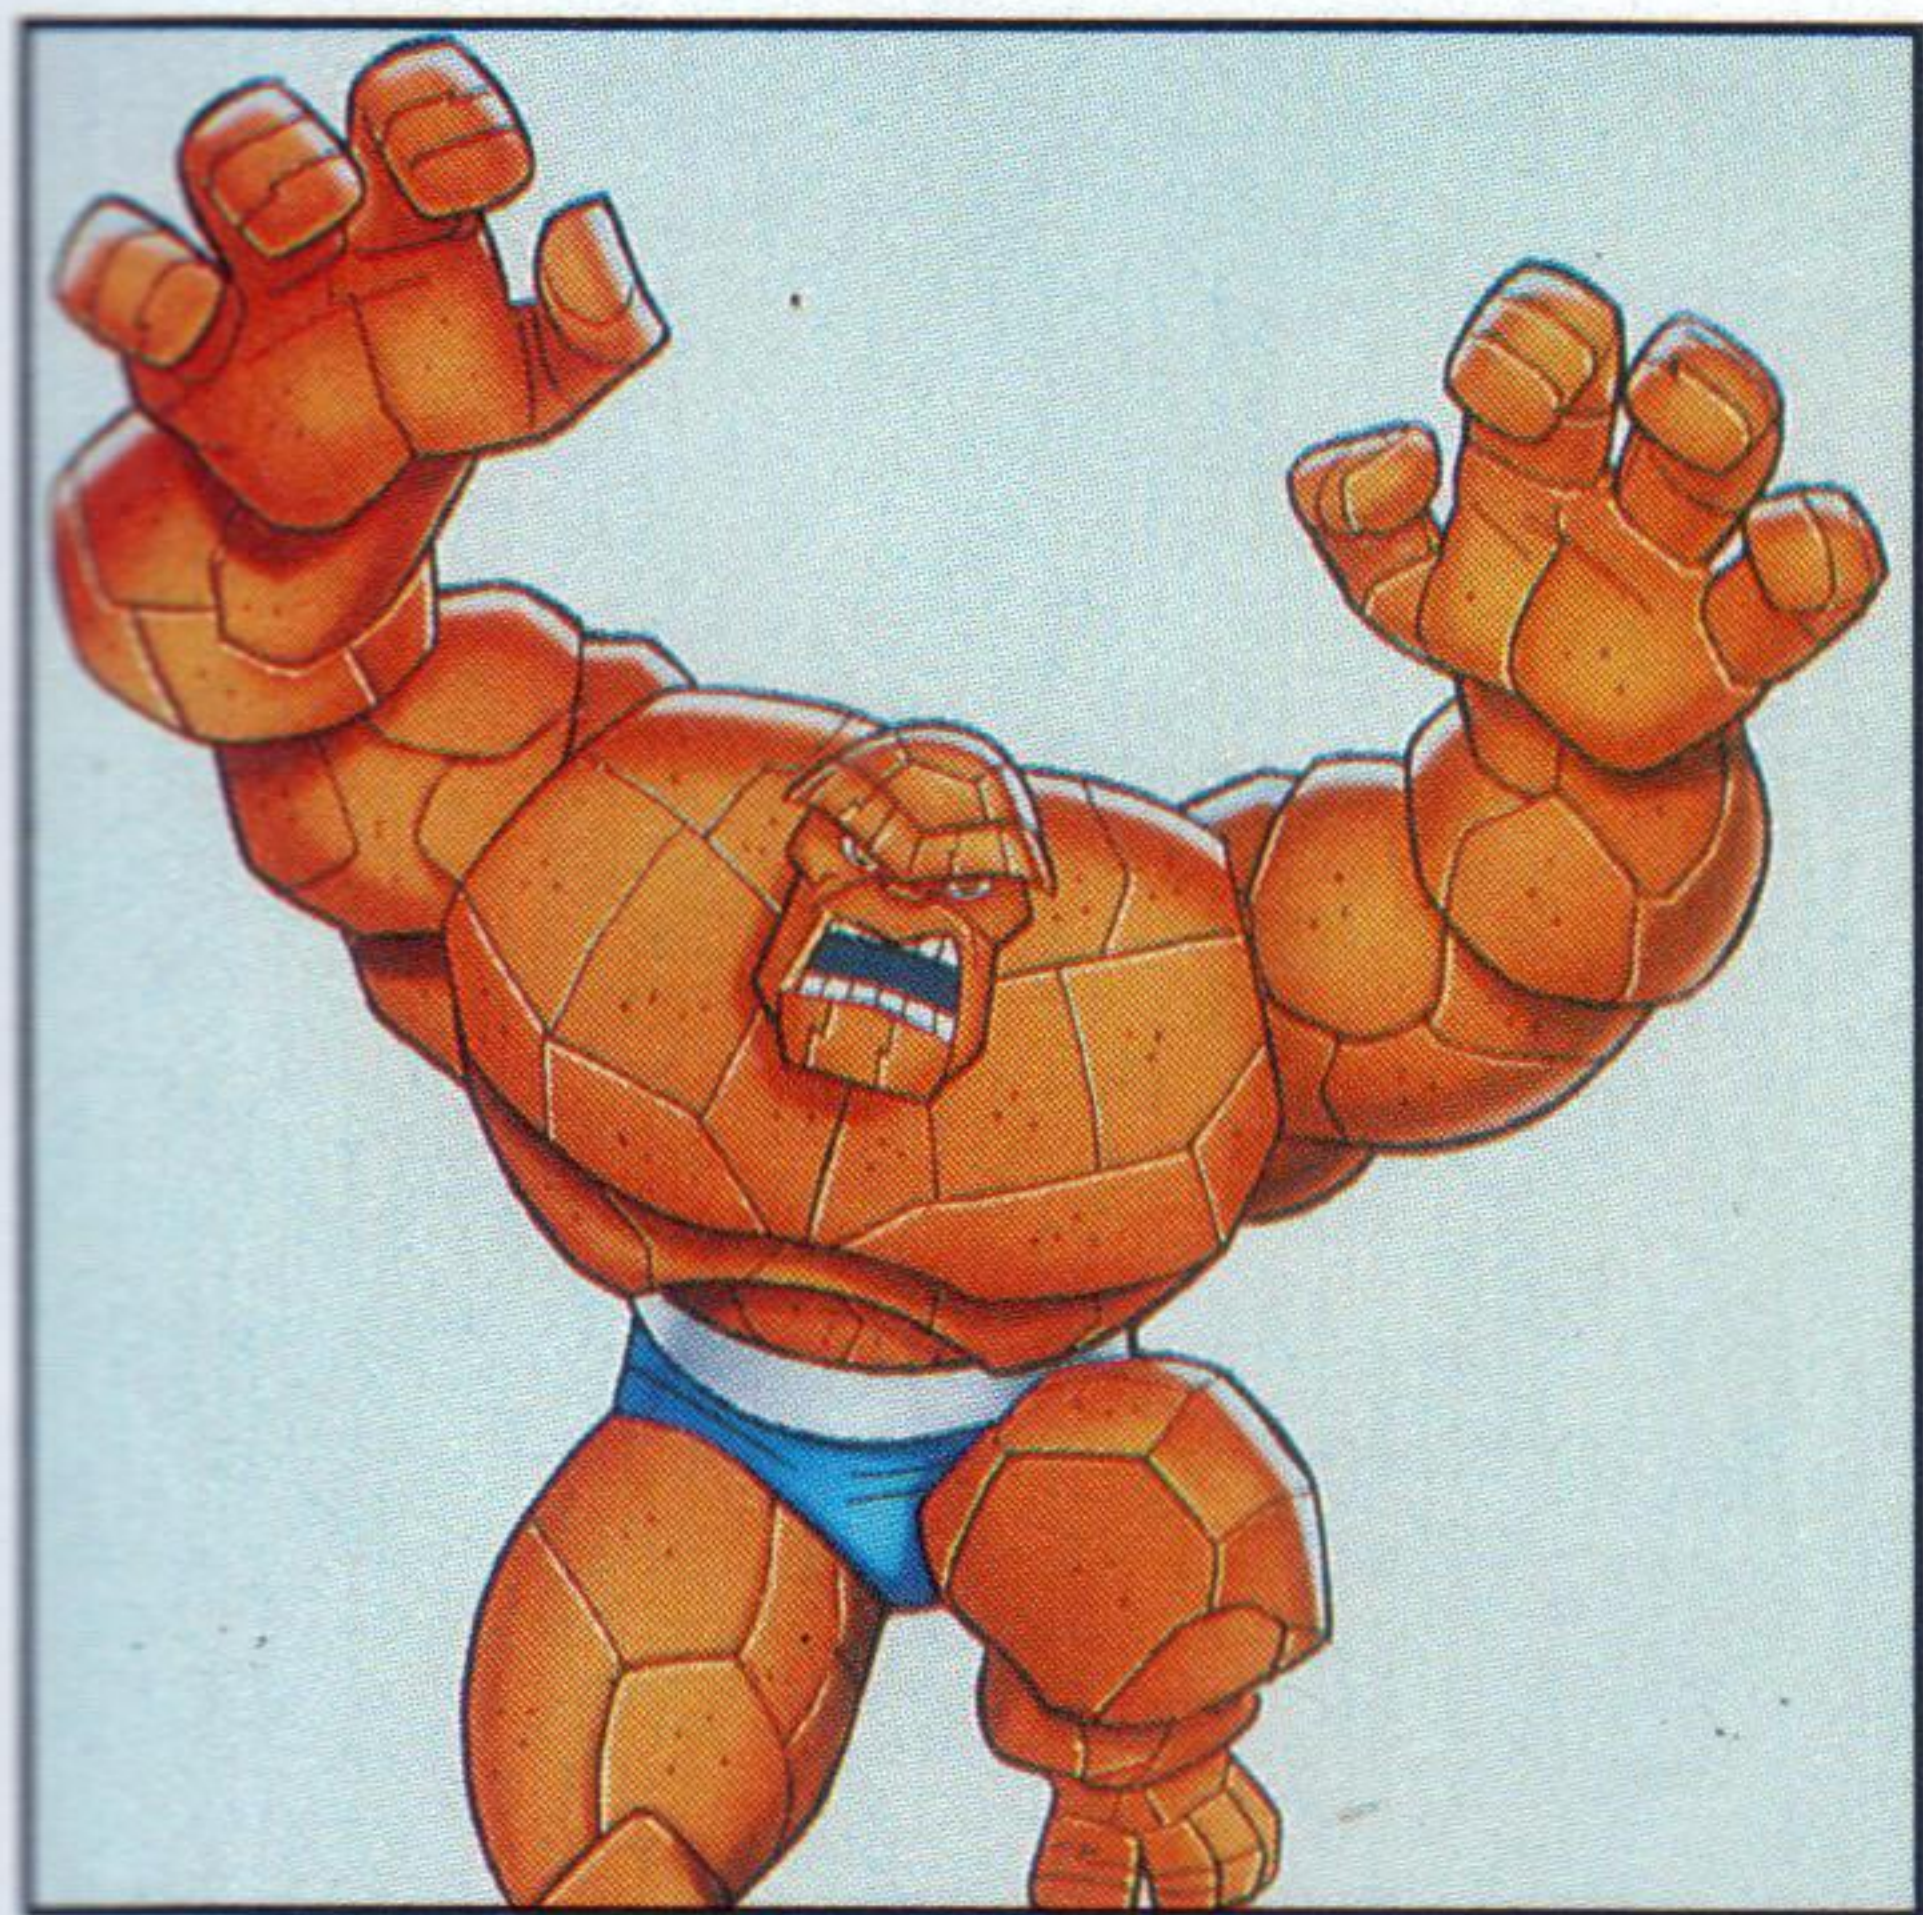

Get set for two great shows, back to back, as Marvel Films debuts The Marvel Action Hour—featuring two half-hour shows starring Marvel's legendary comic superheroes, Fantastic Four and Iron Man!

MARVEL ACTION HOUR

Advanced science and high adventure, both on Earth and throughout the galaxies, combine to make Fantastic Four and Iron Man the ultimate in ultimate in action-packed TV viewing in the Marvel Action Hour.

Photos Courtesy Marvel Films/Genesis Entertainment

The Thing, like his fellow Fantastic Four heroes, acquired bizarre powers during a starship test flight gone awry. His voice is supplied by Chuck McCann of Duck Tales and G.I. Joe.

Mr. Fantastic, whose real name is Dr. Reed Richards, doesn't believe his transformation from comic book hero to TV star is going to be much of a stretch.

Johnny Storm transmogrifies into the Human Torch, the fieriest of the Fantastic Four. His voice on the TV series will be supplied by Beverly Hills, 90210 star Brian Austin Green.

Iron Man will be the other half of the Marvel Action Hour. It is being produced in Korea at Ted Tehoe's Rainbow Animation Studios, known for their work on the Emmy-nominated Shelly Duvall's Bedtime Stories and Where In The World Is Carmen Sandiego?

Fantastic Four is produced at James Wang's Cuckoo's Nest Studios in Taiwan, the largest animation facility in the world. The fighting foursome's "Fantastacar" will be a computer-enhanced 3-D model, similar to FX techniques used for dinosaurs in Jurassic Park.

Invisible Woman, the former Sue Storm Richards, will also be getting a Special FX assist from Cuckoo's Nest Studios. They will employ the same FX techniques used to create the water creature in The Abyss to create a truly "Invisible" Woman!

The armoring-up sequences in Iron Man will merge 3-D models with cel animation and image processing, which puts the effects through the computer to produce truly spectacular results!

MATTHEW LAWRENCE INVITES YOU TO “GET SAMURAIZED!”

Matt was, for a long time, more famous for being Joey Lawrence's little brother than for his work as an actor; but the hit flick Mrs. Doubtfire changed that!

Here's what Matt's alter-ego, Servo, looks like on Superhuman Samurai Syber-Squad. Nice pecs, Matt, but we miss the bangs.

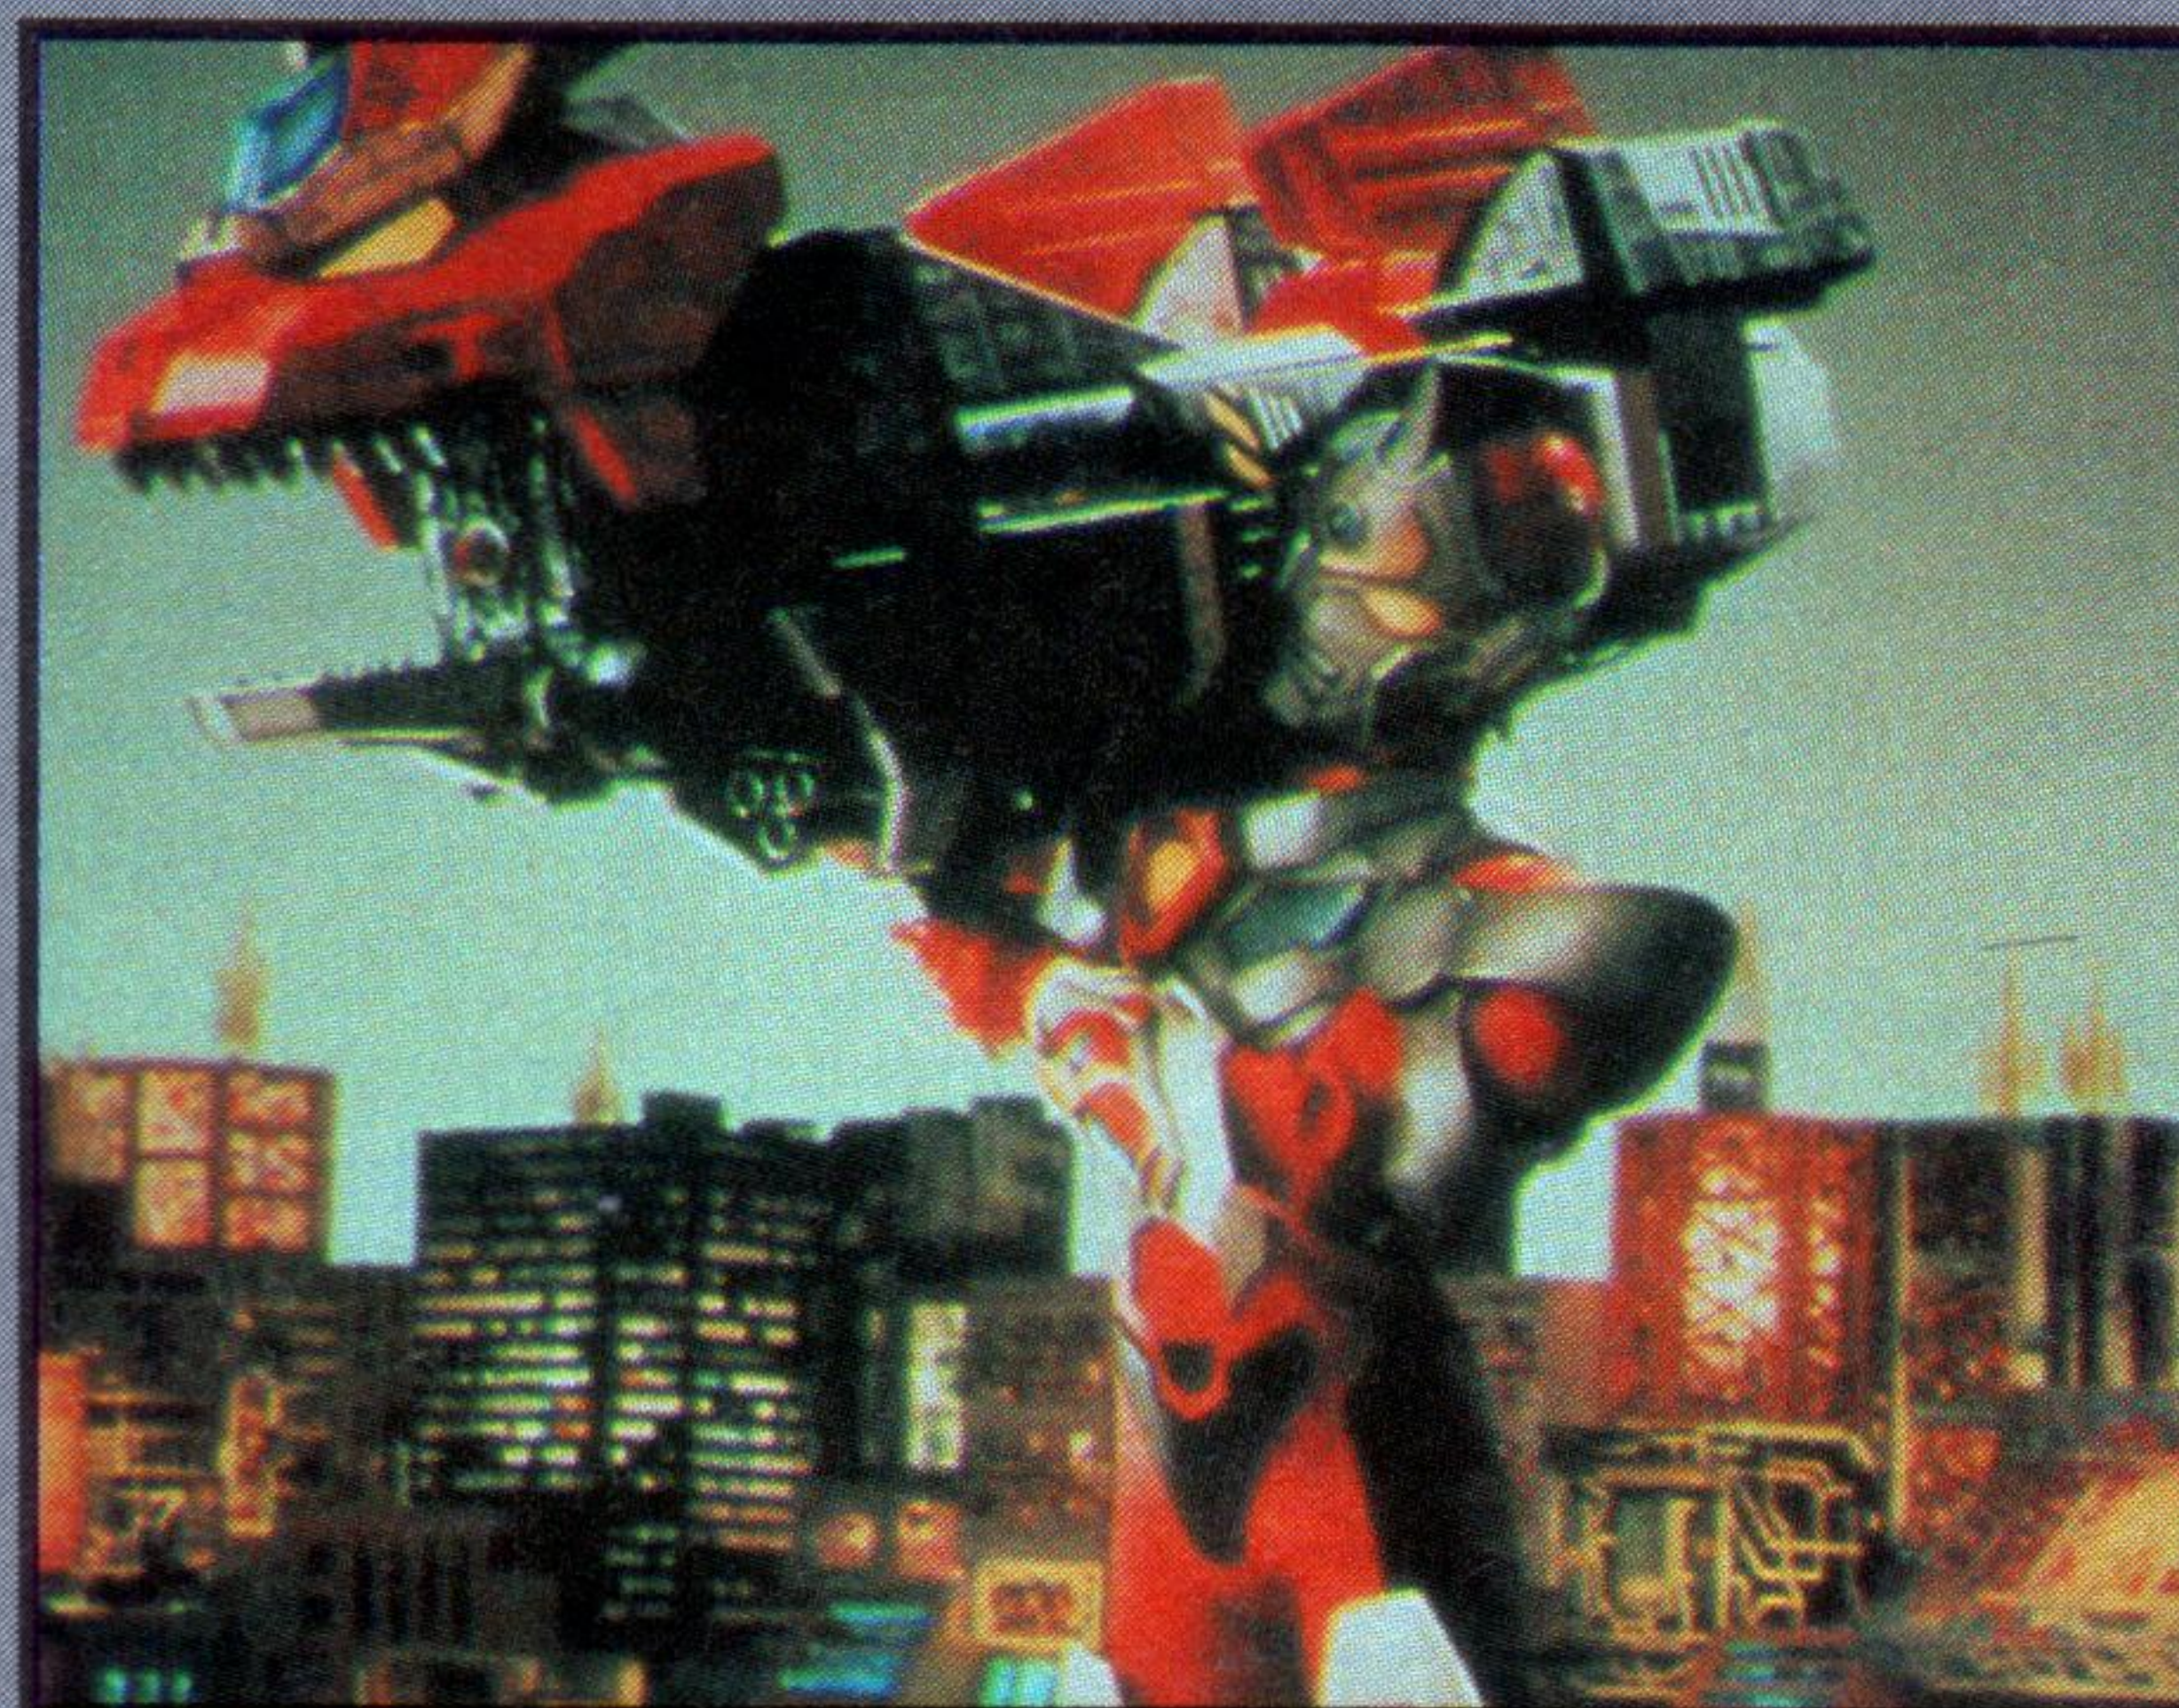

Poor Servo has more bad guys to deal with than Spiderman!

And, look! All these megamenaces have weapons roughly the size of the Chrysler Building—and just as sharp!

Doesn't seem to bother, Matt—er, Servo—that much, does it? He just sends them Special Delivery into the Dead Letter Office of Super-Computer E-Mail.

Whoops, looks like two against one in this Samurai showdown!

Superhuman Samurai Syber-Squad is Matthew Lawrence's action-packed new syndicated TV series—where this brown-eyed hunk gets to save the world once a week!

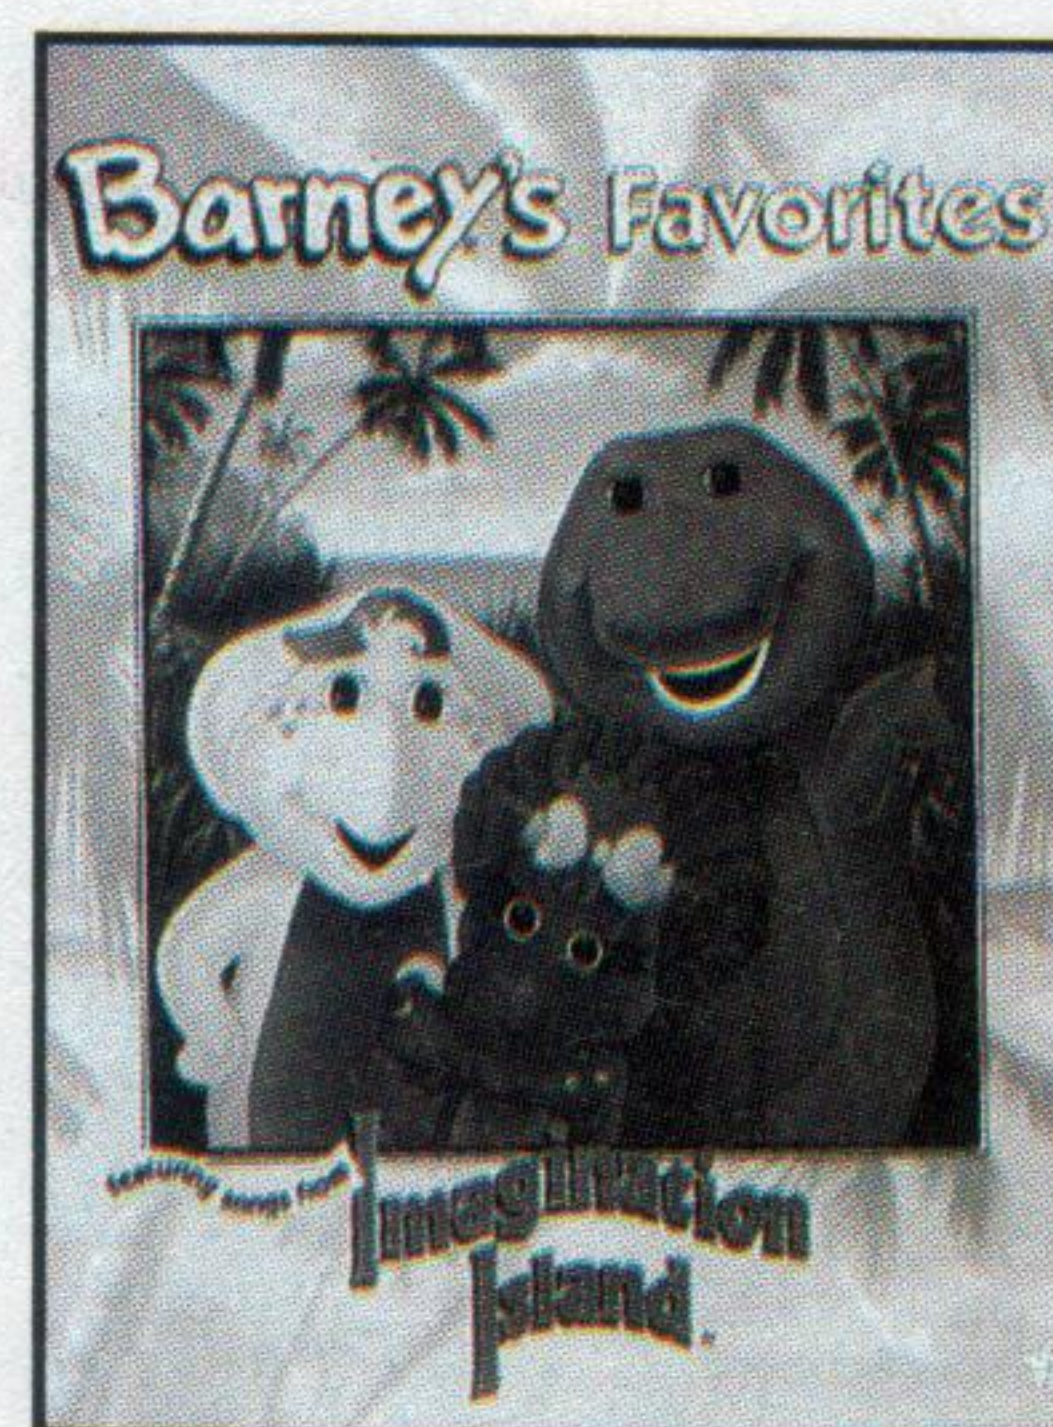

No fear! With a charming personality like Matt's, and a Syber-Sword approximately the size of Schnectady, no Computer Virus-Villain is a match for this Power Hero!

EXO SQUAD

READY TO TAKE ON EVIL FORCES!

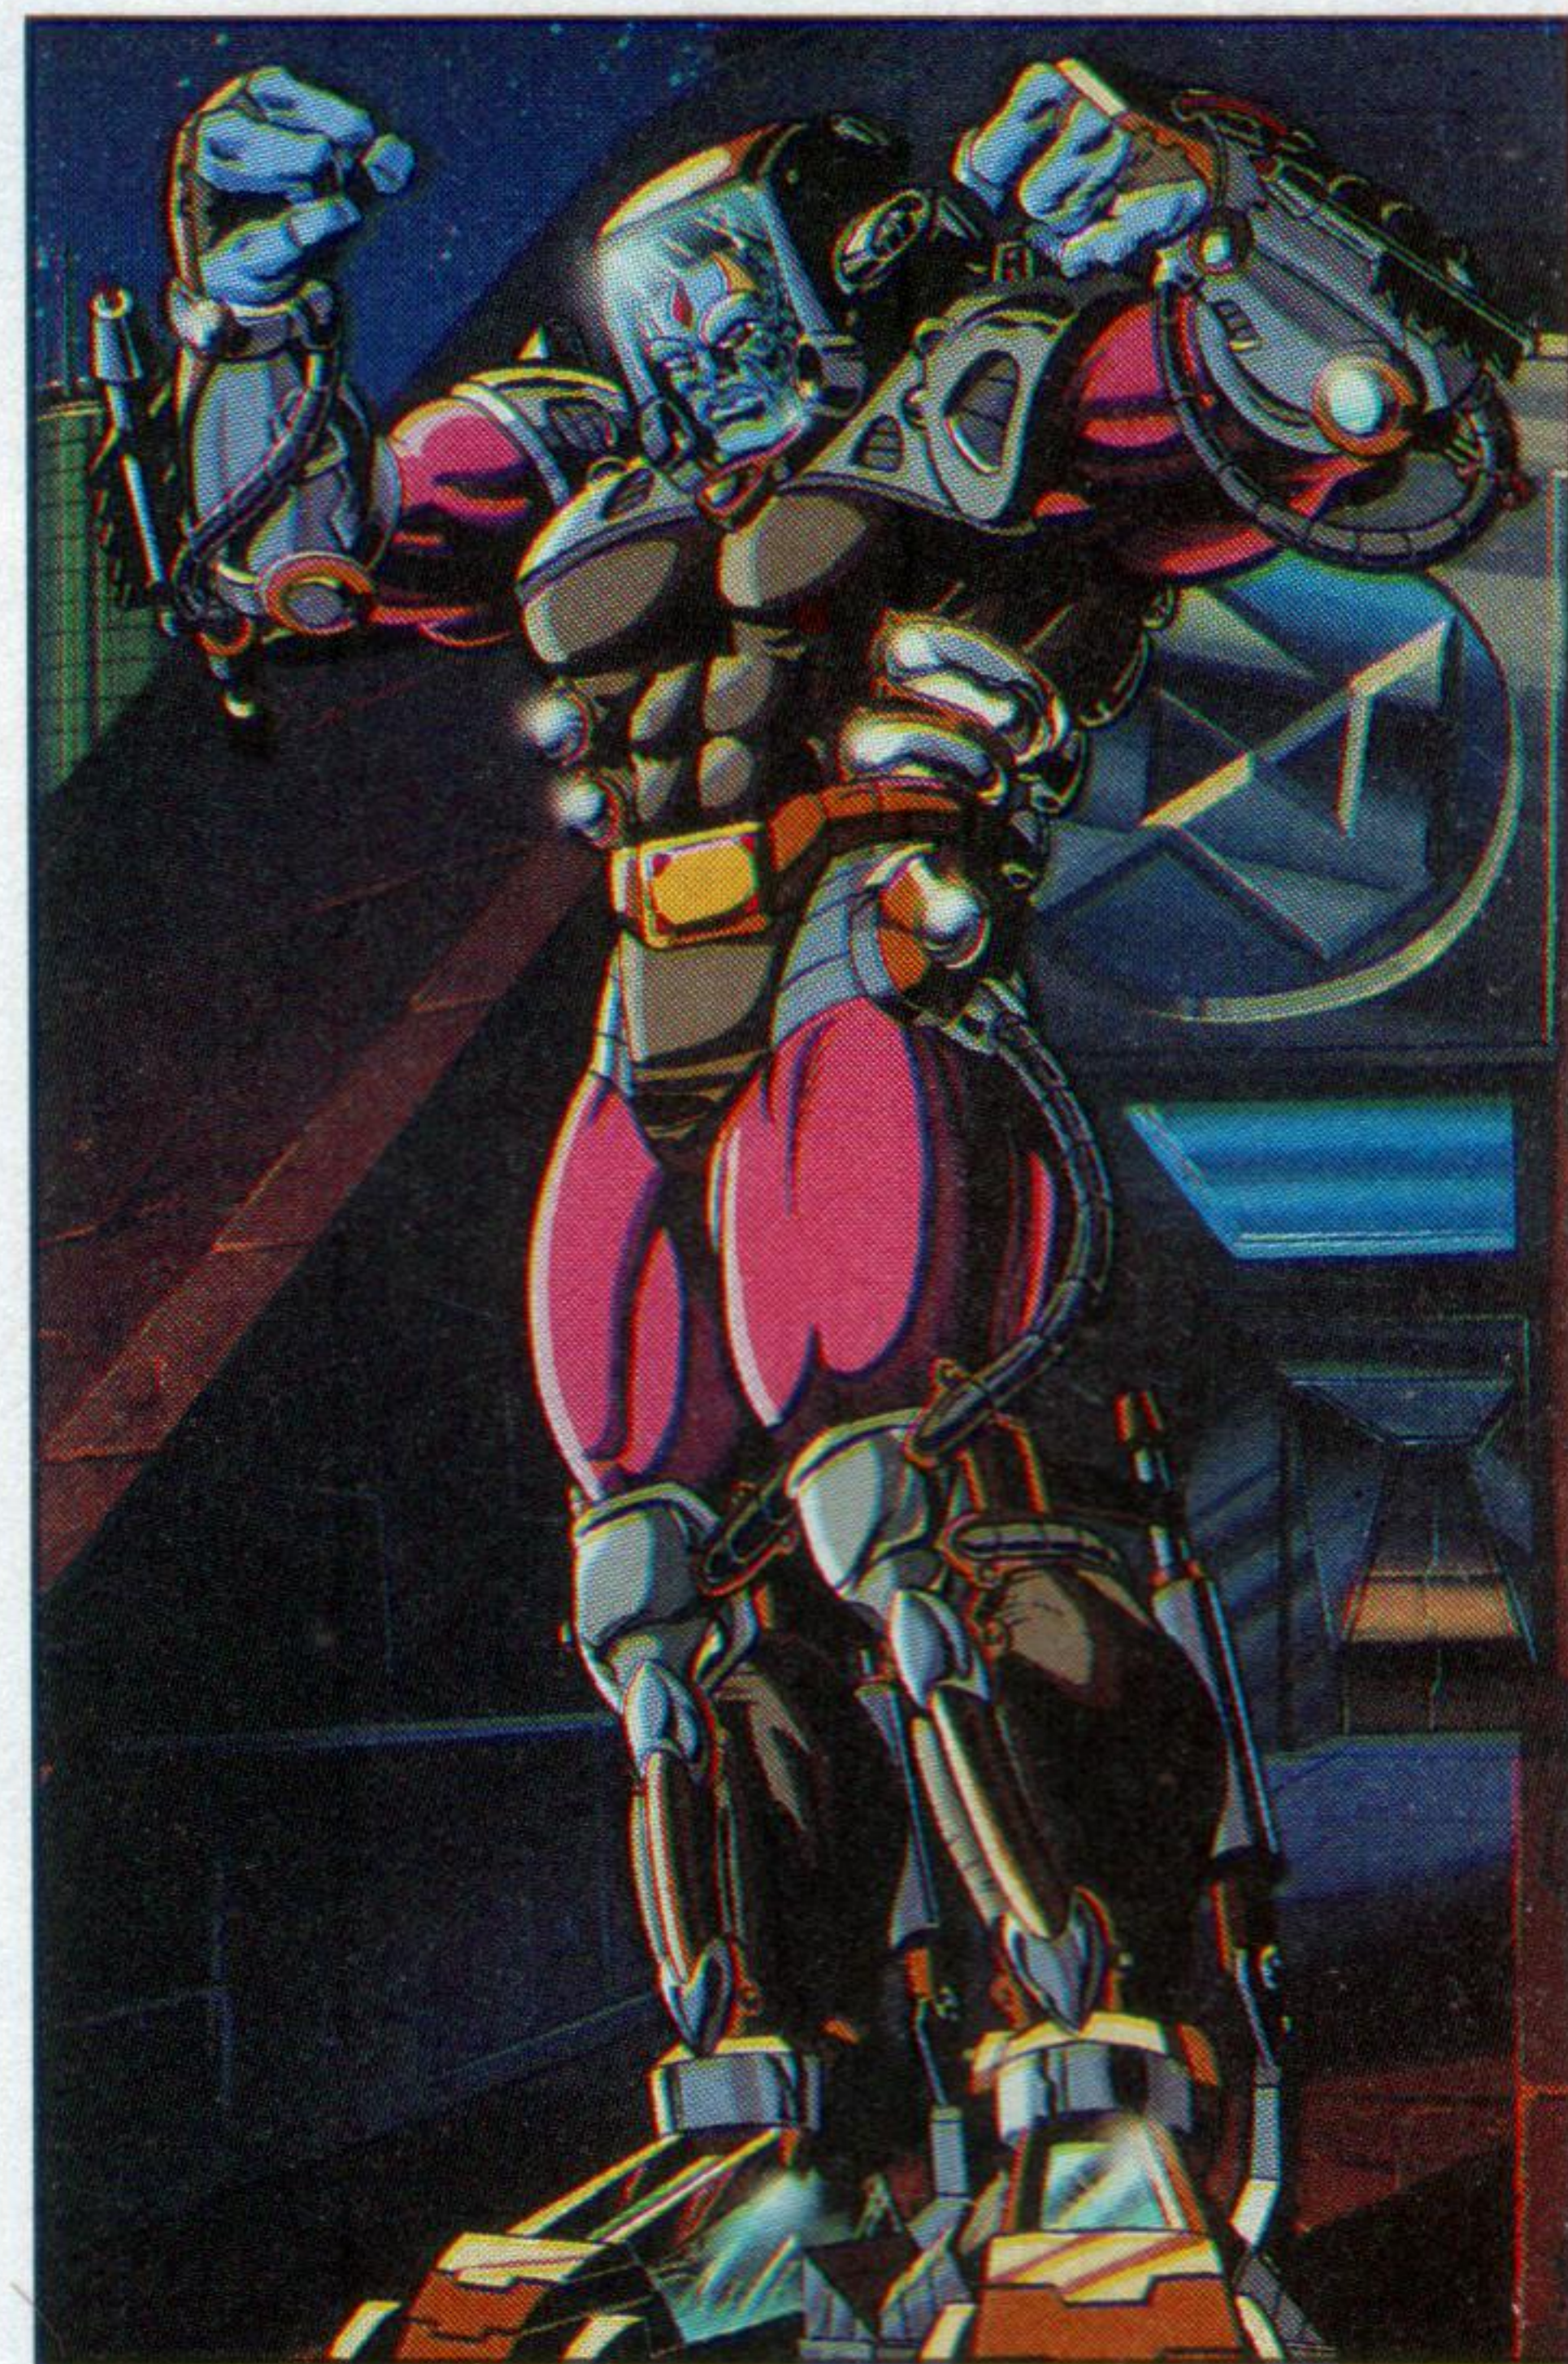

Led by former teen idol Robby Benson (as Lt. J.T. Marsh), the Exosquad will prove to be one of the '90s top action hero adventurers groups. They're a force to be reckoned with!

EXOSQUAD weaves together the worlds of entertainment, technology and science fiction to create an explosive and imaginative package of compelling storylines carried by a distinctive character group. Tailored to children's appreciation for futuristic genres, EXOSQUAD provides them with "fodder for the mind"—a boost to the imagination—while integrating elements of fun, adventure and mystery.

EXOSQUAD is set within the 22nd century. An oppressed Earth and its homeworlds of Mars and Venus are part of a dictatorship headed by genetically engineered super-humans, called Neosapiens, and their leader, Phaeton. In an effort to counteract Phaeton's power, the General Assembly—a futuristic version of today's United Nations—sanctions the formation of EXOSQUAD, a band of heroic young men and women (called Terrans) who battle to save Earth and mankind from the clutches of Phaeton and his warriors.

EXOSQUAD's revered leader, Lt. J.T.

Marsh, is voiced by Robby Benson, acclaimed for his portrayal of the Beast in Walt Disney's animated fable "Beauty and the Beast." Marsh exudes the kind of formidable, intrinsic strength of a natural leader. Having joined EXOSQUAD at age 18 to battle the pirates of Saturn, Marsh's fighter instincts have been honed by years of EXOSQUAD experience.

Viewers will travel with their EXOSQUAD heroes on journeys through the solar system as Lt. Marsh leads his comrades into dramatic confrontations with the forces of evil. A typical day in the life of an EXOSQUAD trooper could include coming to the rescue of a group of Terrans being attacked by Tethysian Pirates, chasing these Pirates to the icy moon of Saturn Enceladus, or, perhaps, initiating a peace summit with Neosapien leaders on the mountainside of Olympus Mons.

MONSTER FORCE TAKES CHARGE!

Count Dracula has come to Saturday morning TV, and he wants you to meet a few of his "buds"—including Bela The Werewolf, HoTep The Mummy and The Creature From The Black Lagoon!

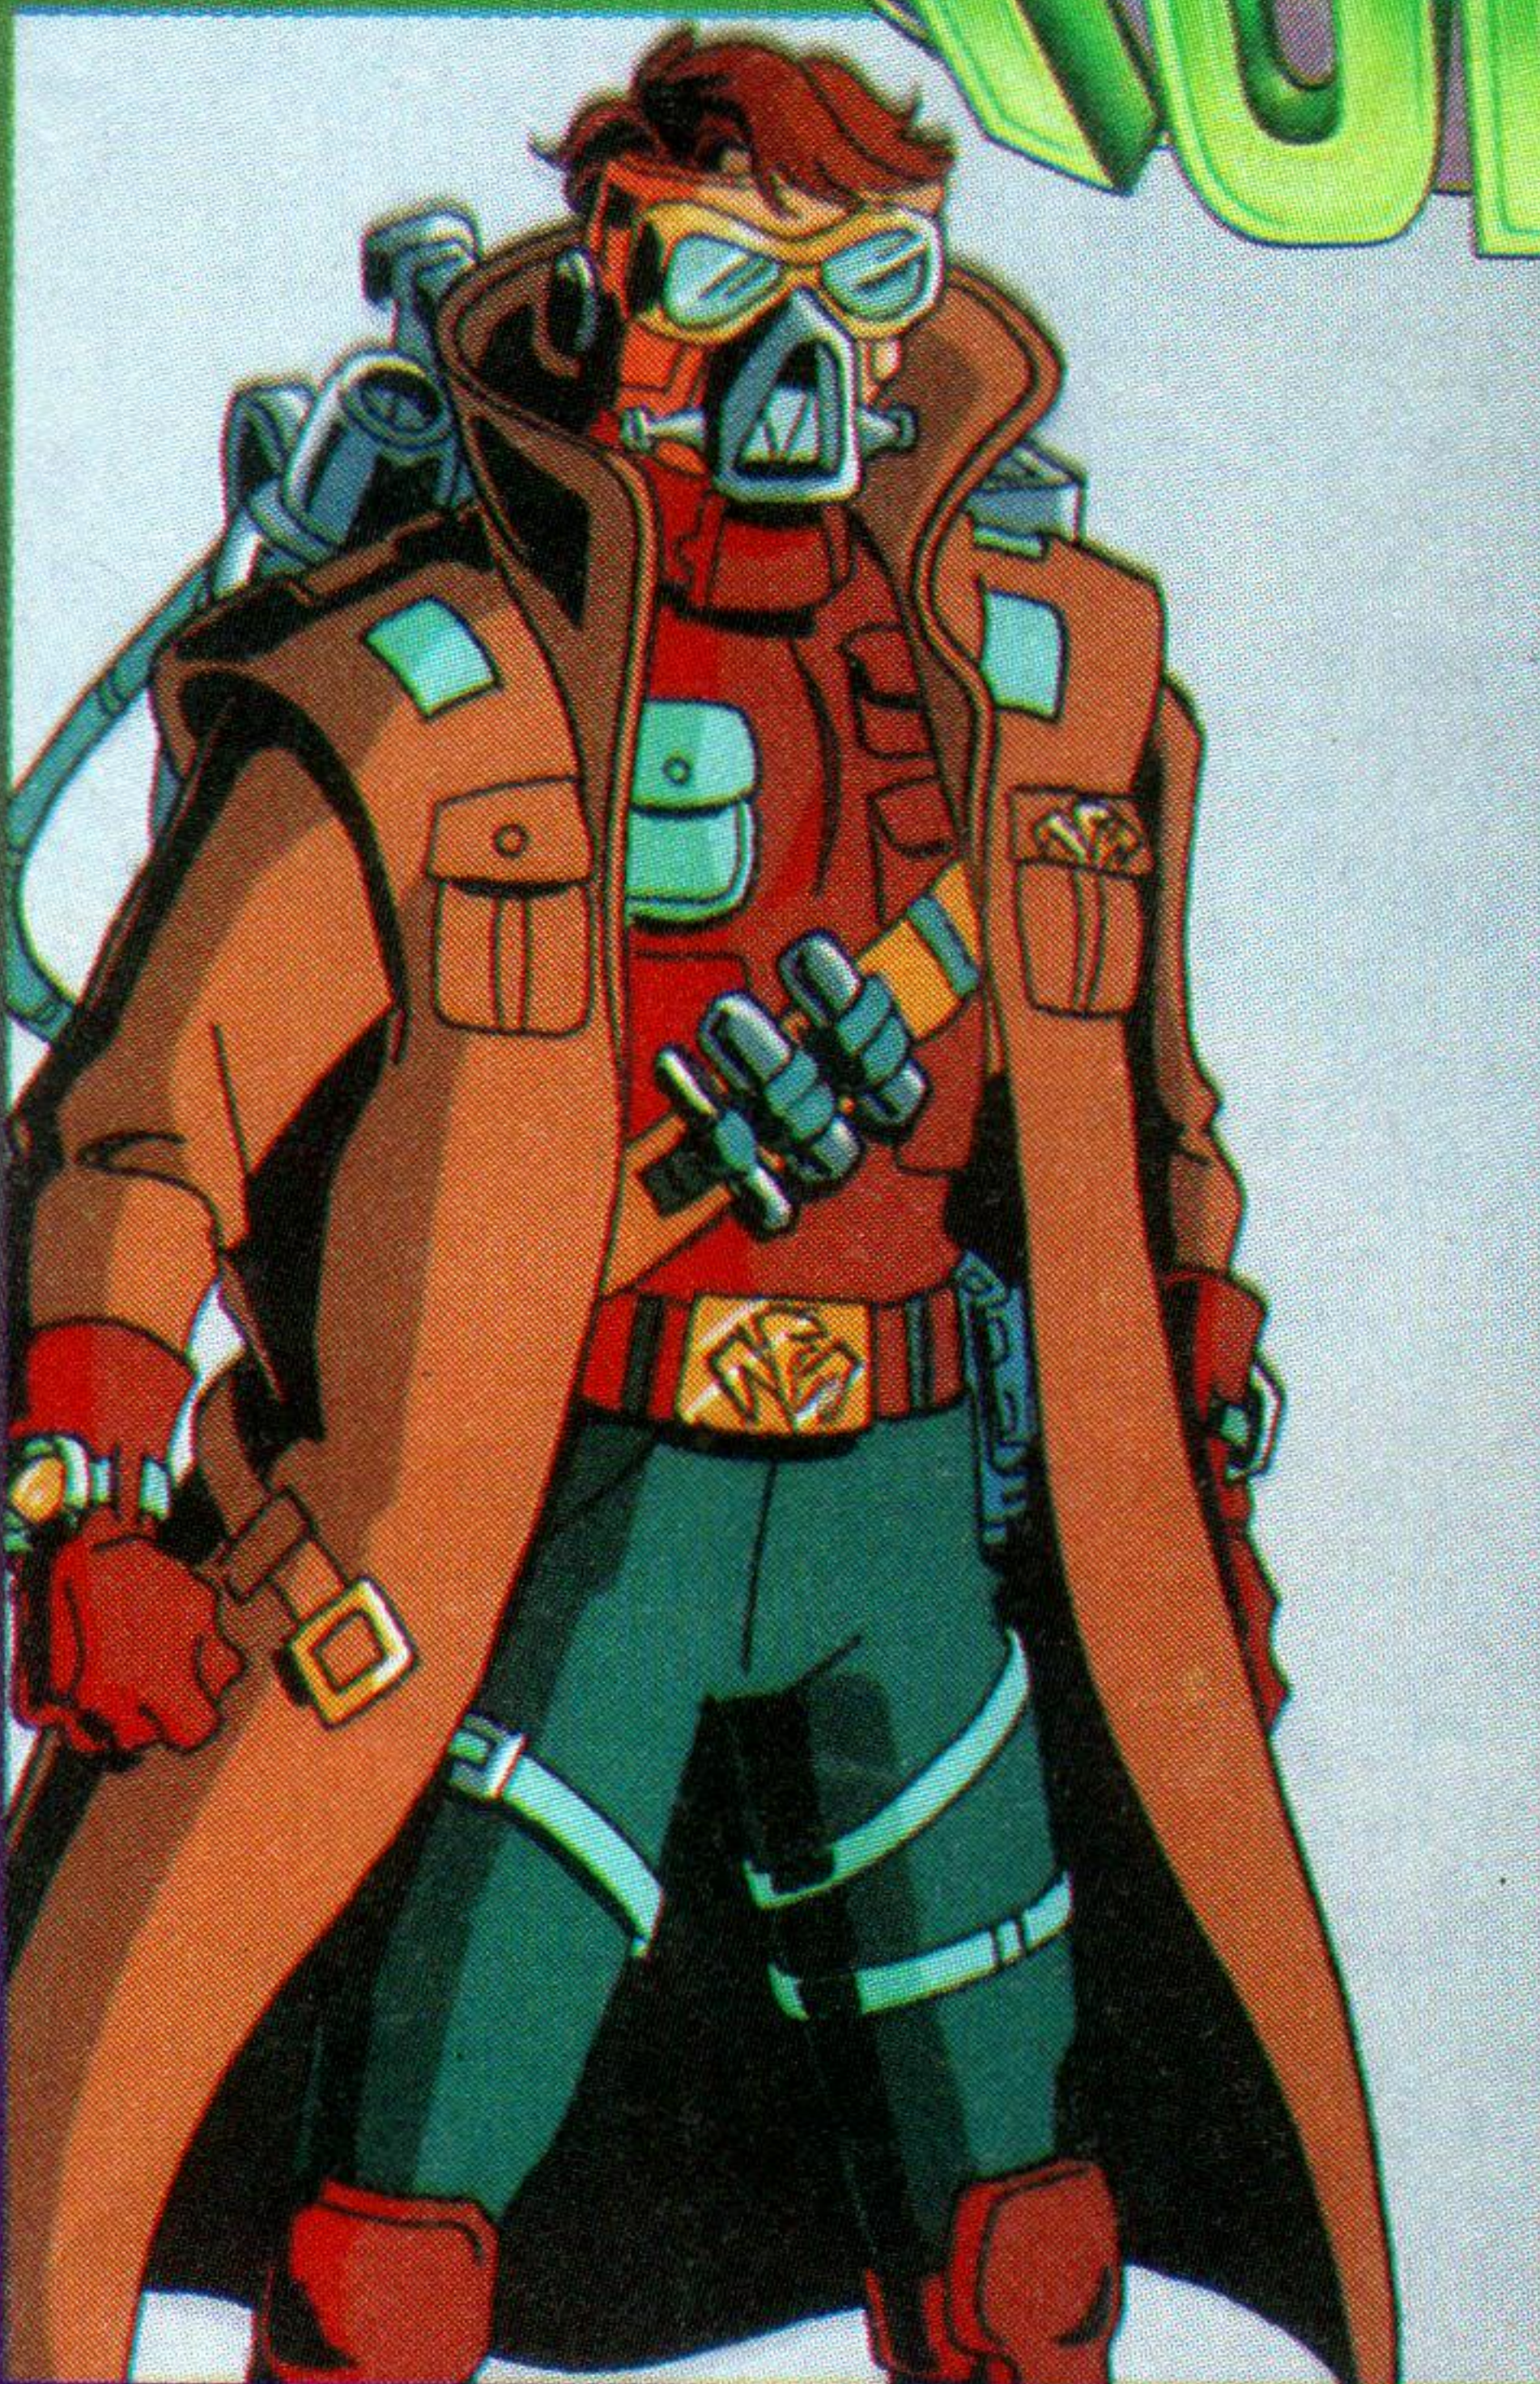

We get up each morning, brush our teeth, take our showers and go to work. We see shadows shift along the sidewalks, but they're just shadows, right? We see strange images out of the corner of our eyes, but when we turn there's nothing there. Just a trick of light, perhaps? We hear noises late at night when we're curled up in our beds. No problem. We gave up worrying about the Bogeyman when we were six...didn't we? It's just the house creaking. Or maybe it's the coyotes cackling in the hills. Or maybe...it's the monsters...

Now, propel yourself into the future and imagine a dark era in the Earth's history, one in which chaos reigns and cities teem with thugs, criminals and hoodlums. The immortal monster Dracula has chosen this time to emerge from his self-imposed obscurity and lead his supernatural band of ghouls, including Bela The Werewolf, HoTep The Mummy and The Creature From The Black Lagoon, to openly stalk mankind and battle for primacy on Earth.

Society has but one hope to save itself from ruin...THE MONSTER FORCE!

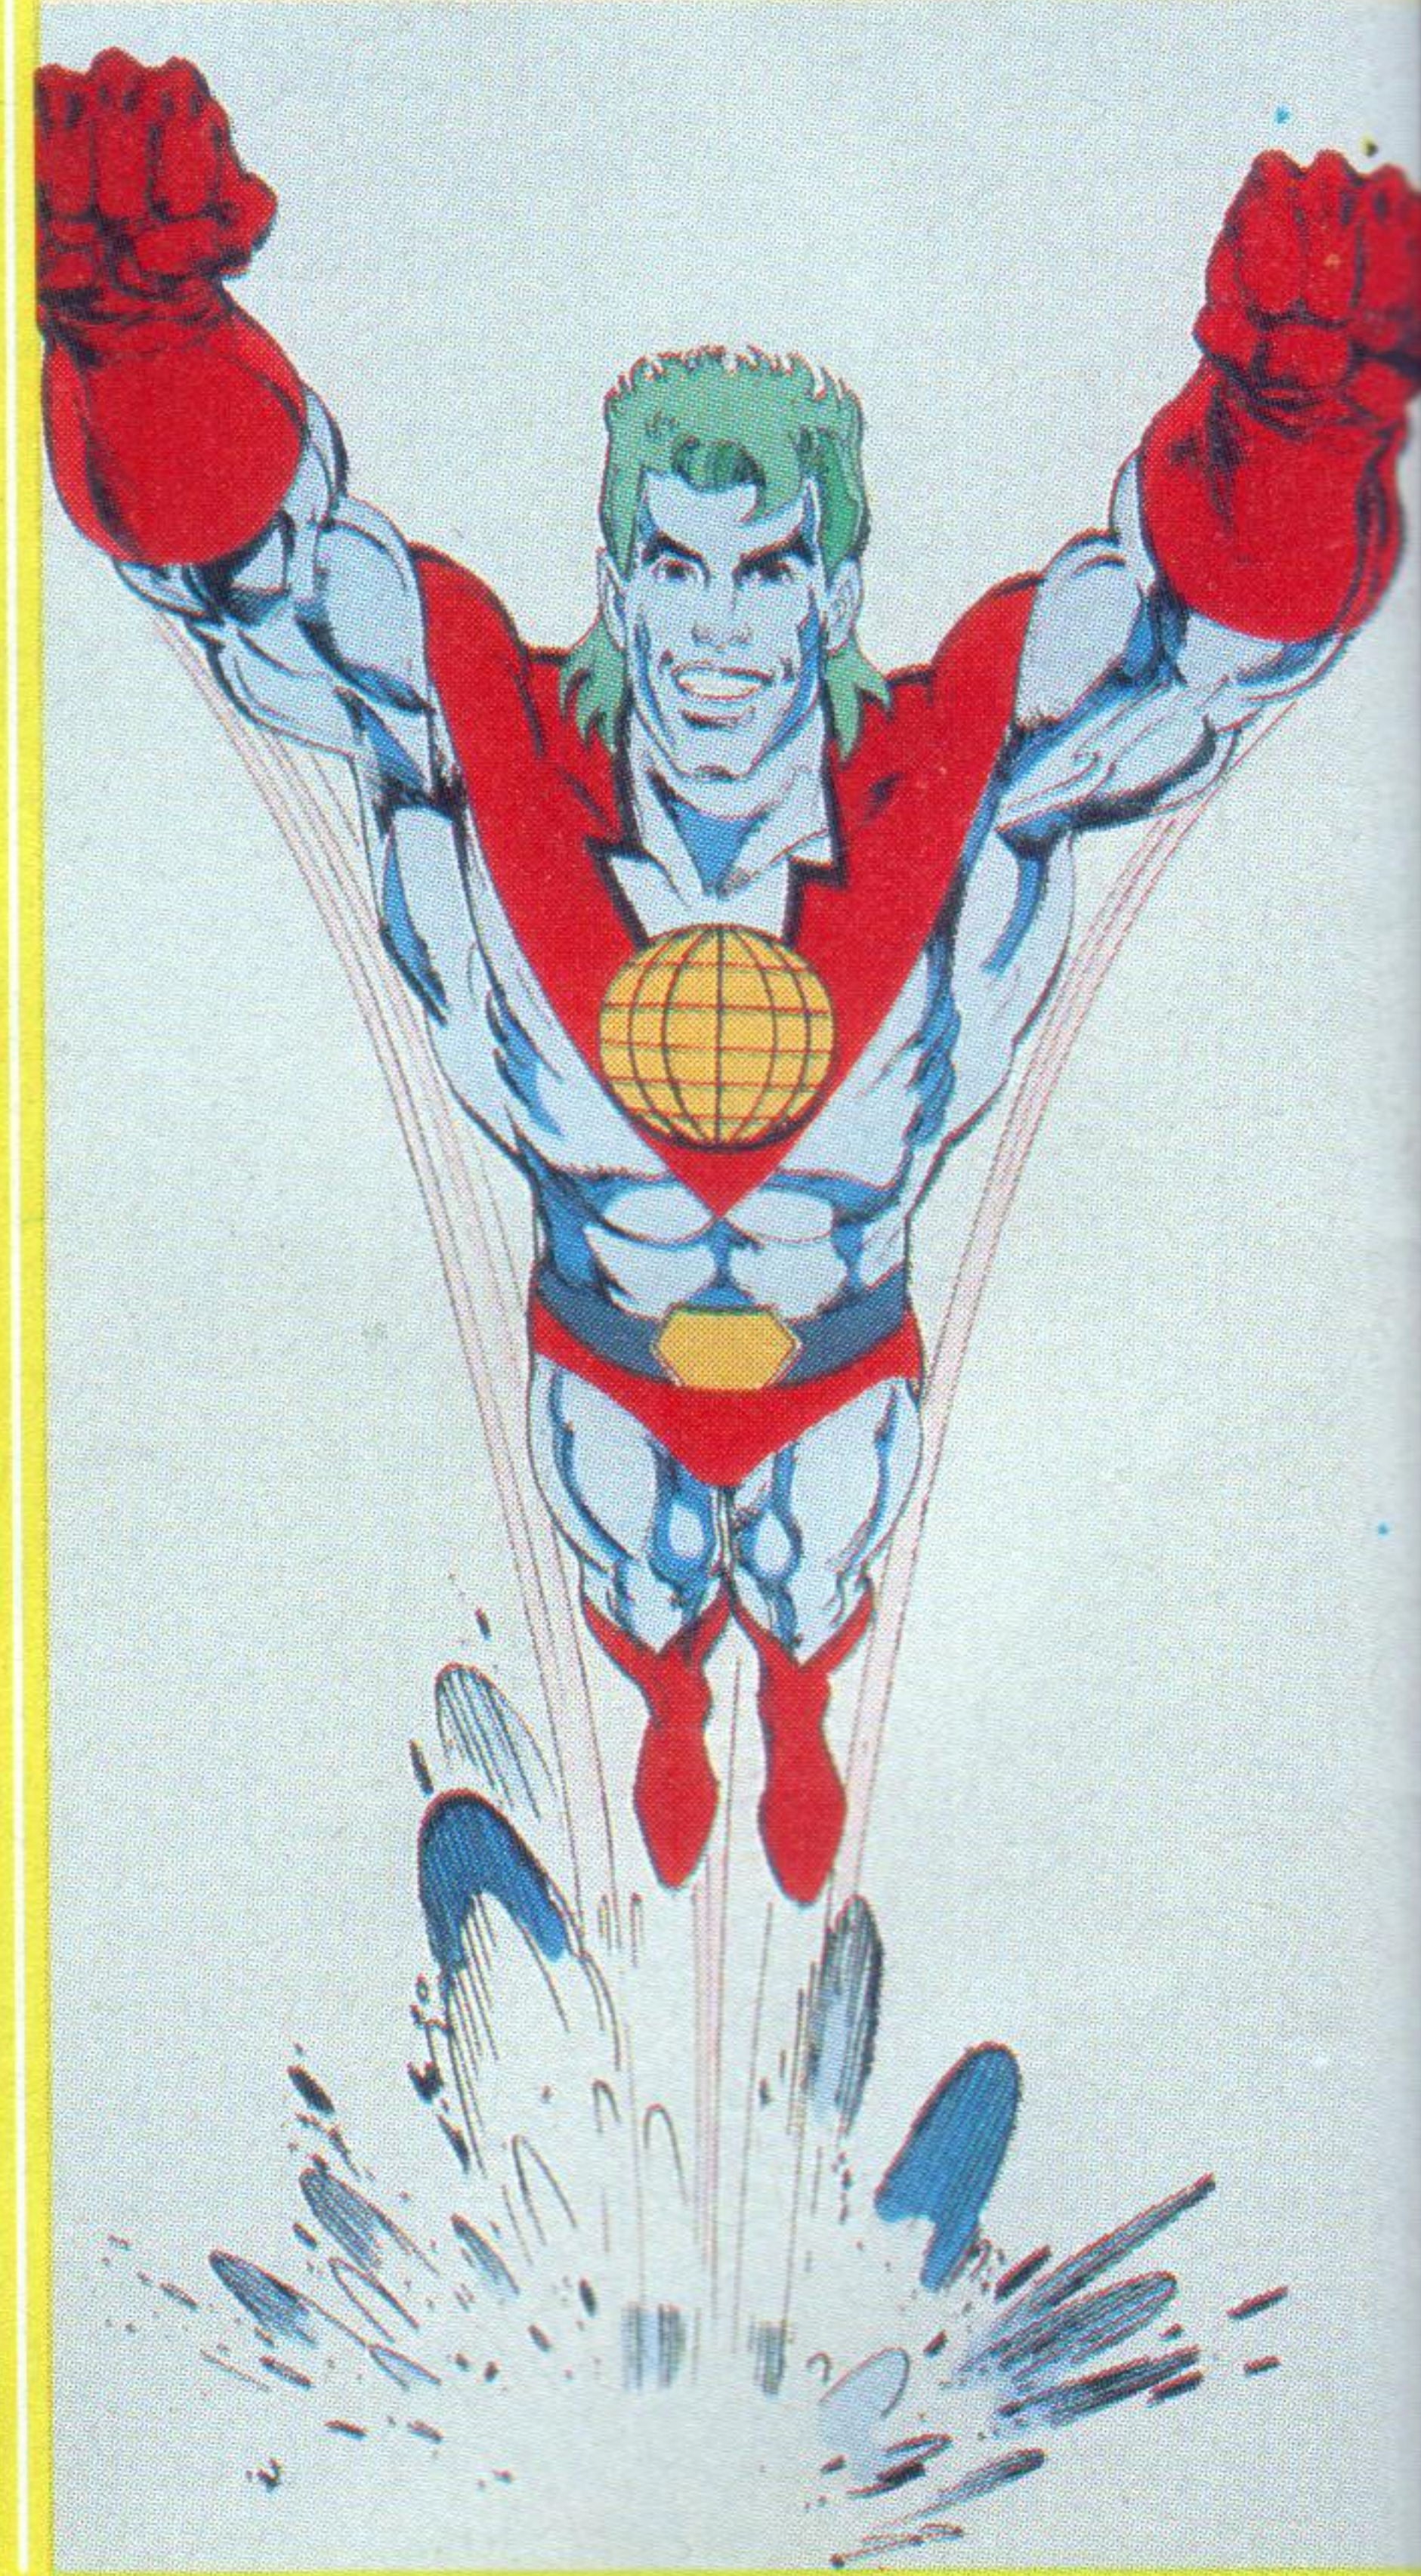

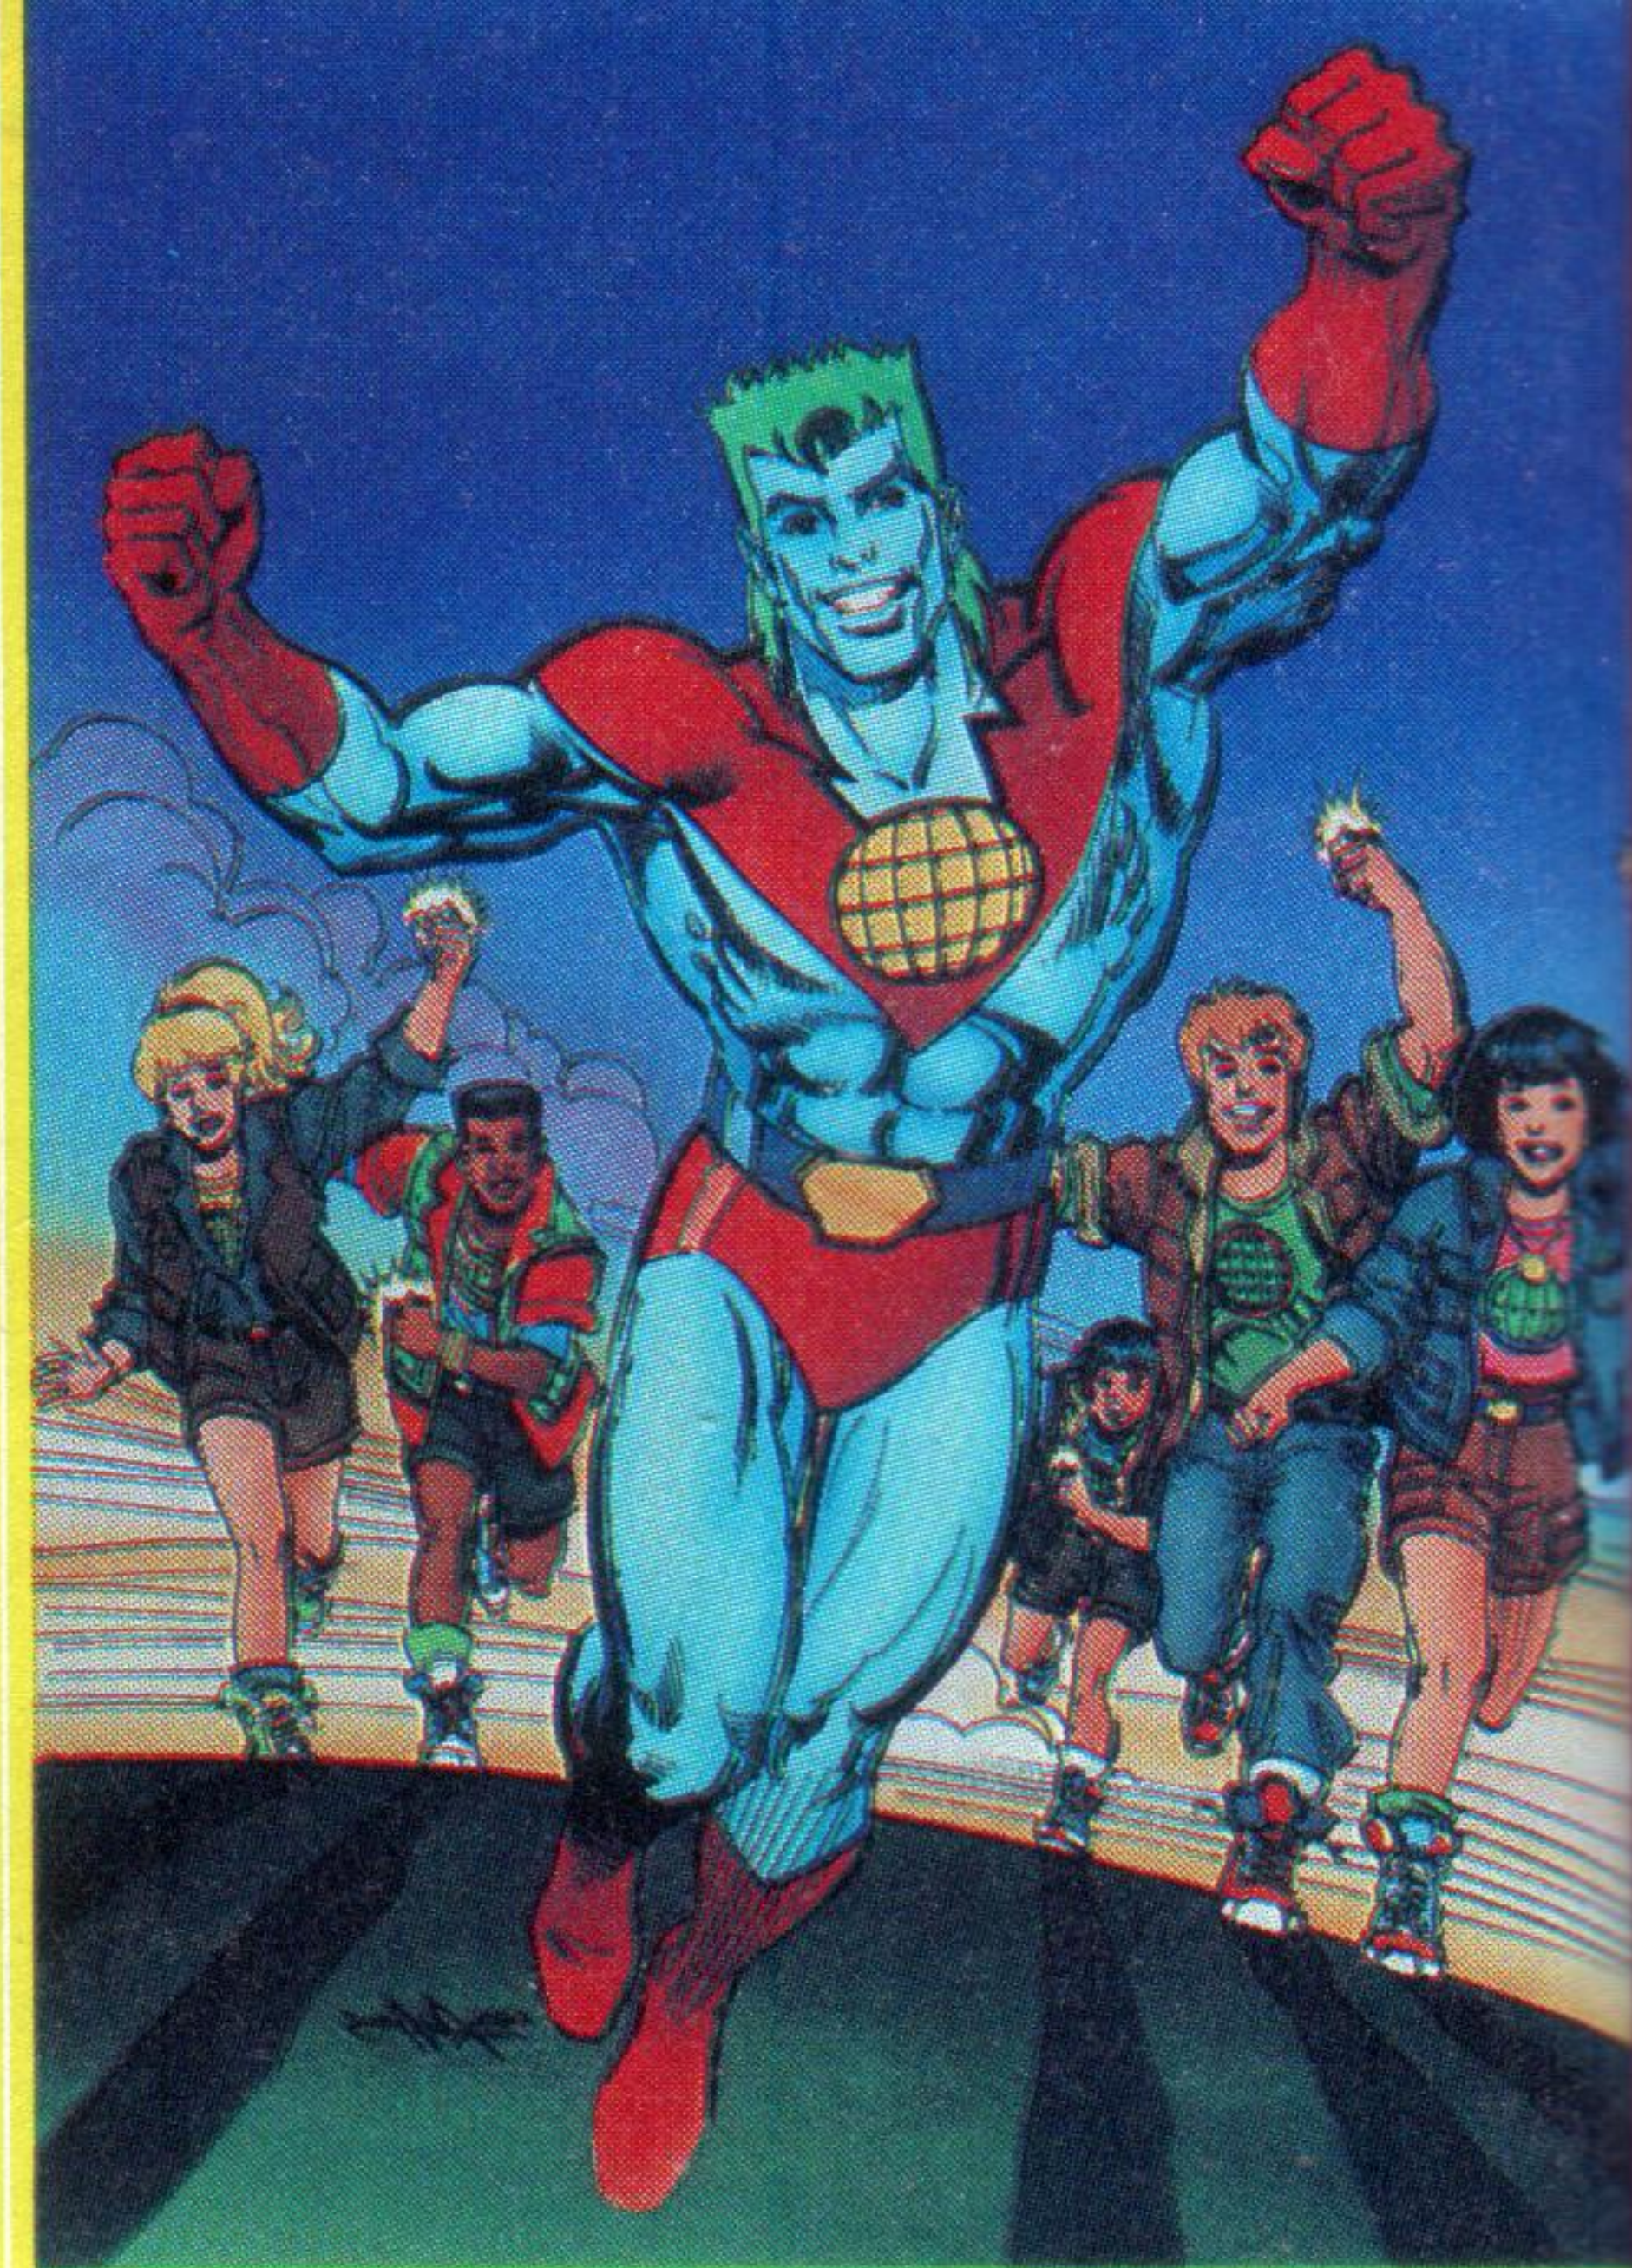

Monster Force follows the exploits of a small band of college students whose arcane specialty is "monsters." Together they formed the Monster Force to confront Dracula and his diabolic cohorts. Led by the intrepid young professor, Dr. Reed Crawley, the Monster Force doesn't just believe that supernatural creatures exist—they've had close encounters of the worst kind. The team is determined to understand the threat and defeat it.

CAPTAIN PLANET SAYS...

Captain Planet is the most sensitive superhero of them all. He wants to save the planet and defeat all the evil eco-villains without harming his enemies. He says that there's lots of things you can do to help preserve our natural resources and cut down on the amount of pollution in this world.

1. Don't litter. In fact you and your friends might like to spend an afternoon picking up garbage in a nearby park or off the sidewalks. Not only will you clean up the world, but you'll be spending time with a good friend!

2. Don't start smoking cigarettes. It's really hard to quit once you get started, and in addition to hurting yourself, you're hurting nature. Cigarettes contain carbon monoxide, a smelly toxin that destroys our atmosphere.

3. Bundle newspapers together so you can recycle them. Most communities have trucks that pick up newspapers for recycling. You can call your local town hall for more information.

4. Be outspoken. If you see a friend littering, kindly tell them to pick up the litter and throw it out when you come to a garbage can.

5. Don't waste water. When you brush your teeth, you can save about five gallons of water, if you turn off the faucet while you're brushing your teeth. Turn it on when you're ready to rinse your mouth.

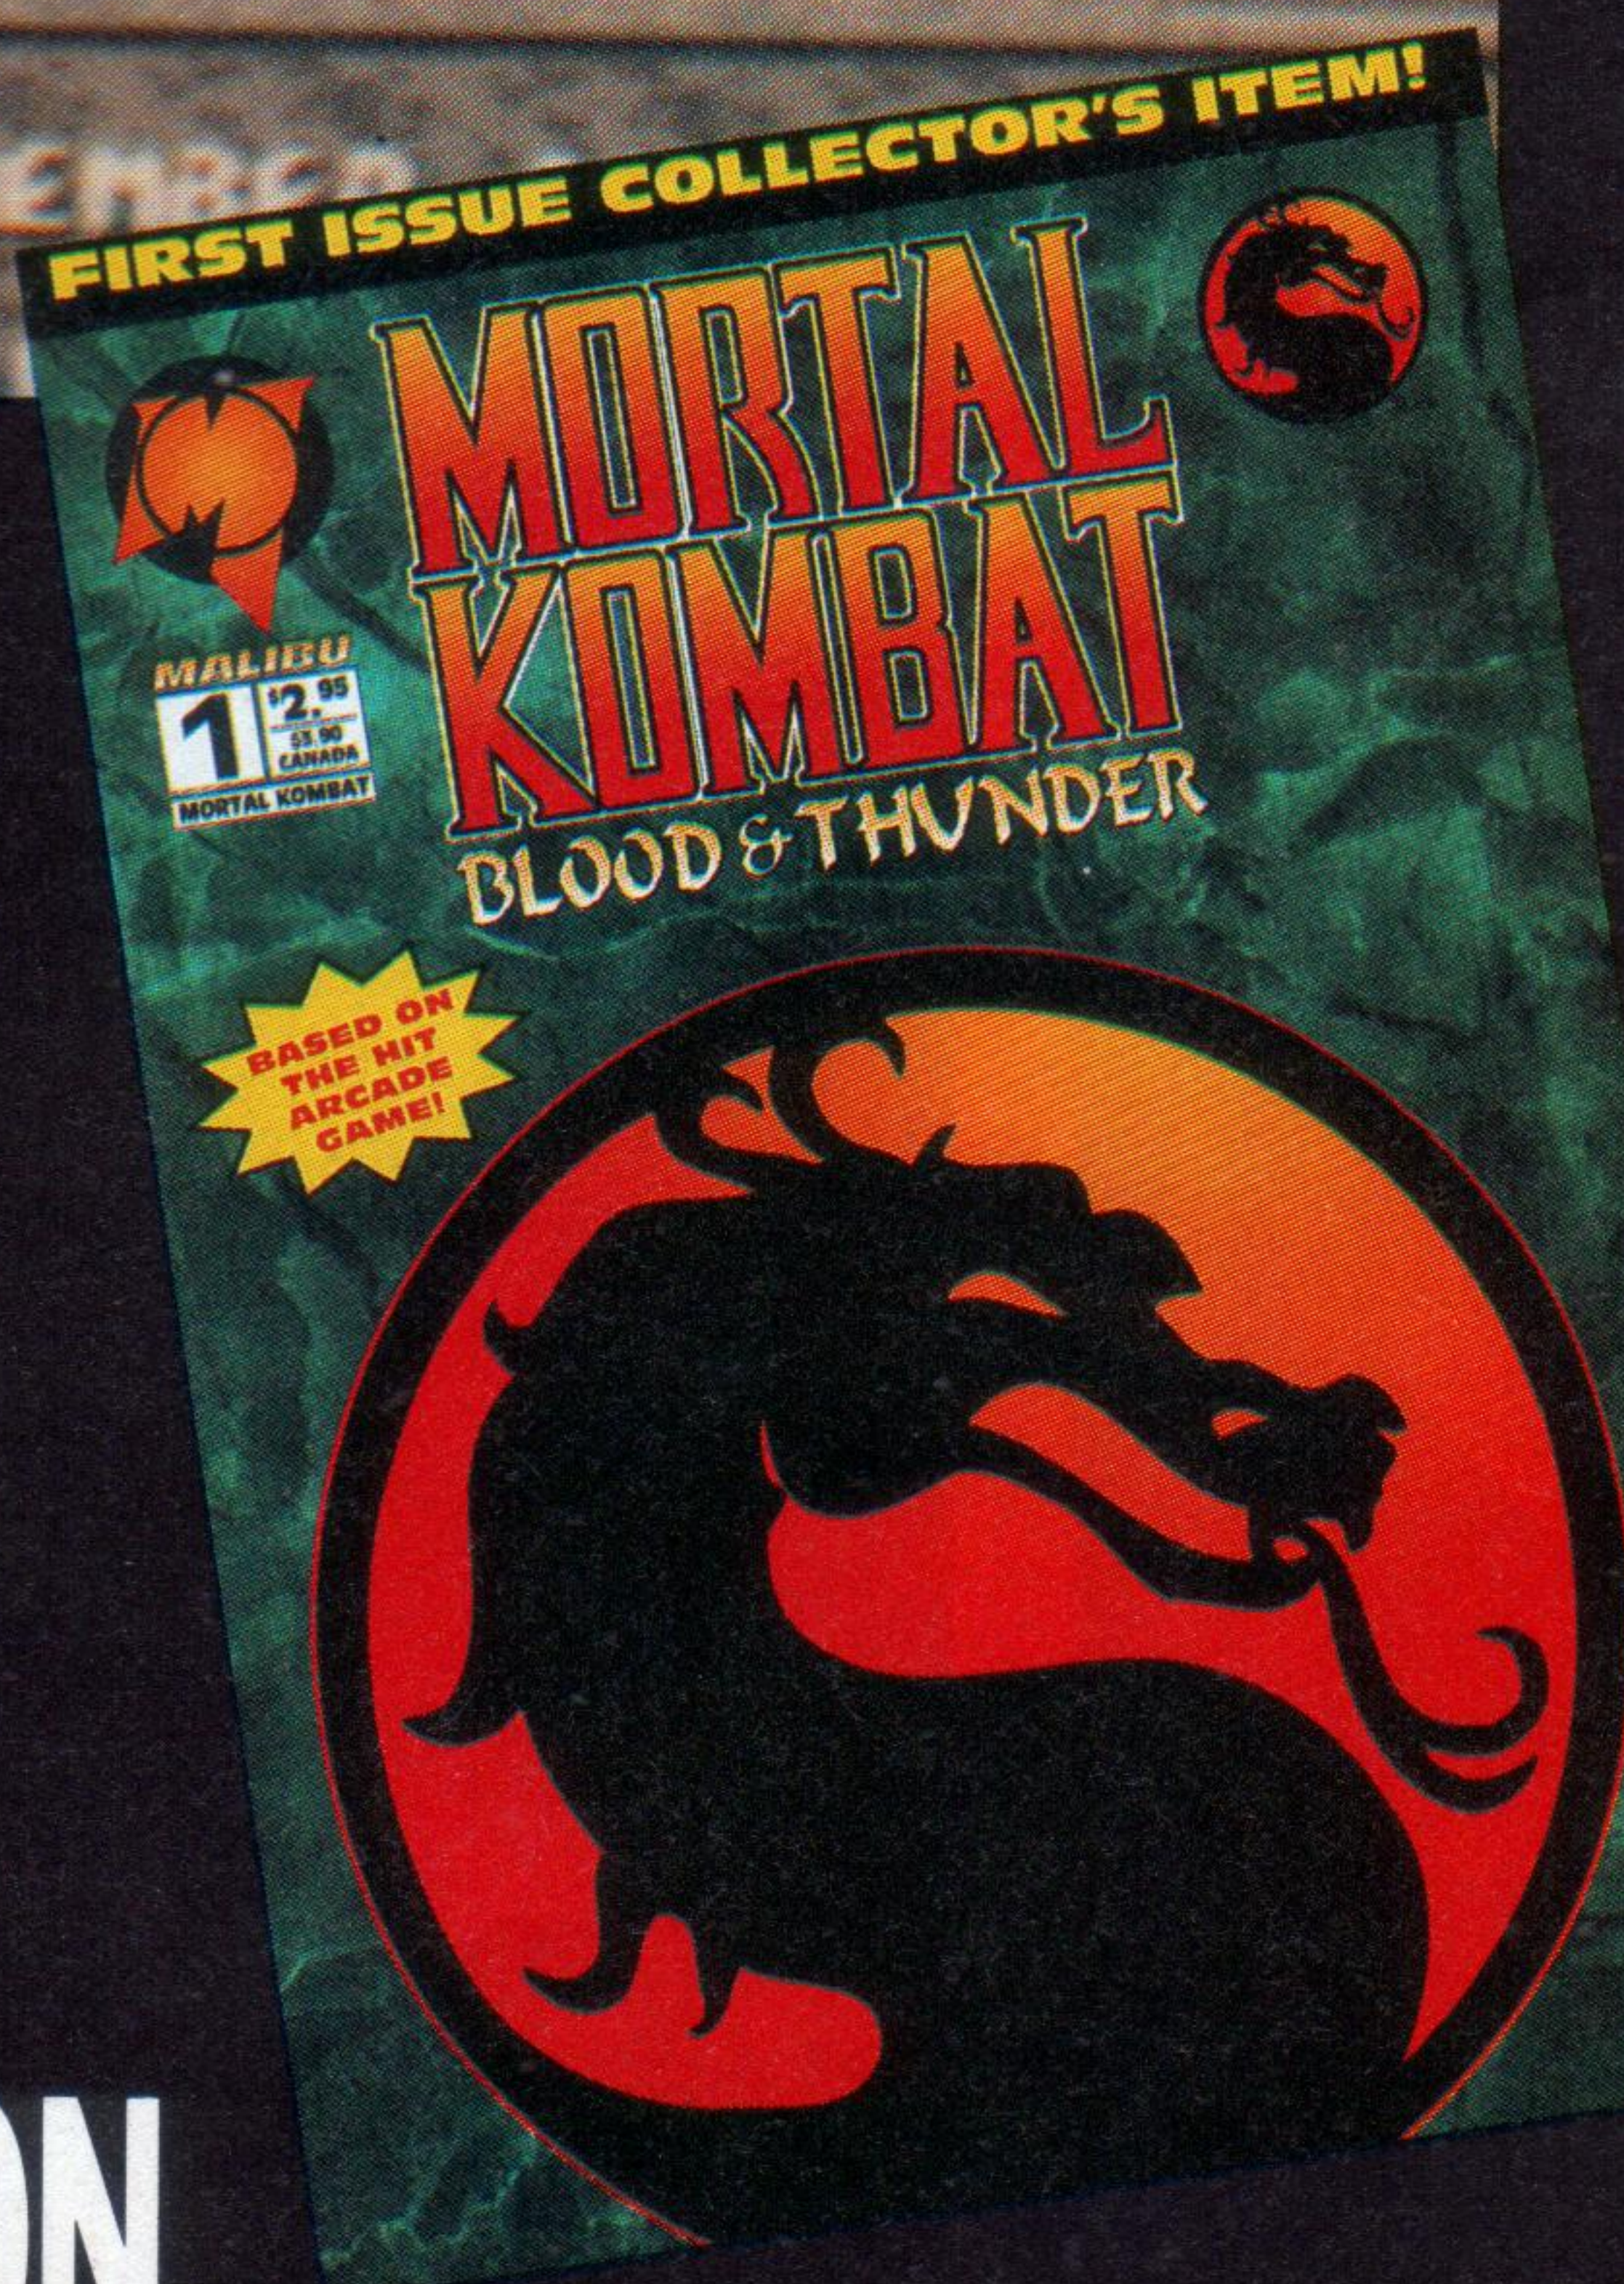

These are all the good fighters for Mortal Kombat II.

Sonya on the side of right, has the might.

MORTAL KOMBAT'S WORLD DOMINATION

By Anne Leighton

Mortal Kombat may be the most popular video game in the world, but now fans have Mortal Kombat II to look forward to.

Have you ever played Mortal Kombat? If so, you're not alone. Mortal Kombat is the most popular video arcade game since Pac man. So it's no wonder there's a Mortal Kombat comic book plus a movie in the works. We're hoping the movie will be out next summer.

Meantime Mortal Kombat fans can get their fix by reading the comic series and by playing the new Mortal Kombat II.

Mortal Kombat is a struggle of good versus evil. The powerful and evil Shao Kahn and his warrior Shang Tsung fight against many Mortal Kombat heroes including favorites from the first game—Johnny Cage, Liu Kang, Sonya, Scorpion and Raiden.

The bad guys have some new challengers Major Jackson "Jax" Briggs, who leads the U.S. Special Forces Unit, and Baraka who was recruited by Shao Kahn from a nomadic race of mutants who live in the wastelands of the Outworld. Also twin sisters Kitana and Mileena intend to do battle with Liu Kang and gang; they've special powers that will surprise you.

In Mortal Kombat I, Shang Tsung was defeated in battle and returned to Shao Kahn to beg forgiveness for losing. Together Kahn and Tsung plan a new diabolical plan to lure the Earth's mightiest warriors for a tournament where good and evil will be determined by who wins or loses the fight!

HOLLYWOOD

Meet two talented young guys, just getting their careers in gear, but already headed to success in the entertainment world!

NEWCOMERS

D.J. DELLOS

D.J. Dellos made his movie debut in Newsies and, in the Nick Nolte film I'll Do Anything, he actually played himself on screen—an aspiring young actor, out to break the odds in Hollywood!

Born in San Dimas, California on March 30, 1979, 15-year-old D.J. got his start as an actor doing a Mattel commercial at the age of four. Brown-eyed, brown-haired D.J., who is 5'2" and weighs 96 lbs., recently recorded with rapper Tone Loc, and has his own rap record in the works. He is also co-hosting the new cable interview series, The Underground.

D.J.'s family consists of parents Bobbi and Dave, sister Dove and brother Tino. The Dellos family is rounded out by a veritable menagerie of pets: Pele the boxer and Lucky the chihuahua, iguanas Iggi & Ziggi, Zoopy the cockatoo, and an obviously very tolerant Siamese cat named Wooky.

A tenth-grader this year, D.J. considers his best subject to be English, and his worst is homework (who could concentrate on homework with so many pets scrambling around the house)? He admits to being the class clown, and notes his worst quality is not academic: "It's my hair. Especially in the morning!"

You can write to D.J. Dellos c/o BOP Agency, 1467 N. Tamarind, Los Angeles, CA 90028.

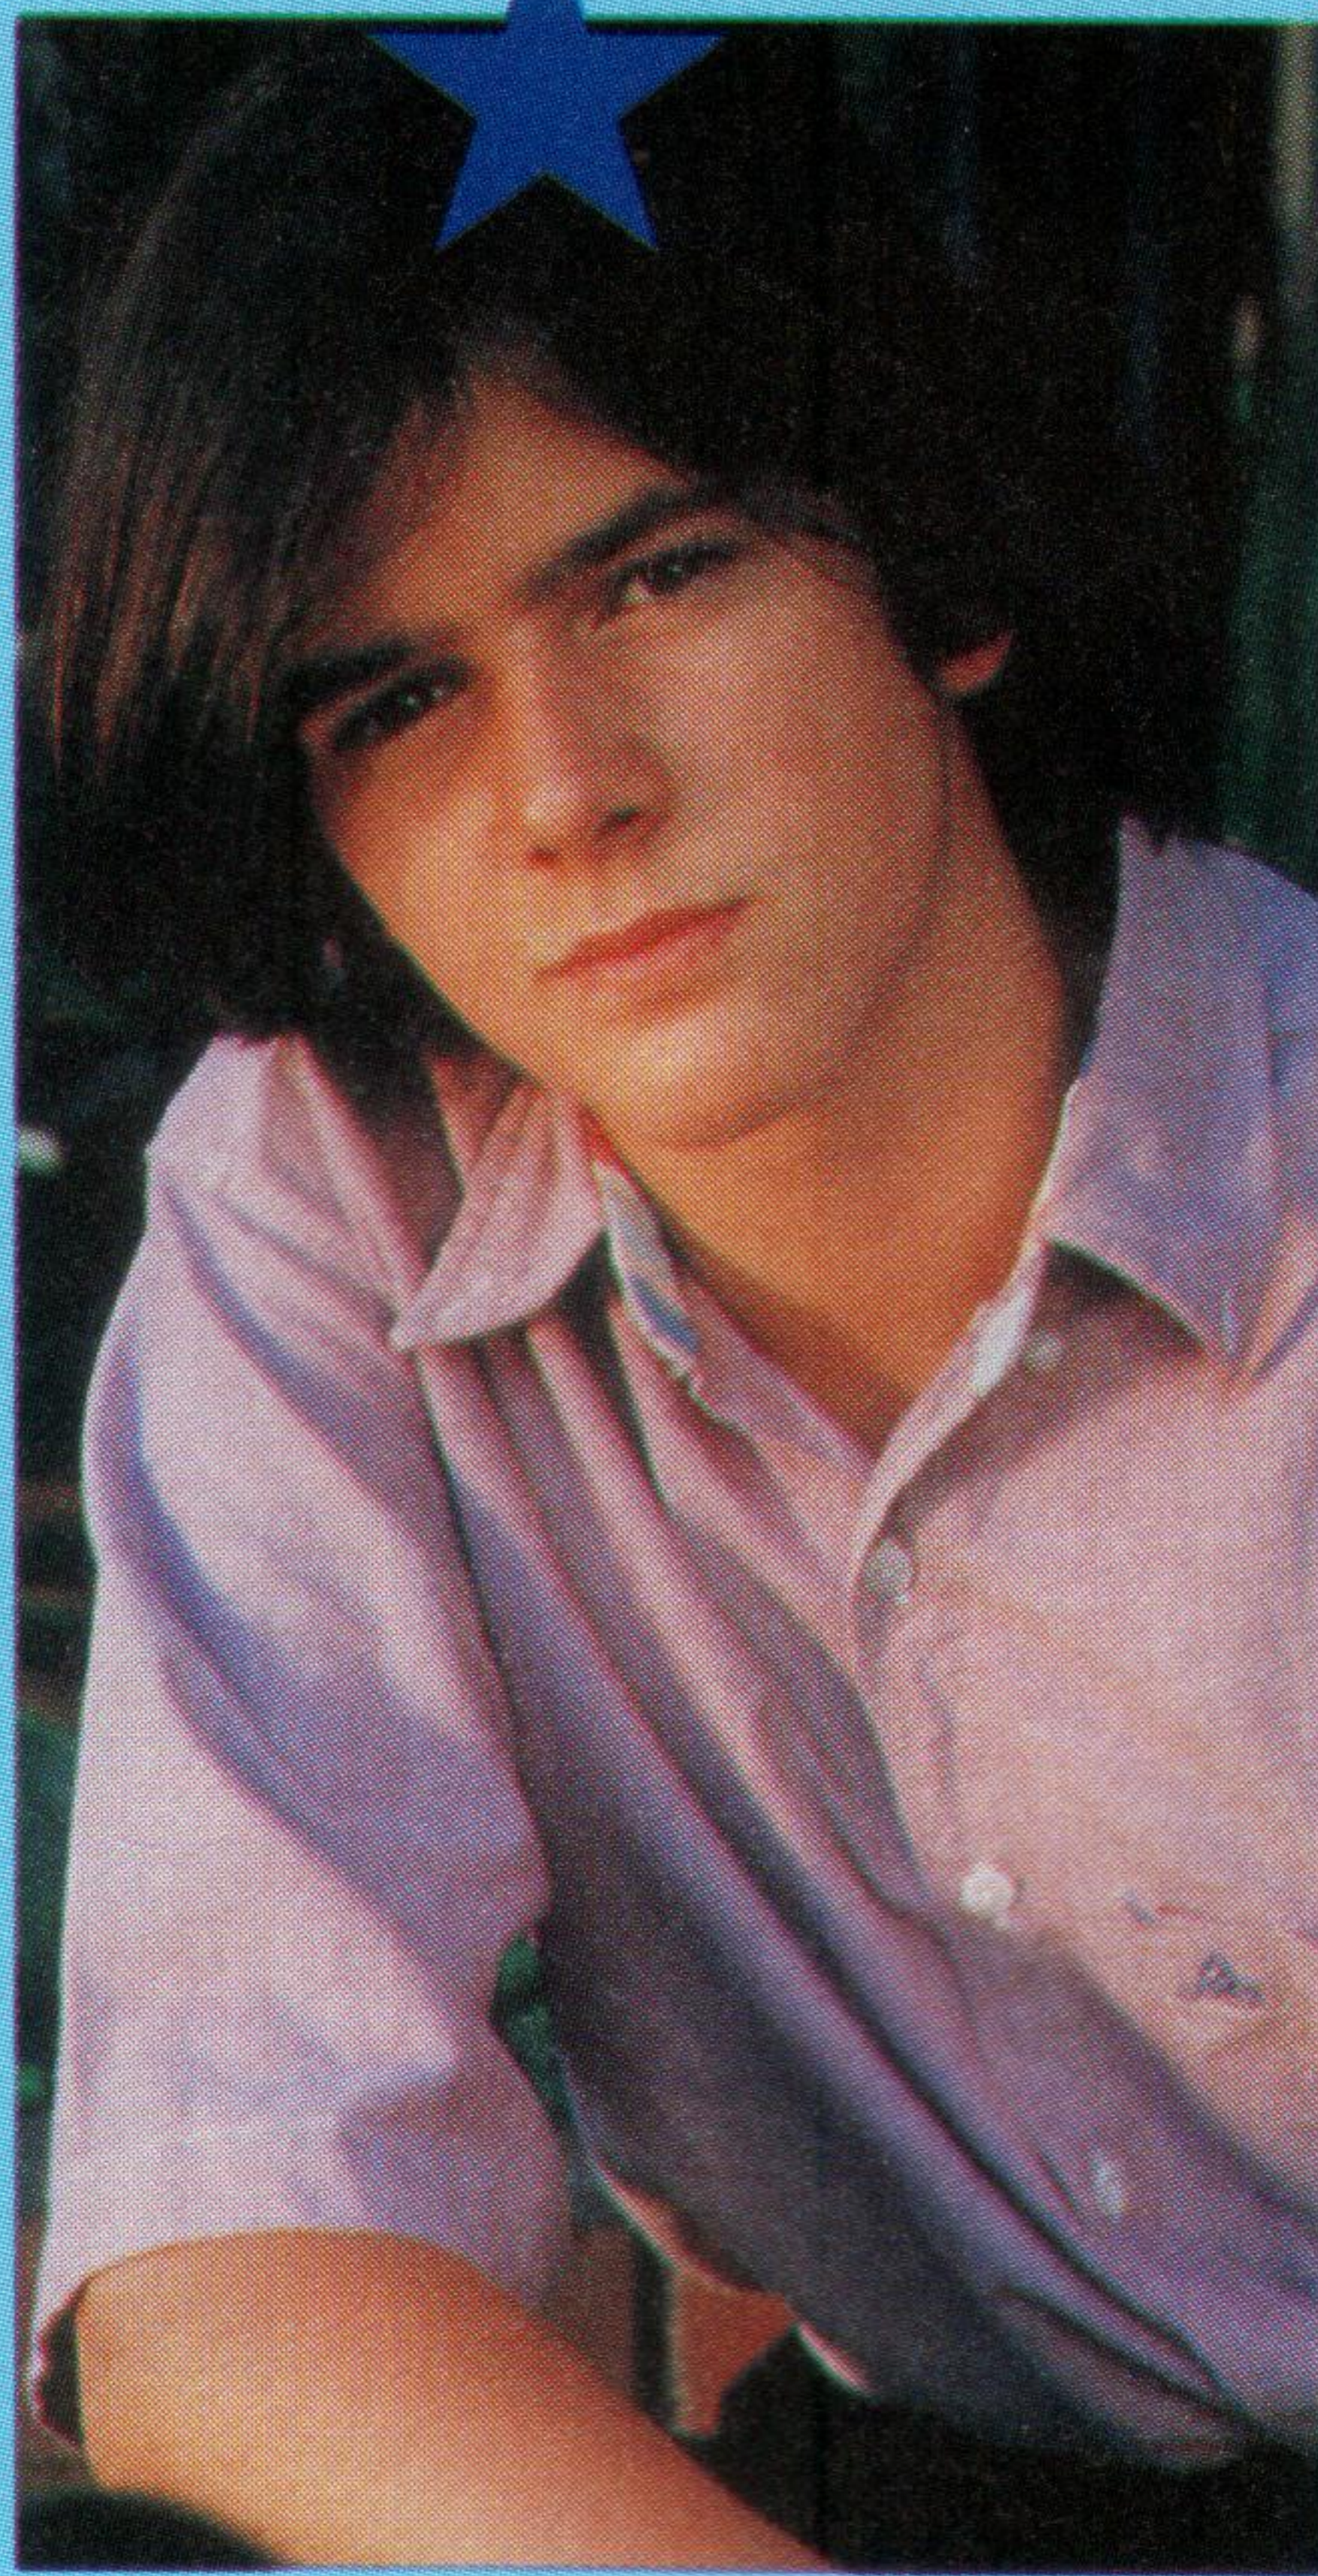

SKIP MARLEY

Fourteen-year-old Skip Marley has only been acting less than a year, but he already has a lead role in a movie, Mark Of The Bear. Born in Riverside, California on December 24, 1980, 5'6" Skip has brown eyes and black hair, and lists his hobbies as archery and meeting people.

A big football fan, Skip got to make use of his athletic prowess in Mark Of The Bear, a thrilling action adventure movie which stars Dan Haggerty of Grizzly Adams, Joe Campanella, Mickey Jones and Lindsay Bloom. The producers loved his long hair for his role, but when they asked Skip to keep it long when school started up, in case any additional shooting might be needed, Skip was less than thrilled at the prospect of explaining to school officials that he couldn't cut his hair "because of work!"

Skip's favorite music group is Bride, and his favorite movie is The Client. He loves hamburgers, lasagna at The Olive Garden, and teasing his older sister, Melissa. He has his heart set on a black Ferrari, and hopes his future acting jobs will make both the sports car (and its insurance!) possible.

You can write Skip Marley c/o BBS Management, 935 Sunnyhill Place, Diamond Bar, CA 91765.

HANGIN' WITH

Come along backstage as The Blue Ranger, David Yost, and his pals work to perfect their performances for Circus Of The Stars!

David really had to do double-work to participate in Circus Of The Stars — he had to work on Power Rangers all day and “rumbling” practice every night, six days a week!

David gives Picket Fences ' Adam Wylie a little help; David shared his Circus spot-light with Adam and Zach in their comedy tumbling act.

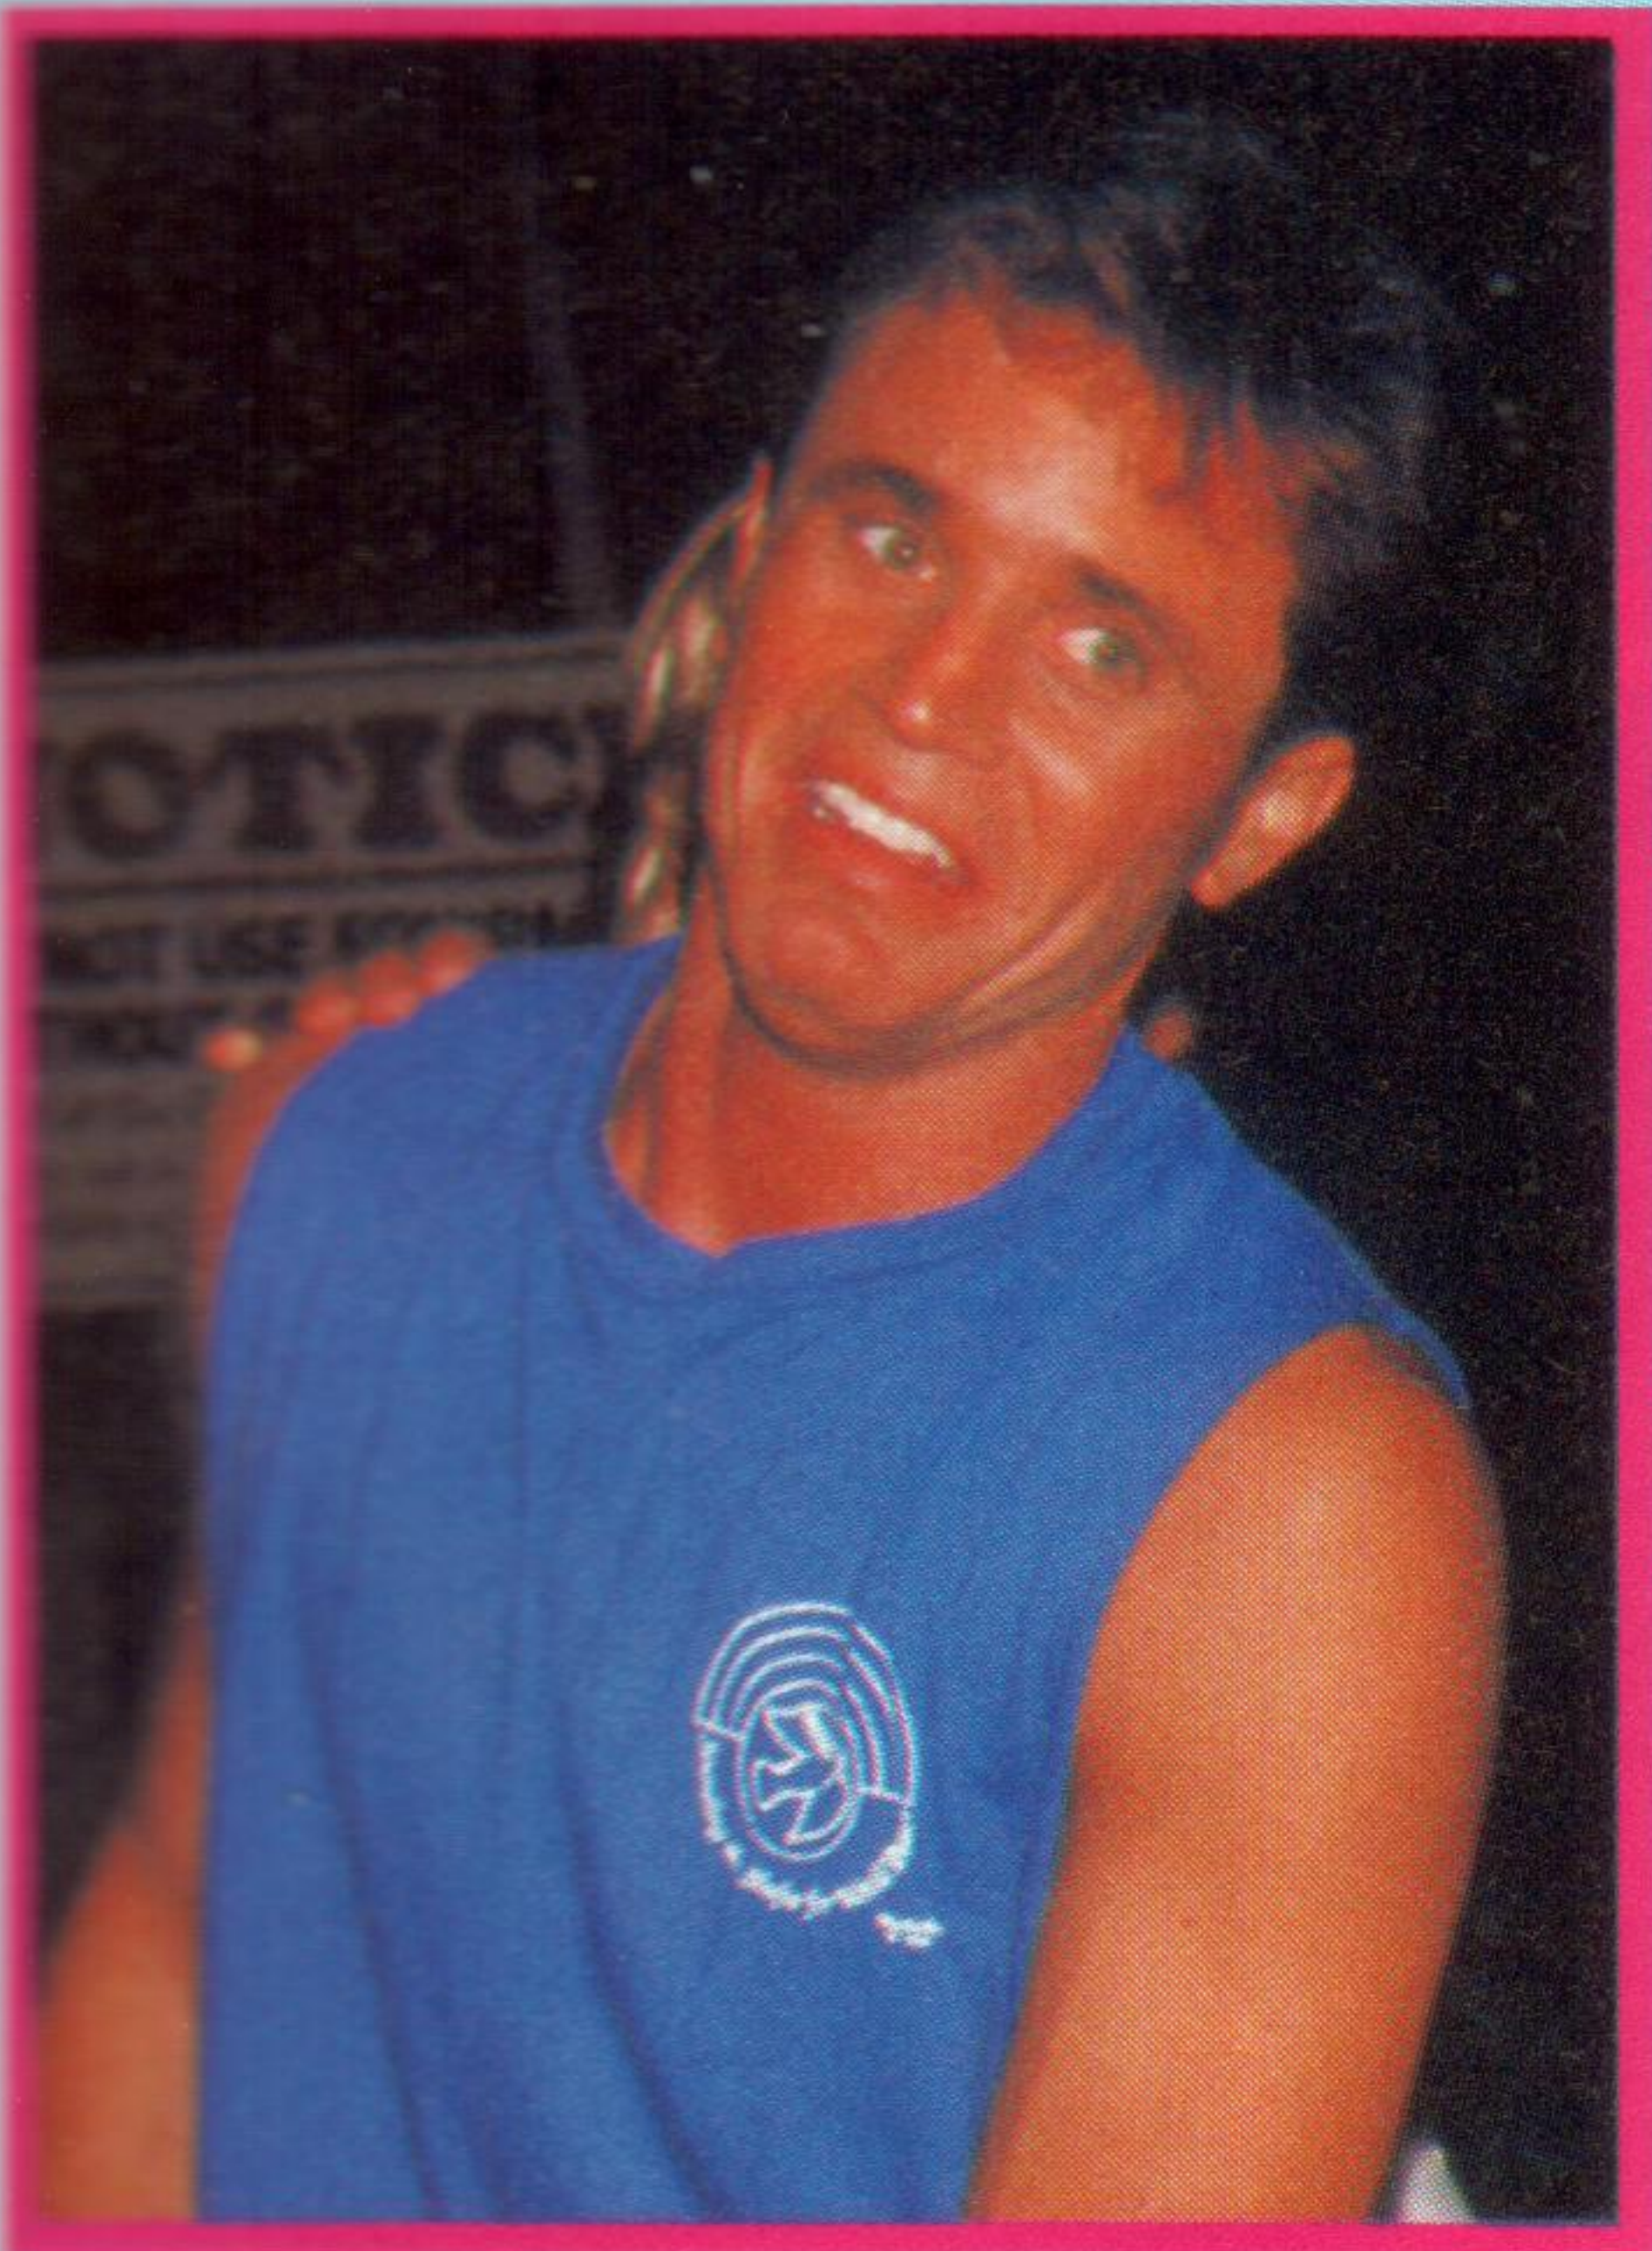

No, David didn't have to raise his hand for permission to go to the bathroom, but his circus trainers did work him and Zachery Ty Bryan long and hard to learn their act.

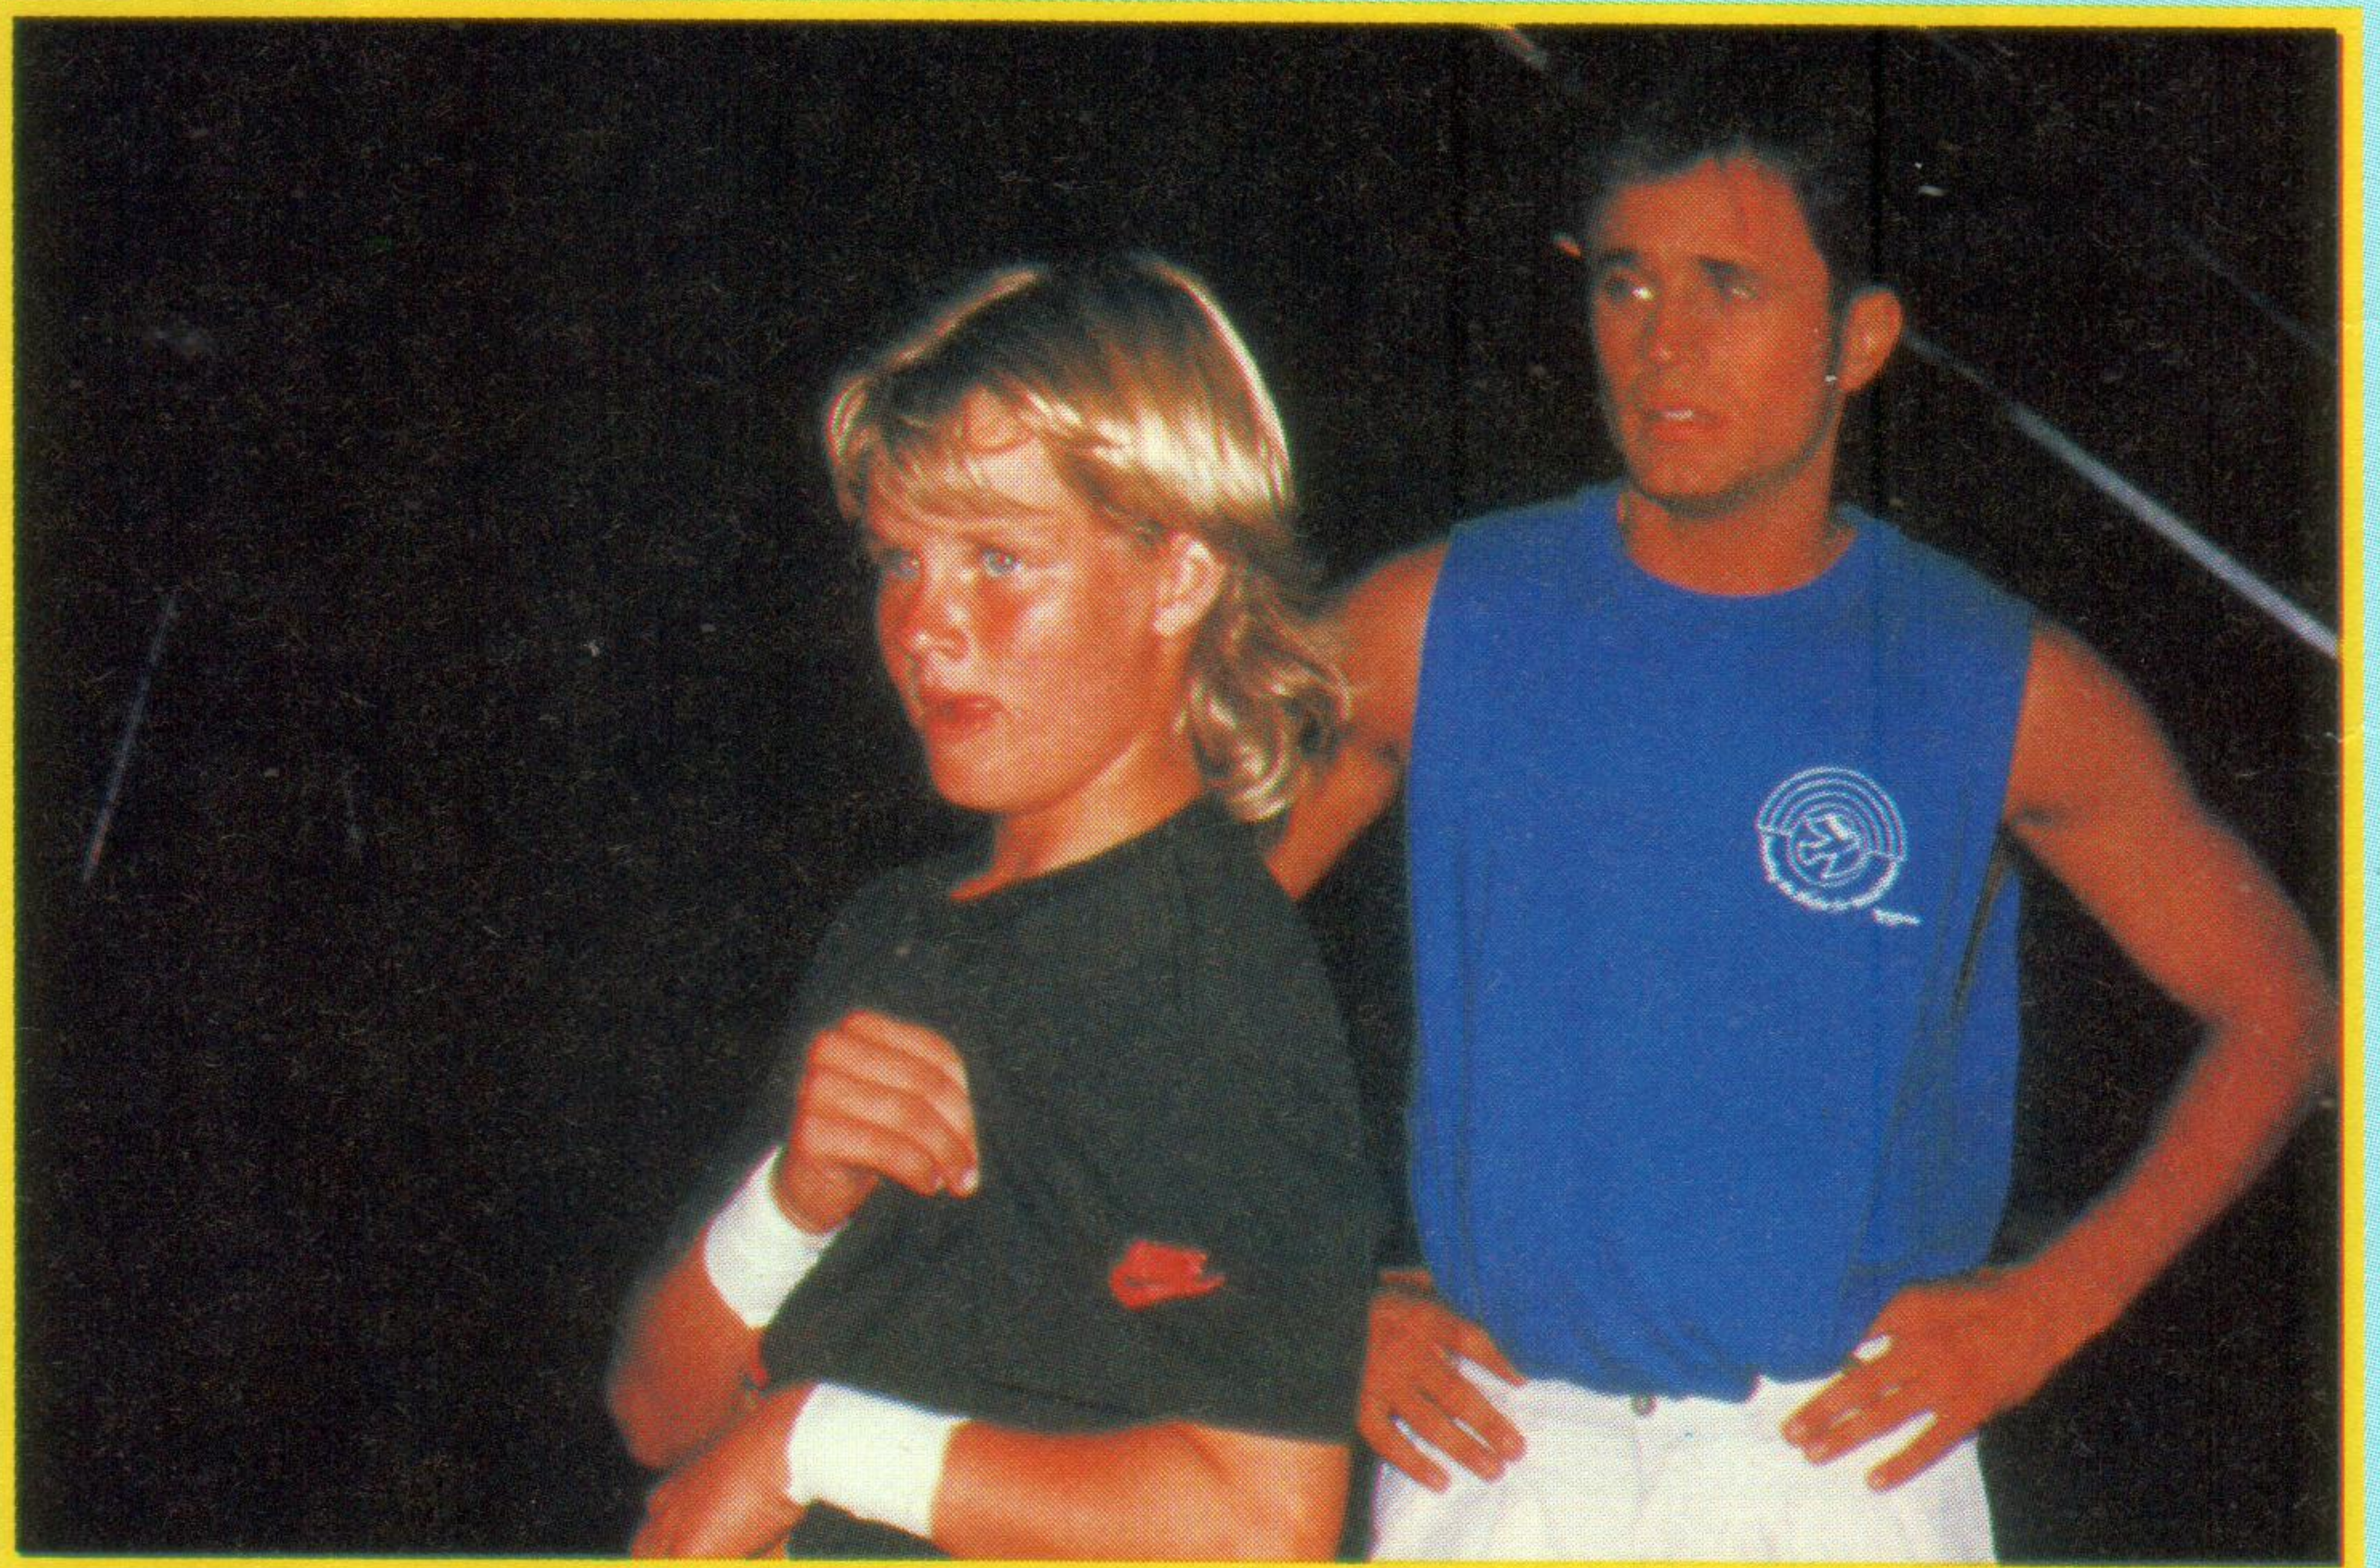

Alley-oop! No strings or wires for this Power Ranger as he flies through the air with the greatest of ease!

THE BLUE POWER

DAVID YOST—

Well—maybe not the greatest of ease! No Power Ranger stuntman to double the dangerous stuff for David on Circus Of The Stars!

"What?!" Zach exclaims. "You expect me to do that, too?! Without a stuntman or pads? I just remembered some really important homework I forgot to do!"

Fringe benefits to being a circus performer? Like maybe, hanging out with lovelies Debby Dunning (left) of Home Improvement and Schae Harrison (right) of Bold & The Beautiful?

And David's tumbling partner Zach made sure Blossom star Jenna von Oy didn't hurt for company during her practice sessions!
